Dedication

This family history is dedicated to the memory of our beloved Grandfather Irvin Henry Dietle, who provided the foundation and inspiration for this work.

Acknowledgments

We are very grateful to the many family members who have responded to our questionnaires and telephone interviews. Without their help this book could not have been written, and we thank them for sharing their memories.

We especially wish to recognize the contributions of Julia (Knecht) Prokop, who shared her voluminous genealogy files with us. Without her help and kindness, much of the history of our family would remain lost to us. Thank you, Julia.

We are very grateful to Ralph Dietle for sharing his extensive materials with us.

We are also indebted to Peter W. Schmidt for his generous help in translating the Wanderbuch of our immigrant ancestor.

Introduction

After several years of research on the Dietle/Deitel family, we are pleased to be able to share the results of our work in this book. Although this project has taken more effort than originally foreseen, it has also given us many pleasures, such as the thrill of discovery, the satisfaction of doing something for the family, the joy of meeting wonderful people, and the pleasure of doing something “together” as brother and sister despite the fact that we live 1,500 miles apart. We hope this book will be of service to our relatives both near and far, and will bring to them some of the joy that working on it has brought to us.

We have solicited information from the family members we were able locate, and have incorporated the material provided to the best of our ability. Please beware, however, that in any work of this nature errors do creep in despite one’s best efforts. The only guarantee we can offer is the assurance the contents have been a labor of love, not of financial gain. We ask no compensation for our time and effort, and have based the selling price on an estimate of printing and mailing costs. Not having unlimited resources or time, we have tried to do the best we could to piece the Dietle family history together from the sources cited in the references. We hope you will take the time to notify us of errors you may find. We plan to collect corrections and additions so that at some time in the future they can be appended to a copy or revision of this book which we plan to donate to the Historical and Genealogical Society of Somerset County, Pennsylvania. In this way, interested family members can access the additional information which is sure to come our way after publication.

Please be aware that most of our contacts with family members have been limited to a brief questionnaire or telephone interview. We were strangers to most of them, and felt that brevity was necessary to gain cooperation from those who might have little interest in genealogy. This approach has yielded a high rate of response, but has also necessarily left gaps in our knowledge. Our goal has been to use the resulting limited information without adding our own assumptions. For example, if we corresponded with someone who forwarded the names of his or her children but did not explicitly state the last name of the children, we have just listed first names, even though the last names of the children are very likely the same as the parent. Likewise, if someone forwarded the names of their spouse and children without explicitly stating the relationship between the spouse and children, we felt it might be misleading to automatically assume that the spouse is the parent of the children. This may unfortunately confuse some readers, who may attempt to read between the lines and incorrectly assume that we think the spouse is not the parent. If you desire to research and clarify such family relationships, we hope that this book will give you a big head start. Likewise, if you have information which could improve any future editions of this book, we hope you will educate us.

Mr. Lannie Dietle

Chapter 1

GGG-Grandparents Adam Diettle & Mary Ann (Unknown) Diettle

The first known progenitor of the Dietle/Deitle family of Somerset County, Pennsylvania was our GGG-Grandfather Johann Adam Dietel (AKA Adam Diettle) who was born on March 18th, 1809 in Selbitz, Bavaria<sup>160*</sup> and is believed to have emigrated to America in 1839<sup>160</sup>. Our forefather was 5'9" tall, with a longish face and high forehead, brown hair, and gray eyes, and was a Weaver by trade in Bavaria<sup>160</sup>. The names of the two of his children who also came to America† and settled in Somerset County are as follows:

John Adam Dietle, and John Nicholas Dieddle.

It is believed that there were several other children who were left behind in the old country**. In a 1947 letter, Mrs. Margaret (Deitle) Beutel, grand-daughter of Nicholas Deiddle, stated “I know Grandfather had Bro’s and I think One sister left in Germany” <sup>160</sup>. Margaret’s source for this information is not known. Margaret’s life and that of Nicholas and his wife overlapped in time, so she may have conceivably received this information directly from one of them. She might have also heard it from her parents, or someone else.

Johann Adam Dietel left Berneck, Bavaria in the middle of August, 1839 with official permission to travel to North America. He traveled in a more or less straight line from Berneck to the port city of Bremen, where he was seen and validated for travel to Baltimore, United States of America, on August 30, 1839<sup>160</sup>. These facts are recorded in a German language document called a “Wanderbuch” which has been handed down through the generations to one of his descendants who wishes to remain anonymous. This remarkable heirloom is the foundation of our understanding of the origins of the Dietel family, and the original document is reproduced in Appendix C. Due to the significance of this document, a complete English translation is included directly here-after.

* The German people did not actually have a single unified country known as “Germany” until 1871<sup>102,103</sup>. Before then the German people shared a common culture and language<sup>103</sup>, but what is now called Germany was actually group of independent states<sup>102</sup> such as Bavaria.

† Surviving evidence indicates that Nicholas Deiddle emigrated in 1850, but we do not know when John Adam Dietle immigrated<sup>189</sup>. References which establish these two children will be presented later.

** An erroneous list of other children was included at one time in early (1993) genealogical correspondance from Lannie Dietle to a number of individuals, and was also included in a very early draft of this book sent to a few people (including Ben Gallagher & Darius Dietle) for review and comment. That list was not correct, and was the result of misinterpretation of a crowded chart in Lannie’s posession. We do not know the names of any other children, are not sure if any other children ever existed. The erroneous list read as follows “Samuel, Daniel, Peter, Barbara, Rebbecca, and Saloma”.

The aforementioned journeyman has the permission to wander in the home country (foreign countries) and is ordered to strictly obey the following instructions:

- 1) This Wanderbuch is destined to collect all certificates of work and the behavior of the journeyman.
- 2) (King's order as per March 16, 1808)
It has to be surrendered to each town authority for visa purposes.
- 3) (King's order as per March 16, 1808)
In order to avoid punishment for falsification with the intent to defraud as per Art. 266 of the Bavarian Penal Code of up to eight years of public workhouse, neither in the name, nor in the numbers, nor in the date must anything be changed.
- 4) (Allerhöchstes Reskript as per March-15th-1821) (The interpreter had no present day German word for it, he thinks it may be something like a super King's order.)
All those Bavarian journeymen which according to their Wander Books have their time of journey not spent by work in their profession but have wandered around, will not be permitted to the craft masters rights, until they have fulfilled the missing journey time by further wandering in the major Bavarian cities, and are able to produce from the masters whom they have worked for, certificates legalized by the authorities, stating perfect diligence, and skill.

- 5) (Kings order as per July 2nd, 1812)
Should the journeyman be liable to military service, he has at the time of draft to appear in person at the recruiting authority or he has to produce a representative, otherwise the regulations of the Bavarian Conscription Law against disobeying draftees will take effect and his properties will be confiscated, should the journeyman actually have been called for draft.
- 6) Should he have been granted permission to wander in foreign countries, each permission has to be separately applied for and to be entered in the wander book, the journeyman in addition has to obey: that he
  - a.) informs the authorities at his place of birth of his whereabouts every 6 months,
  - b.) where there are such provisions has to appear in person at the Royal Bavarian Embassies for conscription, and
  - c.) has to return to Bavaria with in a given period of time.
- 7) (King's order as per October 11th, 1807)
Each Bavarian journeyman, who wanders into foreign countries without permission, or extends his wandering into countries not permitted, will be punished in the first case with 6 weeks of jail in the second case with 3 weeks of jail, and will in both cases be placed back in the competition for the craft masters privileges.
- 8) (King's order as per July 2nd, 1812)
Who remains in the foreign country longer than permitted will be punished with 6 weeks of jail and will be placed back in the masters competition.
- 9) (Same order)
Has he with the intent to not fulfill his military duties or to emigrate in total, not reported to the recruiting authorities, he will be punished with the special penalties set forth for such cases.
- 10) (Same order)
If because of a sickness, to be confirmed by a legalized certificate, he has been unable to complete his journey, he can receive an extension of his permission of three months by a Royal Bavarian Embassy, any further extension however has to be applied for at those Royal Bavarian Authorities that have granted the permission to wander in foreign countries, by his relatives or his guardian.
(Same order)
The aforementioned legal rules have been presented to the bearer of this wander book as a warning and for him to obey. Done at Berneck, June-29th-1839, Seal Royal Bavarian District Court GEFREES, Signature

Which Selbitz? Which Berneck?

The Wanderbuch of Johann Adam Dietel shows that he was born in Selbitz and started his trip to America from Berneck, Bavaria. The problem we are faced with is identifying which Selbitz, and which Berneck. There are three towns in Germany named Selbitz, as follows<sup>175</sup>:

1. Selbitz bei Bitterfeld, Postal Code 06773, which is northwest of Leipzig near Brehna. Go south from Berlin on autobahn A-9 to highway B-100, then turn east. Go through Brehna, and the next town is Selbitz.
2. Selbitz, Postal Code 95152. Go north from Bayreuth on A-9, then west 4 kilometers on B-173. Selbitz is before Neila. This is the only Selbitz which appears on my 1993 Freytag & Berndt 1:800,000 scale map of Germany.
3. Selbitz, Postal Code 95469. Go east from Bayreuth on B-22 to Speichersdorf, then south 2 kilometers to Selbitz.

There are (1993) also 5 towns in Germany called Berneck, and one called Bernech<sup>125</sup>. Three of these towns are in Bavaria, and two are in Baden-Wurttemburg<sup>125</sup>. Of these towns, the computerized German telephone directory shows that there is (1993) a significant concentration of families by the name of Dietel in the vicinity of Bad Berneck, a Bavarian town near Bayreuth<sup>125</sup>. The individual who performed the telephone directory search (Peter W. Schmidt, Neuss), said there were 48 places with an average of 8

Dietels near Bad Berneck, while another Bavarian Berneck shows only 2 Dietels. Bad Berneck is the only Berneck which appears on my 1993 Freytag & Berndt 1:800,000 scale map of Germany.

If the 1839 journey of Johann Adam Dietel, as described in the Wanderbuch, is plotted backwards on a map, it forms a nearly straight line from Bremen which points directly at Bayreuth and nearby Bad Berneck. This evidence, combined with the present day concentration of Dietels in the Bad Berneck area, tells us that Johann Adam Dietel probably started his journey from Bad Berneck, and was born in one of the two towns named Selbitz which are close by.

Naturalization of John Adam Dietel

The earliest Somerset County record we have found regarding Johann Adam Dietel is his 1845-1848 naturalization documentation. By this time he had anglicized his first name to John. He made his declaration of intention to become a citizen in September, 1845 and was admitted to citizenship on September 5, 1848<sup>124</sup> under the terms of the Act of 1824<sup>5</sup>. The 1845 declaration of intention (included in Appendix E) reads as follows 124:

John Adam Dietel a native of the Kingdom of Bavaria Came into open court at September term 1845 And on his solemn Oath declared that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States And to renounce forever all allegiance And fidelity to every foreign prince potentiate State or sovereignty Whatever and particularly to Ludwick King of the Kingdom of Bavaria of whom he has heretofore been a subject.

The 1848 record of naturalization (included in Appendix E) reads as follows 124:

John A Deittle a Native of Germany presented his petition to become a Citizen of the United States at a Court of Common Pleas held at Somerset in and for the said County on the 5 September term 1848. Which petition being read the Court ordered him to be admitted a citizen of the United States After having taken the oaths required by Act of Congress.

Johann Adam Dietel and his wife Mary Ann are buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>12b,46</sup>, which is located adjacent to the Greenville Lutheran Church in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. A number of generations of their descendants are also buried there under several different surname spelling variations*. Most descendants are more likely to know Johann Adam Dietel as “Adam Diettle” from the name given on his tombstone<sup>6,57,121</sup>, and his tombstone is the basis for the “Diettle” spelling used in the title of this chapter. We speculate that he probably went by his middle name “Adam” to distinguish himself from his two known sons, who both also had the first name of John. The marriage certificate of Nicholas Dieddle shows his name as “John Nicholas Dieddle”<sup>89</sup>, and we know his brother was named John Adam Dietle. Since Nicholas evidently went by his middle name to avoid confusion with his brother John Adam, it is easy to suppose that the “first” Adam went by his middle name to avoid confusion with his sons John Adam and John Nicholas. Since there is more than one Adam in the 9 generations of Dietle family descendants in America, our family traditionally refers to the original immigrant as the “first” Adam, and this practice will be followed here-in when necessary.

According to the information supplied on his tombstone, Adam died at the age of 62 yrs. 10 mo. 6 days on Jan. 24, 1869<sup>121</sup>, which puts his date of birth on or about March 18/24, 1806. This date of birth conflicts with the March 18, 1809 date found in the Wanderbuch. According to information on her tombstone, Mary Ann died at the age of 59 yrs. 11 mo. 9 days<sup>46,120</sup> on Dec. 9, 1872<sup>12b,120**</sup> which puts her date of birth in late 1812.

According to family tradition, the “first” Adam immigrated to America with his wife Mary Ann (maiden name unknown) and two sons, Nicholas and our GG-Grandfather John Adam <sup>12a</sup>. The facts, however, now seem to show that they may not have all immigrated at the same time. The Wanderbuch indicates that the “first” Adam immigrated to the United States in 1839. A German report card appears to indicate that * Dana found a list of Greenville Union Church Baptisms 1815-1877<sup>219</sup> during her first information gathering trip to Somerset and was surprised to find that no Dietle family members were listed.

Nicholas didn't immigrate to the U.S. until 1850. This subject is discussed in more detail in the following chapter.

Mary Ann or Anna Maria?

We know the name of Adam Diettle's wife's name was Mary Ann from her tombstone<sup>46,57</sup>, which clearly indicates that she was the wife of Adam Diettle<sup>46,57</sup>. Family tradition also tells us that Mary Ann is both the wife of Adam and the mother of Nicholas and John Adam. We believe the name Mary Ann is an Anglicization of Anna Maria, and we also believe Mary Ann used variations of the name Anna Maria throughout her lifetime. Several Somerset County real estate transactions show this to be true, and show that John A. Dietel and his wife Anna Maria Dietel were the parents of John Adam Dietel. These transactions were as follows:

1. Deed John A Dietel & wif (sic) to John Adam Dietel<sup>161</sup>

This indenture between Grantor John A. Dietel & wife and Grantee John Adam Dietel, who was named as his son, was entered into on Sept. 20, 1855. It is recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book 39, page 153 on Sept. 20, 1869. The text is included in Appendix B. This transaction involved the sale of two tracts of land in Greenville Twp.; one containing 100 acres and the other containing 6 acres. In this transaction John A. Dietel's wife's name is given as Ann Mariah Dietle.

2. Grantor Jacob Steinle to Grantee Anna M. Deetle

A real estate transaction occurred between Grantor Jacob Steinle and Grantee Anna M. Deetle on June 23, 1868 in Greenville Twp., Somerset Co. as recorded in Deed Book 40, page 272<sup>95,212</sup>. The text is included in Appendix B. We know Adam Diettle died on Jan. 24, 1869<sup>121</sup>; perhaps he was in poor health at the time of this transaction and was unable to participate.

3. Deed Anna Maria Deetle to John Deetle<sup>166</sup>

This indenture between Grantor Anna M. Deetle and Grantee John Deetle was made on July 3, 1869. It was recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book 42, page 204 on Oct. 15, 1869. The text is included in Appendix B. This transaction involved the sale of 60 acres of land in Greenville Twp.. This evidently relates to the agreement recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book 50, page 175 and is described below.

4. Agreement Between Ann Mariah Deitle to John Deitle<sup>162</sup>

This agreement between Grantor Ann M. Deitle and Grantee John Deitle was entered into on July 3, 1869, but it was not recorded until April 17, 1874. It is recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book 50, page 175, and the text is included in Appendix B. The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> gives an 1874 date for this transaction, which is confusing unless the actual deed is referenced, because 1874 is after Mary Ann's death. The name Ann M. Deitle listed in the deed index is also misleading, as the name actually used in the document is Anne Mariah Dietle/Deitle. This transaction clearly identifies John Deitle as the son of Anne Mariah Dietle. This transaction involved the sale of 60 acres of land in Greenville Twp., and provided a life estate for Anna Mariah.

5. Deed Anna Mariah Detel to Nicholas Detel in trust<sup>167</sup>

This indenture between Grantor Anna Mariah Detel and Grantee Nicholas Detel was made on March 19, 1870 and was recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book 44, page 114 on Sept. 16, 1870. The text is included in Appendix B. The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> lists this transaction under the name Anne Maria Ditel, which is the way the document is signed. This transaction involved the sale of 100 acres of land in Greenville Twp. which had previously been conveyed to Anne Maria Ditel on May 28, 1860 from John A. Ditel.

The family of Johann Adam Dietel in the U.S. Census Records

Dana searched for Johann Adam Dietle in the 1840 census records of PA and MD without success. The 1840 census only lists heads of household, and perhaps he was only a boarder at the time.

The 1850 census records of Elk Lick Twp. Somerset Co. (immediately to the west of Greenville Twp.) include Adam Deatle (sic) and his family as follows<sup>109</sup>:

Adam Deatle	43	M	Weaver	Germany
Amanda Deatte	37	F		Germany
John A. Deatte	16	M	Wagon Maker	Germany
Nicholas A. Deate	14	M		PA

It is clear from the names and ages of the children that this census record relates to the family of the "first" Adam. It should also be noted that this census record indicates that Adam was still a Weaver by occupation, as he had been in Germany.

We cannot easily explain the name Amanda which is given for the woman who is of an age to be Adam's wife and mother of his children. It is of course possible that Amanda was an earlier wife of Adam, and she died (or a divorce occurred) and he later married Mary Ann. We sincerely doubt this hypothesis, however. It is known that census enumerators were sometimes careless, and that language was sometimes a barrier in the case of new immigrants. The age given for Amanda in the 1850 census is relatively consistent with the information found on Mary Ann's tombstone. The ages of the other family members are also fairly consistent with subsequent records. We believe the overall weight of evidence, which follows in the remainder of this chapter, indicates that Mary Ann and Amanda were actually one and the same individual. Our guess is that the census enumerator somehow misunderstood the name Anna Maria to be Amanda. This may have been due to carelessness, impaired hearing, or due to the strong German accent of the family, or for some other, equally logical reason which cannot be ascertained at this late date. Given the variations in the way the surname was written in this enumeration, pure unadulterated carelessness on the part of the enumerator seems to be as logical an explanation as any.

The 1860 census lists a family in Greenville Twp. which we believe is that of the "first" Adam Dietle. We have abstracted it as follows<sup>104</sup>:

Name	Age	Occupation	Place of Birth	Value of Real Estate	Value of Personal Estate
John A. Tittle	57	Weaver	Bavaria	$1,500.00	$405.00
Maria	51		Bavaria
Nicholas	23	Farm Labor	Bavaria

Despite the obvious name and age discrepancies, we believe that this census record relates to the family of the "first" Adam. The son John Adam was enumerated as a separate family in 1860, so he was not expected to show up as part of Adam's family. The age of Nicholas is consistent with the October 22, 1836 birth date he gave in a 1915 pension questionnaire<sup>19</sup>, and the occupation of John A. is consistent with the 1850 census and with the Wanderbuch.

As to the discrepancies in the 1860 census record, the names "Tittle" and "Dittle" are similar phonetically, and could have been misinterpreted by the enumerator. "Tittle" could have also been an intentional but temporary surname variation in an attempt at Anglicization. The ages could conceivably have been guesses by Nicholas himself, who was the only one of the family to have his age stated correctly. In this record, the name of Adam's wife is given as "Maria" rather than "Mary Ann" or Anna Maria.

Microfilmed church records of the Greenville Union Church (not available for all years) show Adam and Maria "Tittle" receiving the sacrament of the Lord's Supper as members of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation† on May 3, 1854<sup>355</sup>. The records also show them receiving the sacrament as Adam and Anna Maria “Tietle”, members of the Lutheran Congregation, on May 23, 1858<sup>355</sup>. The records show Nicholas “Tietel” and (his mother or wife) Mary A “Tietel” receiving the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper in joint services on May 16, 1869 and May 21, 1871<sup>355</sup>. Mary A “Tietel” also received the sacrament as a member of the Lutheran Branch on Nov. 8, 1868<sup>355</sup>. She was listed as Annie M Tietel in the list of May 24, 1863 communicants<sup>355</sup>. The surname was clearly “Tietle” and “Tietel” and not “Dietle” or “Dietel” in the lists, as many Deal recipients in the same listings and identical handwriting show a clear “D” shape as opposed to the “T” shape in Tietle and Tietel. By the time of joint communions on Nov. 26, 1871 and Oct. 27, 1872, the name was spelled “Dietel” in Mary Dietel’s* listing as a member of the Reformed church, and “Tietle” in Nicholas’s listing as a member of the Ev. Lutheran Church. Tietle/Tietel may have been an intentional spelling for a period of time, or the person making the lists may have just spelled it the way he/she heard it.

Adam Diettle died in 1869<sup>12b,46</sup>, and his wife Mary Ann was living by herself in Greenville Township when the 1870 census was taken<sup>93</sup>. She was listed under the name Mary Deetle, age 54, born in Germany, $1600.00 real estate value, $200.00 personal estate value, unable to read or write, and it is listed that both of her parents were of foreign birth. The age of 54 given in this census does not agree with the information found on her tombstone or in previous census enumerations, but we know of no other Mary Dietle living at this time except Nicholas’s wife, who was enumerated in Nicholas’s household as being age 23.

One other piece of evidence which appears to support our belief that Mary Ann Diettle was the mother of John Adam Dietle and Nicholas Dieddle is the markings on the tombstones of Adam and Mary Ann Diettle. Both tombstones are similar in appearance, with a Bible portrayed in a circle near the top of each monument<sup>120,121</sup>. Above the Bible on Adam’s tombstone are the words “To our father”<sup>121</sup>. Above the Bible on Mary Ann’s tombstone are the words “To our mother”, and below it are the words “Mary Ann, wife of Adam Diettle”<sup>120</sup>. This seems to indicate that Adam and Mary Ann Diettle were not only husband and wife, but also the father and mother of children living in the U.S. who survived them. We also have the written record of our Grandfather Irvin H. Dietle which states that Mary Ann was his Great-Grandmother<sup>2</sup>. We conclude that Amanda in the 1850 census and Mary Ann were evidently one and the same individual.

† The Evangelical Lutheran Congregation existed already by 1803. Peter Deal’s home was the site of early services, then until 1848 services were conducted in a “Werner’s” log school-house, which was built in 1810. In 1848 the Reformed and Lutheran congregations built a jointly owned church for $800.00 on ground donated by Jacob Deal. This church was used by both congregations until 1910, when the Lutherans built their own church, the present Gothic styled brick building adjacent to the Union Cemetery. This structure was built for $8,900.00 on ground bought from John D. Arnold. (This info from Ref. 437.)

Locating the Tombstone of the Original Immigrant Adam Diettle<sup>315</sup>

The above map is based upon an informal hand sketch made by L. Dietle during a trip to the Greenville Union Cemetery in 1994. We hope this map will assist future generations in finding the graves of Adam Diettle and his wife Mary Ann as the stones become more and more weathered. Monument Key: 1. Henry Rembold, 2. Christena Rembold, 3. Jacob P. Hutzel, 4. Christian (sic) F. wife of Jacob Steinle, 5. Margaret, wife of John Dietle, 6. John A. Dietle, 7. Mary Ann, wife of Adam Diettle, 8. Adam Diettle, 9. appears to be the stone of an infant dau. of N. & Mary Diettle; very hard to read, 10. Catharine D. wife of William Dietle, 11. Henry C. 1895-1896 H.W. & M. Deitle.

Where Were the Children Born?

We believe that the two known sons of Johann Adam Dietel and his wife Mary Ann were born in Europe, and most likely in Bavaria. The available records are far from harmonious on this matter, however, and for this reason bear mentioning. The census records, which form the bulk of available records, are particularly confusing, and are summarized in the table below.

Place of Birth Recorded in Census
	1850 Census	1860 Census	1870 Census	1880 Census
John Adam	Germany	Hesse Kassel	Bavaria	Bavaria
Nicholas	PA	Bavaria	Bavaria	PA

It is interesting to note that the 1850 census indicates that the son John, age 16, was born in Germany, and the son Nicholas was born in PA, which theoretically points to a circa 1834-1836 immigration for some of the family members. We do not put any faith in this estimation of the date of immigration, however, because several other subsequent records, including a pension document which Nicholas himself signed<sup>19</sup>, indicate Nicholas was born in Europe, not PA.

The Pennsylvania birthplace of Nicholas listed in the 1910 census is obviously open to question because the same document also indicated he was an immigrant to the United States. Such conflicting information is obviously mutually exclusive, and reflects poorly on the competence of the census taker. In the 1910 census record of Nicholas's son John Henry, it is recorded that John's father was born in Germany<sup>134</sup>. Herman's 1900 census states that his father was born in Germany, his 1920 census record indicates PA<sup>51</sup>, and his 1920 census record indicates Germany<sup>54</sup>.

In a Bureau of Pensions questionnaire which Nicholas filled out and signed in April of 1915, he listed his place of birth as Germany. Chapter 2 includes a description of a German report card that appears to indicate Nicholas was attending school in Bavaria as late as May of 1850.

Greenville Township Background Information

What is now Somerset Co. was originally a part of Cumberland Co. until 1771, when it became a part of Bedford County<sup>63</sup>. It became a separate county by an act passed on April 17, 1795<sup>63</sup>. The county is geographically divided into two parts by the Allegheny mountain<sup>63</sup>, physically isolating the townships of Allegheny, Fair Hope, Greenville, Larimer, Northampton, and Southampton from the larger part of the County<sup>63</sup>. Prior to annexation in 1800, the Allegheny mountain actually formed the eastern boundary of Somerset County, and the land to the east of it remained a part of Bedford County<sup>63</sup>.

Nicholas Dieddle & Mary (Rembold) Dieddle, Ancestors of the Deitle Family Branch

A great deal of information is known about Nicholas Dieddle, son of Adam and Mary Ann Diettle, because of his extensive Civil War pension records. Nicholas was born on October 22, 1836<sup>19</sup> in Bavaria<sup>4,104</sup> and died on November 23, 1918<sup>19</sup>. His extensive obituary (included in Appendix E) stated in part<sup>263</sup>:

“Mr. Dietle lived on the farm where he died for 53 years continuously from the date of his marriage. He was an honest, upright man, kind and hospitable and devoted to his friends and family. He was intensely patriotic and proud of his G.A.R. uniform, which he usually wore when he came to town. When the United States went to war with Germany he said that old and feeble as he was, he would go and fight again for Uncle Sam if they would let him.”

According to his Civil War service records, he had a post-office address of Meyersdale from at least February 11, 1862 (his enlistment date) through August 2, 1918 (his last signed pension document) and he resided in Greenville Township from at least June 14, 1879 (the date of his declaration for original invalid pension) through August 2, 1918 (his last signed pension document)<sup>19</sup>. The 1850 census shows him living with his parents in Elk Lick Township and the 1860 census shows him living with his parents in Greenville Township. By the 1870 census he was enumerated as the head of a family in Greenville Township. He was described in 1879 at age 43 as a being five feet, one inch tall farmer, with a light complexion, light hair, and light eyes<sup>19</sup>, and a similar physical description was given on an 1864 re-enlistment document<sup>153</sup>.

Nicholas Dieddle, son of Johann Adam Dietel

We have come into possession of a photocopy of a “Mai” (May) 26, 1850 school report card which is written in German and bears the stamps and signatures of two inspectors<sup>115</sup>. This certificate has been handed down to a descendant of the Nicholas Dieddle family who wishes to remain anonymous. We have not had it completely translated, but a reproduction and a partial translation is included in Appendix D. The subject of the certificate is Erdmann Dietel von Bernech, who was “geboren am” (born on) October 22, 1836. Some of the cursive writing on the certificate appears to indicate that Erdmann was planning to emigrate to America later in 1850. Since Nicholas Dieddle was born on October 22, 1836, and since the certificate was handed down to his descendants, it seems reasonable to assume that he and Erdmann Dietel von Bernech were one and the same individual, although we can not prove that John Nicholas Dieddle did not have a twin brother named Erdmann. It was not unusual for German immigrants to attempt to anglicize their names, and Erdmann (or his parents) very likely changed his name to John Nicholas.

Mrs. Margaret (Deitle) Beutel, a grand-daughter of Nicholas, wrote in a 1947 letter that “My Grandfather Nicholas Deidle Came from Germany when only 14 years of age”, and also states that “Grandfather passed away in Nov. 1918 at the age of 82”<sup>187</sup>. These figures indicate an 1836 birth and an 1850 immigration, and seem to further support our belief that Erdmann Dietel von Berneck and John Nicholas Deitle were one and the same individual. The source used by Mrs. Margaret (Deitle) Beutel for the age 14 immigration is not known. It is possible that she was referencing the same 1850 report card which we have cited. It is also possible that she got the story of the age 14 immigration from stories passed on by her Grandfather Nicholas or her parents. She herself was born Dec. 27, 1903, so she probably would have known Nicholas Deitle and his wife Mary personally.

Vivian Timblin, a great-grand-daughter of Nicholas who was very close to Nicholas's widow, tells us she had heard that Nicholas's father came to America by himself first, and other family members, including Nicholas, came over later<sup>180</sup>.

I* have been told by an immigrant from Germany that the German word “von” means “of”, and that the word following von is considered to be part of the surname. One Genealogical Handbook says that when German people moved to a new locale, they sometimes attached the name of their former locality to their * Dana lives much closer to our ancestral home of Somerset County than I (Lannie Dietle) do, and closer to relatives and other important genealogical resources; I have the computer and typing ability, and thus our individual contributions have evolved. As the principle narrator, I have taken the liberty of assuming the first person style of writing in order to simplify the task of presenting personal observations and recollections. In other words, when referring to my recollections, terms like “my” and “I recall” have been used, and when presenting the recollections of Dana and others, terms like “Dana recalls” and “her” have been used. I hope that this practice does not in any way diminish the contributions which Dana has made; this style of writing is merely an expedient to simplify the problems encountered with the execution of a jointly authored genealogy. Exceptions to this practice occur in certain obvious cases where individuals are quoted, and where material is credited to a particular individual.

surname to distinguish themselves from people in the new locale having the same surname<sup>141</sup>. Apparently Erdmann was actually living in or near a town called Bernech or Berneck at the time of the “Dietle von Bernech” usage (1850), because one of the Inspectors stamps on Erdmann’s report card includes the word “Berneck”.

If Erdmann Dietel von Bernech and Nicholas Dietle were indeed one and the same individual, it appears that Nicholas emigrated to the United States after May 26, 1850, but before the 1850 census record, which was enumerated on October 25, 1850. Since the report card apparently refers to emigration to America, and since Erdmann and Nicholas were born on the same date, and since the report card was handed down in the Nicholas Dieddle family, and since we know of no burial in Somerset Co. under the name Erdmann Dietel, we conclude that Erdmann and Nicholas were indeed one and the same individual.

It is believed that John had once been a gardener for royalty<sup>113a,220</sup> in Germany<sup>113a</sup>. John purchased and farmed 136 acres in Greenville Twp. near Pocahontas<sup>113a</sup>. The eight room house which they built there was still inhabited circa 1962<sup>113a</sup>, and for all we know may still be lived in. Both were members of the Greenville Lutheran Church, and both are buried there<sup>57,113a,286</sup> side by side<sup>113a,315</sup>. His gravestone is marked “Henry Rembold” and hers is marked “Christena Rembold”; the graves are located immediately behind the stones of John Adam Dietle and his wife Mary, and Adam Diettle and his wife Mary Ann<sup>315</sup>. Microfilmed church records of the Greenville Union Church (not available for all years) show Henry and Christina Rembold receiving the Lord’s Supper as members of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation on May 3, 1854.

Nicholas joined the church by a letter of May 21, 1871, and remained a member until his death<sup>263</sup>. Mary Rembold joined the Greenville Reformed Church when she was 16 years old<sup>76</sup>. She remained an active and faithful member of the Greenville congregation until she moved to Akron, Ohio circa 1922<sup>76</sup>, 17 years prior to her death<sup>345</sup>. She became a member of the East Market Street Reformed Church after moving to Akron<sup>76,345</sup> and remained with that congregation until the time of her death.

For several years prior to her death at age 92, Mary suffered from physical disability and was unable to attend church<sup>76</sup>, but otherwise her health was good considering her advanced age<sup>75</sup>. In fact, she had hoped to go visit her son Herman in Meyersdale<sup>75</sup>. Her disability occurred from an accident at the home of Jack Bealer and his wife Minerva Ellen (Shoemaker) Bealer, where she was residing<sup>180</sup>. Mary was trying to get a trunk off of a shelf, and it fell on her<sup>180</sup>. From then on she had a crippled hip<sup>180</sup>.

She died on June 1, 1939<sup>76</sup> at the age of 92 years<sup>76,345</sup> from a stroke<sup>180</sup> at the home of John Bealer at 28 South Martha Avenue after an illness of 10 days<sup>345</sup>. When she passed away her obituaries indicated that she had 14 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and 4 great-great grandchildren<sup>76,345</sup>. Two obituaries gave her last name as Deitle<sup>76,345</sup>. Her brother Joseph Rembold of Horseshoe Run, West Virginia was her only surviving sibling at the time of her death<sup>76,345</sup>. Her body was taken by train from Oh to PA<sup>180</sup>. Funeral services were held both in Akron and at the Greenville Church, with the Rev. S. D. Sigler officiating on June 4 at the Greenville Church where she is buried<sup>76</sup>. At the Akron Services, her pastor made the following remarks:

“There are but very few who have learned to live and enjoy life as well as she did. It is also very unusual for such an old person to win the love and friendship of neighbors and young people as did this friend and loved one. As a young woman she was always ready to go to the help of her neighbors or loved ones in times of need or sickness, and always found a joy in being of service to her fellow men, which is one of the great secrets of life, and one that brings a great joy in old age. Her fine wholesome spirit was very evident in the time of her last sickness and at other times when she was not well; she was always so appreciative of all that was done for her and tried very hard not to cause any extra work or bother to others.”<sup>76</sup>

John Henry Dieddle, born July 7, 1867<sup>19</sup>,
Herman William Dieddle, born May 26, 1870<sup>19,72</sup>, died Dec. 25, 1946<sup>72,91,189</sup>,
un-named infant daughter, died July 7, 1872<sup>57</sup>,
Mary Ann “Annie” Dieddle, born August 5, 1877<sup>19,113a</sup>, d. Nov. 7, 1920<sup>113a</sup>, and Jeremiah Dieddle, born August 20, 1881<sup>19,113a</sup>.

His family appears in the 1870 census, abstracted as follows<sup>4</sup>:

Real Estate	$1000	Personal Estate	$500
Mary Dittle	23 yr.	Female	white	housewife	born in PA
John H. Dittle	3 yr.	Male	white		born in PA
Herman Dittle	2/12 yr.	Male	white		born in PA

The 1870<sup>350</sup> census of Greenville Twp. included a schedule for agricultural production which provides insight into Nicholas's farming activities. In this schedule his name is spelled "Dittle". The census shows that his farm was valued at $1000, and consisted of 40 acres improved and 60 acres in woodland. He had 1 horse, 4 milk cows, 2 other cattle, 7 sheep, and 3 swine, with the value of all livestock estimated at $500. In the preceding year he harvested 50 lbs of wool, 25 bushels of Irish potatoes, 200 lb of butter, 5 tons of hay, and $10 of orchard products. The value of home manufactured goods in the preceding year was $12, the value of animals slaughtered or sold for slaughter was $75, and the estimated value of all farm production was $237.

The 1880<sup>334</sup> census of Greenville Twp. also included a schedule for agricultural production which indicates that Nicholas "Deitle" had a farm valued at $2,000, with $130 of farm implements and $212 of livestock. The estimated value of all farm products for 1879 was $80. The farm consisted of 40 acres of tilled land, 60 acres of woodlands, and 50 acres in the category of meadows, pastures, orchards and vineyards. He produced 6 tons of Hay in 1879. He had 3 swine, 25 chickens, 1 horse, 4 milk cows, and 4 other cattle, and had slaughtered 1 cow in the previous year. He produced 200 lbs of butter in 1879. He had 6 sheep on hand, and had slaughtered 2 in 1879 and produced 16 lbs of fleece.

Most of the 1890 census burned, but Nicholas appears in the Greenville Twp enumeration of a special 1890 census schedule of "Surviving Soldiers, Sailors, And Marines, and Widows, Etc."<sup>217</sup>. In this census, his surname is spelled "Dietle"<sup>217</sup>. This enumeration documents his service in Co. K, 2nd MD Infantry<sup>217</sup>.

Nicholas, Mary, and a grand-daughter Minerva Shoemaker also appear in the 1910 census as living on a farm in Greenville Twp. which he owned free and clear<sup>51</sup>. This census lists Nicholas's surname as "Dietle". The 1910 census lists the year of immigration to the United States as 1856§ for both Nicholas and Mary<sup>51</sup>, which is inconsistent with other information which we have found, such as the fact that Nicholas is enumerated in the 1850 U.S. census. This isn't the only contradiction in the 1910 census, however, as it also indicates that Nicholas and Mary were both born in PA<sup>51</sup>! Immigration to PA and having being born in PA are mutually exclusive, so one (or both) pieces of census information are incorrect.

Dieddle
Mary	Nicholas
1846-1939	1836-1918*
Co. K 2 TH P.H.B. MD.

Dana and I saw and recorded the above inscription in July, 1994. This appears to be a relatively new tombstone, as it was in like-new condition in 1994, and had deep, sandblasted letters. It very well may not be the original stone. Reference 46 states that the tombstone carries the initials G.A.R., which stands for the Grand Army of the Republic, but the tombstone we saw lacks this inscription. Reference 57 states that his

* The death date on Nicholas's tombstone is incorrectly stated to be 1916 in references 46 and 57; the present stone may be a replacement. The death date of 1918 on the present tombstone agrees with his military pension records<sup>19</sup>.

surname is inscribed “Dietle”, which also varies from the current stone. Reference 57 also states that the stone reads “Co. K. 2nd P.H.B. Md.”†, but it actually now reads “2th” instead of “2nd”. It is possible that the cemetery audits of References 46 and 57 were performed before the stone was replaced. It is also possible that the differences between the audits and the current stones are merely the result of typographical errors.

Tombstone of Nicholas and Mary Dieddle, 1994

We have seen a copy of receipts for payments for a monument that was purchased by Nicholas’s wife Mary in 1920 from the Meyersdale Marble and Granite Yard. Given that the monument was purchased 15 months after Nicholas’s death, it is very likely the stone that was purchased to mark Nicholas’s grave. On each of 3 separate receipts, the name is spelled “Diddle”, which suggests that Mary may have been spelling the surname with 3 d’s at that time.

A number of different spellings are encountered in his military pension records, including Diddle, Dieddle, Diedle, Diettel, Dietle, and Deitle<sup>19</sup>. Most of these spelling variations, however, are apparently misspellings by others in the course of swearing out affidavits for his pension. Nicholas himself consistently signed his name as “Dieddle” throughout his pension file; this may indicate his preferred spelling, or he might have merely signed it that way to be consistent with the way the U.S. Pension office had him on file. In his veteran volunteer re-enlistment document in 1864, however, he signed his name as “Nicolas Diettel”<sup>153</sup>. It is interesting to note that on an August 2, 1918 pension declaration, he signed as “Dieddle”, while an Attestor to the document, probably his grand-daughter§, signed as “Mary Ann Deitle”. The Mary who attested to the August document was evidently not his wife, because his wife signed with an X mark on a Declaration for Widow’s Pension approximately 4 months later on November 30, 1918*. In Mary’s obituaries in 1939 the last name was also spelled “Deitle”.<sup>75</sup> In Nicholas’s obituary in the Meyersdale Republican, the last name was spelled “Dietle”<sup>263</sup>. The above mentioned November 23, 1918 date of death for Nicholas is taken from the Declaration for Widow’s Pension; his death date is mis-quoted as November 30, 1918 on the Department of the Interior “Pensioned Dropped” form 3-1081, and is mis-quoted as 1916 in two books of Somerset County tombstone inscriptions. As Nicholas’s widow, Mary received a widows pension of $50.00 per month commencing on February 17, 1931<sup>342</sup>. On the pension certificate, her name is spelled “Dieddle”<sup>342</sup>.

† Some descendants have incorrectly interpreted the “Md” on Nicholas’s tombstone to mean that he was a Medical Doctor, but it was actually an abbreviation for the state of Maryland, where his Civil War Regiment, the Second Potomac Home Brigade, was from.

According to a form filled out on December 4, 1899 by the U.S. Pension Office to document his service and medical history, Nicholas Diettel, age 22, enrolled with Company K, Second Regiment Potomac Home Brigade, Maryland Infantry on February 11, 1862, transferred to Company C in September or October of 1864, re-enlisted as a Veteran Volunteer on February 12, 1864, and was mustered out on May 29, 1865, and held the rank of private throughout his military service<sup>19</sup>. The same pension document states that he was also found listed in the regimental records as Nicholas Diddle, but not as Nicholas Dieddle. According to the “History and Roster of Maryland Volunteers, War of 1861-5”<sup>6</sup> Nicholas “Diddle” was enlisted or mustered in on February 11, 1862 and mustered out or discharged on May 29, 1865. Based on enlistment and discharge dates, it is obvious that Diddle and Diettel are one and the same individual.

In addition to veteran’s pension records, the National Archives also maintains separate veteran’s military service records. Nicholas’s military service records are filed under the name “Nicholas Diddle”, and are generally in agreement with the information in his pension records<sup>153</sup>. His service records indicate he was enrolled into the service on Feb. 11, 1862, joined for duty and enrolled with Company K at Cumberland on March 26, 1863 for a period of three years, was mustered out on February 11, 1864, being discharged by virtue of re-enlistment as a Veteran Volunteer under the provisions of General Order No. 191 series of 1863 from the War Department<sup>153</sup>. He re-volunteered for a period of three years on Feb. 12, 1864, and was mustered into Co. K on March 7, 1864 at New Creek, West Virginia, and was officially mustered out on May 29, 1865, although he was only paid through Feb. 28, 1865<sup>153</sup>. He was paid a bounty of $400.00 for his re-enlistment as a Veteran Volunteer<sup>153</sup>. This bounty was paid in several installments<sup>153</sup>. By the time of his May 29, 1865 muster-out, $210.00 had been paid, and $190.00 was still owed to him<sup>153</sup>.

Our GGG-Grandfather Christian Peppenbrink (sic) on our mother’s side of the family also served in the Second Regiment Potomac Home Brigade, Maryland Infantry, first as a member of Company K and later transferring to Company C<sup>6,36</sup>. Nicholas and Christian might even have known each other, judging from the fact that the same Daniel Shoemaker swore out pension affidavits for both of them, and judging from the fact that they both served on iron-clad railroad cars<sup>19,47</sup>. Christian Peppenbrink was severely injured when a cannon ball or explosive shell hit his iron-clad car at the battle of Greensprings Depot, WV on or about Aug. 2, 1864<sup>47</sup>.

According to the “History and Roster of Maryland Volunteers, War of 1861-5”<sup>6</sup>, The Second Regiment, Potomac Home Brigade Infantry, Maryland Volunteers was organized in Cumberland, MD via the efforts of the Honorable Congressman Francis Thomas. The history of the Regiment is given there-in as follows <sup>6</sup>:

“The Second Regiment of Infantry, Potomac Home Brigade, was organized at Cumberland, Maryland from August 27, 1861 to October 31, 1861, to serve 3 years.

On the expiration of its term of service, the original members (except veterans) were mustered out and the veterans and recruits consolidated into a battalion of three companies, viz., companies A, B and C. A new company was organized on March, 1865, to serve one year, and assigned to this battalion as Company D.

The organization was mustered out of service May 29, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

Companies A, B, C, E, G, H, I and K were recruited an Allegany County, Company F at Hancock, Washington County, and Company D at Piedmont, Virginia, on the border land.

infirmitiy) and started signing with an X<sup>180</sup>. As evidence of Mary’s ability to read, Vivian told me that Mary “knew the Bible like the back of her hand”<sup>180</sup>.

Immediately after the completion of the organization the regiment was assigned to duty in Western Virginia, in that part of the Army of West Virginia under General B. F. Kelly, and for a brief time, under General F. W. Lander's command.

During the raid of General (Stonewall) Jackson's Confederate Army through Berkeley Springs to Hancock, Md., in January, 1862, and the subsequent movement of this Confederate Army to Romney, West Virginia, the 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry took a very active part, and had several severe skirmishes with the enemy. On September 17, 1862, the 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry had a skirmish with the enemy near Romney, West Virginia.....

The 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry rendered efficient service in Western Virginia, in the autumn and winter of 1863.

The 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry formed a part of the Army of General David Hunter, who advanced down the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia as far as Lynchburg, Va., on the James river, in June, 1864, after the arrival of reinforcements of Early's Confederate Army at Lynchburg and the retreat of the Army of Western Virginia. The 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry marched with that army, and when Early's Army was in turn driven back from Maryland to Virginia, the 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry formed a part of the Union Army in pursuit, and participated in the fight at Snicker's Gap, Va., July 18, 1864.

From thence the 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry marched to Western Virginia again, where the original men on re-enlisted as veterans were mustered out of service on the expiration of their terms of enlistment, in the autumn of 1864, and the battalion, composed of veterans and recruits, continued in the military service in the Department of Western Virginia until the close of the war, and were mustered out of service May 29, 1865.

The 2d Regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry, with its Cavalry Company F, participated, either by detachments or as an organization, in the following engagements, viz.: Springfield, Va., August 23, 1861; Blue House, Va., August 26, 1861; South Branch Bridge, Md., October 23, 1861; Springfield, Va. October 26, 1861; South Branch Wire Bridge, October 26, 1861; Great Cacapon Bridge, Va., January 4, 1862; Vance's Ford, near Romney, Va., September 17, 1862; Charlestown, Va., May 15, 1863; Summit Point, Va., October 7, 1863; Charlestown, Va., October 18, 1863; Burlington, Va., November 16, 1863; Ridgeville, Va. January 4, 1864; Moorefield Junction, Va., January 8, 1864; Medley, Va., January 30, 1864; Lynchburg, Va., June 18, 1864; Salem, Va., June 21, 1864; South Branch Bridge, Va., July 4, 1864; Sir John's Run, Va., July 6, 1864; Snicker's Gap, Va. July 18, 1864; Martinsburg, Va., 1864; Back Creek Bridge, Va., 1864; Hancock, Md. 1864; Green Spring Run, Va., 1864.

The following death casualties were incurred by the 2d regiment Potomac Home Brigade Infantry, Maryland Volunteers, during the Civil War, Viz.: Killed in battle, one (1) commissioned officer and nine (9) enlisted men-total, ten (10); died of disease, wounds, etc., eighty-four (84) enlisted men; or an aggregate death list of ninety-four (94)."

The following is quoted from a 1906 history of Bedford and Somerset County in regards to the Second Regiment, Maryland Potomac Home Brigade<sup>63</sup>:

"While, as a matter of course, this was a Maryland organization, nevertheless Company K bore upon its muster rolls the names of a considerable number of Somerset county men. These were mostly from about Wellersburg and the adjacent township of Southampton, the Captain, Peter B. Petrie, according to the best information attainable to the writer, having been a resident of Wellersburg at the time of the outbreak of the Civil war."

"The regiment was mostly employed in guarding the Baltimore & Ohio railroad from New Creek (now Keyser, West Virginia) to points east of Cumberland, Maryland. At times the entire regiment was at Cumberland, but most of the time the companies were detached along the line of the railroad. The regiment, however, also saw some service of a more active nature in 1864, and took part in several engagements in the Shenandoah Valley. At Cumberland, a couple of gondola cars had been in some way roofed over or covered with iron rails, the sides were pierced by port-holes, and they carried small brass guns, probably three or four-pounders. These armored cars, or iron-clads, as they may be called, were run back and forth over the road to such points as were threatened by the Rebels, who were quite persistent in their efforts to burn the bridges and otherwise interrupt the free use of the railroad, the keeping open of which was a matter of vital importance. In one of the frequent encounters that took place east of Cumberland, the enemy also had one or two light pieces of artillery, a well directed shell from which, entering a port-hole of one of these iron-clad cars, exploded and put it out of business. These iron-clad cars were manned and operated by Capt. Petrie's Company K through almost the entire war. Aside from this particular service, we have very little information about the company.

For such names of its members as are here given the present writer is indebted to Samuel M. Petrie, a son of the captain, and John H. Lepley, Esq.*, of Southampton township."

Nicholas Dieddle paid a heavy personal price in terms of human suffering for serving his country during the Civil War. He received injuries in the wreck of an Iron Clad railroad car on the B&O Rail Road near Paw Paw Virginia in October 1864, and he also suffered lingering, debilitating effects from Typhoid Fever<sup>19</sup>. According to his declaration for original invalid pension on June 14, 1879, Nicholas became ill with rheumatic pains while in the line of duty at New Creek, Virginia on or about July 7, 1864, and was treated for about seven weeks in a hospital at Cumberland, Maryland<sup>19</sup>. After discharge from the hospital, he had spells when he could hardly get about, according to a number of Affidavits by his mess-mates<sup>19</sup>. These afflictions troubled him his entire life, and left him 1/2 to 3/4ths disabled in his ability to perform manual labor<sup>19</sup>. Several of the more illustrative pension Affidavits which were filed on his behalf are as follows:

From the Affidavit by W. H. Meyers, M.D. of Meyersdale, Somerset Co. PA<sup>19</sup>:

"I was and am still well acquainted with said claimant Nicholas Dielte (sic) of Co. K 2nd P.H.B. Md. Vol. prior to and at the time of his enlistment in February A.D. 1862 that up to the said date of enlistment the claimant was well sound and free from any injury or Rheumatism of his side and left shoulder. I also saw the said claimant soon after his discharge, about the 1st of June 1865 the said claimant then complained to me the (sic) he was suffering with Rheumatism in his arms & legs and shoulders which he said he had since he recovered from Typhoid fever he had in the Army in 1861 & also found an injury he rec'd of the shoulder by a collision while in charge of an Iron Clad Car on the B&O R.R. the injury was perceptible at the time of discharge he was then 1/2 disabled from manual labor in 1865 & the degree of his disability has increased since 1865 and since 1870 has been 3/4 disabled from manual labor during each and every year. This I know for I treated him at the time & since every year."

From an Affidavit by Daniel Shoemaker of Sand Patch, Somerset Co. PA at age 50<sup>19</sup>:

"The claimant and myself were privates in Co. K. 2d Md. P.H.B. Vols. after the claimant Nicholas Diedle returned from the Hospital at Cumberland Md. and joined the Regiment at New Creek W Va he was reduced Physically to a considerable extent and suffered and complained of Rheumatism. He got lineaments from the Regimental Doctor and used it in our tent. and we, being his mess mates often rubbed the lineament on his shoulders and arms, he complained a great deal of pain in his shoulders & arms. He continued to use lineaments from the time he returned from the Hospital until he was discharged from the army. He would take Rheumatism by spells. Sometimes did not get (unintelligible) for weeks & sometimes not for a month so severe and when he did take them spells he was so bad, that he could hardly get about. We never knew that the claimant had rheumatism until after his return from the Hospital at Cumberland, Md. in June or July 1863..... I was his mess mate and attended upon him personally"

From an Affidavit by Daniel Shoemaker of Wittinburg, Somerset Co. PA at age 59<sup>19</sup>:

"I was in command or detailed with a lot of soldiers out of co. K 2nd Md P.H. Brigade to do duty on an Iron Clad RR car on the B&O Rail Road near Paw Paw Va-and about the 18 or 19th Oct. 1864, at which time there was a collision The said Nicholas Diedle was on duty at said collision a wreck - and was inside of the car and was thrown against the side of the car on his left shoulder and injuring him very much- from which he suffered very much and often complained of severe pain in his injured shoulder and arms. that he could not raise them up.-I know this fact - because I was present with him”<sup>19</sup>

“He was member of Co. K P.H.B. Md. Inft. that he knew the claimant during the war. He knows that claimant was sick in 1863 with what was called Typhoid Fever.....” This affidavit (and others) go on to describe other debilitating service related medical problems, too personal to recount here-in, that began with the Typhoid Fever and train wreck, and lasted for the remainder of Nicholas Dieddle’s life.

Chapter 3

Descendants of Nicholas Dieddle & Mary (Rembold) Dieddle

John Henry Dietle

The 1900 census of Elk Lick Township, Somerset County<sup>31</sup> lists a John Dietle, laborer, as living in the home of Sarah(?) Miller as one of several boarders. His age is listed as 27, and his birth date is listed as May 1873. We believe that this John Dietle is the son of Nicholas Dieddle, simply because we do not know of any other John Dietle who would have been anywhere near the age indicated by the census, and there were very few Somerset Co. Dietle families at the time that he could possibly belong to. The census lists John Dietle's father as being born in Germany, and lists his mother as being born in PA, which is consistent with the weight of evidence we have seen regarding the place of birth of Nicholas and Mary Dieddle<sup>19,27</sup>.

John Henry Dietle, son of Nicholas

A rather large discrepancy exists between the birth date of May, 1873 given for John Dietle in the 1900 census, and the July 7, 1867 birth date given in pension questionnaires<sup>19</sup> filled out by Nicholas. The 1900 census lists John Dietle as being fully employed, so it is entirely possible that he was not even present when the census information was gathered, and the birth date given in the census could possibly be an educated guess by the enumerator or one of the other boarders. The 1870 census record<sup>4</sup> of the Nicholas Dietle family shows a son John, age 3, which supports the 1867 birth date given in the aforementioned pension questionnaires. According to Julia (Knecht) Prokop, Nicholas's son John H. Dietle married Elizabeth Miller and had a son named Crawford<sup>91</sup>.

John's family is enumerated in the 1910 census of Summit Township, Somerset Co., which is abstracted as follows<sup>134</sup>:

Name	Age	Occupation
John Deetle	43	Farm Labor
Lizzie	34
Crawford	7

The age given for John in the 1910 census corresponds to the 1867 birth recorded by his father Nicholas. The 1910 census indicates that John owned his own house free and clear, and had been out of work for a period of 8 weeks in 1909<sup>134</sup>. His parents were listed as born in Germany, and Lizzie's parents were listed as having been born in PA, as was Crawford<sup>134</sup>. Lizzie was listed as being the mother of two children, but only one was listed as still living<sup>134</sup>.

In the Rembold Family Record, John's wife is also listed as Lizzie Miller<sup>113a</sup>. A deed of Oct. 4, 1922 shows John H. Dietle and his wife Amanda E. Dietle of Summit Twp. purchasing land in Summit Twp. for $72.00<sup>222</sup>. Since other sources list her as "Lizzie", it might be that the middle initial "E" recorded in the deed stood for Elizabeth.

In his father's obituary in 1918, John was said to be living in Elk Lick Twp<sup>263</sup>. In his mother's obituary in June, 1939, John was said to still be living in the Meyersdale area<sup>76</sup>. Doretha (Arnold) Hoover, who herself was born in 1931, recalls an old man named John Dietle living alone in a "shack" near Meyersdale. This John Dietle would seem to have been Nicholas's son, and seems to indicate that he probably lived out his life in the area. Doretha also, incidentally, remembers hearing family members talking about "Old Nick" Deitle.

Roy Emerson Deitle, son of James Deitle and Lulu Brant, remembers his great-uncle John Deitle, but thought that John never had any children<sup>192</sup>. Roy said John lived in a two story white house which he didn't take good care of after his wife died<sup>192</sup>. Roy never knew John's wife, but said he had heard that John was deeply in love with his wife, and that the two were inseparable in life<sup>192</sup>. The loss of his wife was such a blow to John that he sort of left things go after that<sup>192</sup>. Roy also reported that John raised and sold raspberries. When they were ready, he took the seat out of his old model T Ford and put the crates in there to take them to be sold<sup>192</sup>.

Herman William Deittle

Herman William Deittle & Minnie Sophia (Sperry) Deittle

Our knowledge of the life of Nicholas and Mary Dieddle's son Herman Deittle begins with the census results for Greenville Twp., Somerset County. We have abstracted the 1900 census information on Herman as follows<sup>27</sup>:

Head of Family: Deittle, Herman, born May 1870, age 30, Birthplace: Pennsylvania, Father's birthplace: Germany, Mother's birthplace: Pennsylvania
Deittle, Minnie, wife, b. Aug. 1872, age 27, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, George A., son, b. Nov. 1892, age 7, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Charles E., son, b. May 1894, age 6, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, James E., son, b. Jan. 1897, age 3, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Maryan, dau, b. Nov. 1899, age 1, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Walter A., son, b. Jan. 1900, age 4/12, Birthplace: PA

In the 1910 census results from Greenville Twp.<sup>51</sup>, Herman's surname is spelled "Dietle" and his listed occupation is that of a Farmer. His wife Minnie is listed as having given birth to 8 children, of whom 7 were still living at the time of the census. The daughter who was listed as "Maryan" in the 1900 census is listed as "Mary A." in the 1910 census. Two children born after 1900 are shown in the 1910 census, a daughter Ida E. Dietle, age 7, and a daughter Maggie L. Dietle, age 6. The 1910 census indicates that Minnie's parents were born in PA, and also erroneously (we believe) lists Herman's parents as having been born in PA. Herman was born and died in the same house <sup>67</sup>. Minnie also had a son named Frank <sup>67,91,180</sup> Wagner <sup>91,180</sup> who was not Herman's son <sup>67</sup>. Frank went on to live in Canton<sup>67</sup>, Ohio<sup>67,180</sup> as an adult <sup>67</sup>. Frank first married Lemmie Pritts<sup>91</sup>, then Alice _____ <sup>91</sup>, then _____ <sup>91</sup>, then Elizabeth _____ <sup>91</sup>. We do not know why Frank Wagner did not show up in the 1900 census. In his sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970, Frank was said to be living in Canton, and his name was given as "Frank Deittle" <sup>346</sup>.

In the 1920 census results from Greenville Twp. enumerated on Jan. 6<sup>54</sup>, Herman's last name is spelled "Dietle" and four of his children are listed as still living at home and farming; Mary A., Walter, Ida, and Maggie. Herman's mother Mary was also listed as residing with Herman<sup>54</sup>; his father Nicholas had died in 1918<sup>19</sup>. The 1920 census indicates that Minnie and her mother were born in PA and her father was born in MD, and also indicates that Herman and his mother were born in PA and his father was born in Germany. In his mother's obituary in June, 1939, Herman was said to still be living in the Meyersdale area<sup>76</sup>. In a 1947 letter, a year after Herman's death, his daughter Maggie stated that he had lived in Somerset Co. all his life<sup>189</sup>.

The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> lists a Greenville Twp. real estate transaction between Grantor Nicholas Hrs & Gdn and Grantees Herman W. & Minnie Deitle on July 10, 1928. We haven't seen this transaction, but presume that it was the sale of the farm from Nicholas's Heirs to Herman and Minnie.

In a 1947 letter, Herman's daughter Maggie stated in reference to Herman's farm that "The farm was handed down for Four Generations." and "Adam and William Dietle lived in the same section we did...." The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> Lists a 1944 Greenville Twp. real estate transaction between Grantors Herman and Minnie Deitle and Grantee Earl F. Baer, their grandson. We haven't seen this transaction, but presume that it was the sale of the farm. The original Herman Deitle farm in Greenville Twp. is now (1993) a church camp<sup>70</sup>.

The Herman Deitle home as it appeared in 1994 as part of a Brethren church camp.

Vivian Timblin and Roy E. Deitle have gone back to Herman's farm to see it after the church took it over<sup>180</sup>. Vivian says they redid the house on the inside, and turned the barn into a recreation & meeting hall. Roy reports that the top of the barn was torn off to convert the barn into a church, and that bunks have been placed in the house as a place for people to stay when attending the camp<sup>192</sup>. When Dad and I (Lannie) visited the farm in 1994 it was a Brethren church camp named Peniel, and what appeared to be the converted barn was titled the N.V. Leatherman Memorial Chapel, and a service was in progress. Compared to the many decidedly mountainous farms in Somerset Co., Camp Peniel was fairly level. Vivian and Roy both report that the church put in a lake<sup>180,192</sup>, which I also saw when visiting in 1994. Roy recalls that there was an ice-cold spring under the Herman Deitle house<sup>192</sup>. When he went to visit after the farm had become a church camp, one of the things he did was take a drink out of this spring which he remembered from his boyhood<sup>192</sup>. When I visited the farm in 1994, I noticed that the spring actually ran right into the basement of the house.

In a May 6 1942 War Ration Coupon Book belonging to Minnie at age 69, her description was given as 5 ft. 4 in. tall, 190 lbs, brown eyes and grey hair<sup>88</sup>.

Herman and Minnie are buried at the Greenville<sup>72,315</sup> Union Cemetery, and share the same headstone<sup>315</sup>. The tombstone indicates that Herman was born on May 26, 1870, and died on Dec. 25, 1946, and gives the last name as "Deitle"<sup>315</sup>. It also indicates that Minnie was born on Aug. 7, 1872<sup>72</sup>. She died in Elk Lick Twp. <sup>72,90,91</sup> on Nov. 30, 1949<sup>72,90,91,315</sup> at the age of 77 years<sup>90</sup>.

Most of Herman and Minnie's sons moved to the vicinity of Akron, Ohio circa 1925 because there were too many children for the home farm to support, and they had heard that work was available in the rubber industries in Akron <sup>67</sup>. Some of his daughters also moved to the Akron area. In a 1947 letter, Herman's daughter Maggie stated "I have 3 Brothers settled in Akron Ohio and one in Pa." Vivian Timblin reports that George, Charles, Walt, Ida and Maggie moved to Ohio, but James did not<sup>180</sup>.

Herman and Minnie's son George A. Deitle was born on Nov. 5, 1892<sup>113a,433</sup> in Greenville Township<sup>91</sup>. He went on to four years of college, according to Richard Dietle <sup>67</sup>. He was a School Teacher in Somerset Co. PA before moving to Akron to work for Goodyear<sup>126</sup>.

George married Clara B. Witt on Sept. 22, 19__ at the West Hill Church in Akron, Ohio <sup>87</sup>. Most of what we know of their lives has been found in a newspaper article covering their 50th wedding anniversary celebration <sup>87</sup>. In this article the surname was spelled "Deitle" <sup>87</sup>. This event was held at the First Christian Church in Stow, and was attended by over 300 friends and relatives <sup>87</sup>. At the time of the celebration, they were living on Center St. in Garrettsville, and were members of the Methodist Church<sup>87</sup>. The newspaper quoted George and Clara's advice to young couples as follows "Learn to give and take and attend church regularly". Apparently they practiced what they preached, because Clara was president of the adult Sunday School class which George was teaching at the time<sup>87</sup>. In the same article, it was noted that George belonged to the Garrettsville Masonic Lodge and Clara belonged to the Crescent chapter, Order of the Eastern Star<sup>87</sup>. Both of them were members of the Garrettsville Grange at the time of the article, and their hobby was listed as gardening<sup>87</sup>.

George and Clara lived in Akron up until 11 years before their 50th wedding anniversary<sup>87</sup>. George initially worked at Goodyear, but then went into the meat and grocery business<sup>126</sup>. During the war meat became unobtainable, and he went back to work at Goodyear<sup>126</sup>. When they moved to Garrettsville, George joined one of his sons in the auto business<sup>87</sup>. In his sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970, he was said to be living in Garrettsville<sup>346</sup>. In his Social Security records, George's last place of residence is given as Akron, Ohio 44310<sup>433</sup>. Clara's Social Security records show that she was born Jan. 6, 1885, died in April 1983, and her last place of residence was Akron, Ohio 44310<sup>433</sup>. Both of their Social Security cards were issued in Ohio, hers in 1973<sup>433</sup>.

Clara's maiden name was Witt<sup>127</sup>. Prior to her marriage to George A. Dietle, Clara had been married to _____ Friend, and had three children with him before being widowed<sup>127</sup>. These three children were<sup>127</sup>:

Zadell Friend,
Nellie Friend, and Dewitt Friend.

George Albert "Al" Deitle, Jr., born 1915,
Anna Belle Deitle, and

Descendants of Johann Adam Dietel of 19th Century Somerset County, Pennsylvania

Clara's daughter Zadell Friend was known as "Dolly" <sup>126</sup>. She married Walter E. Howiler <sup>126</sup>, and was living in Akron at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup>.

Clara's daughter Nellie Friend was born in Maryland and married O.W. <sup>87</sup> Weyrick <sup>87,126</sup>. She was living in Stow at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup>.

Clara's son Dewitt Friend married Margaret _____ who is known as "Peggy" <sup>126</sup>. They have two children, DeWitt, Jr. who goes by "Bud", and Marian <sup>126</sup>. DeWitt was living in Columbus at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup>.

George Albert Deitle, Jr., son of George A. Deitle, Sr. and Clara (Witt) Deitle, has gone by the names "Albert" or "Al" to avoid confusion with his father <sup>126</sup>. Albert married Mabel _____, who had a daughter by a previous marriage <sup>126</sup>. Albert was living in Garrettsville at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup>. He was in the auto business there, and the name of his business was Al Deitle Buick Pontiac, Inc. <sup>126</sup>. When I interviewed Albert in 1994, he was living in Florida.

Anna Belle Deitle, daughter of George A. Deitle, Sr. and Clara (Witt) Deitle, was first married to Henry Clay Smith<sup>127</sup>. Her second husband was Robert Ortopan, a chiropractor, who died quite young <sup>127</sup>. Robert and Anna Belle had the following children<sup>180</sup>:

David,
a daughter,
a son.

Anna Belle's third husband is Carmen Bell<sup>127,180</sup>. Anna Bell and Carmen had a son named George who was named after Anna Belle's father<sup>180</sup>. Anna Belle was living in Cuyahoga Falls at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup> and is said to be living in California in 1994<sup>180</sup>.

Ardeth Deitle, daughter of George A. Deitle, Sr. and Clara (Witt) Deitle, was married to Alexander Gurnik, son of Theophil and Mary Gurnik, who were immigrants from Russia <sup>127</sup>. Alexander was a Chiropractor, and Ardeth ran his office <sup>127</sup>. He died at age 55 <sup>126</sup>. Ardeth was living in Barberton at the time of George and Clara's 50th wedding anniversary <sup>87</sup>. Alexander and Ardeth have one son, Steven Gurnik, who turned 37 on New Years day of 1994 <sup>127</sup>. Steve had been married and divorced, and is now (1994) single <sup>127</sup>. Her answering machine gives her nickname as "Ardie" <sup>127</sup>.

Charley, Chucky and Walter Deitle

The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> lists a transaction between Grantor Charles E. Deitle and Grantees Charles H. and Nancy M. Brant in Brothersvalley Twp. on Nov. 7, 1938. We haven't seen this transaction, and don't know what the significance of it is.

Charles M. Deitle, the only son of Charles E. Deitle and Myrtle (Brandt) Deitle, was born on March 10, 1921 in Garrett, PA<sup>128</sup>. Several different family members have referred to him as "Chuck"<sup>112</sup>. He was first married to Martha Ellen James, daughter of Allison and Ethel James<sup>112</sup>. Martha was born in Missouri<sup>112</sup>. Charles was an attorney by trade (Juris Doctor Ohio State

Mariana Garcia became the second wife of Charles M. Deitle <sup>112,128</sup>. She was born on July 20, 1937 <sup>128</sup>. They had two daughters; Carmen Deitle, born July 24, 1965, and Cynthia Deitle, born Jan. 5, 1967 <sup>128</sup>. In late 1993 we were told that Charles and Mariana were living in Akron, Ohio <sup>112</sup>.

Some accounts give the middle name of Charles M. Deitle as Morris, and others give it as Maurice. When I asked his wife Mariana (Garcia) Deitle about this, she told me an interesting story about it <sup>129</sup>. She said that during 1972/74 they wanted to do some traveling and needed Charles' birth certificate. After a prolonged delay, they finally received two different birth certificates containing identical information, except one was for Charles Morris Deitle, and one was for Charles Maurice Deitle. By this time his parents were gone and it was too late to get an explanation from them.

Robin Jeanne Deitle, daughter of Charles M. Deitle and Martha (James) Deitle, married Richard Felling <sup>128</sup>. Richard and Robin have two daughters:

Carmen Deitle, daughter of Charles M. Deitle and Mariana (Garcia) Deitle, married Timothy Lee Ramsey <sup>128</sup>. They have one daughter, Taylor Leigh Ramsey <sup>128</sup>.

Cynthia Deitle, daughter of Charles M. Deitle and Mariana (Garcia) Deitle, is (1994) a lawyer and is pursuing her Master's Degree in Washington DC <sup>128</sup>.

Mrytle Brant, Jim Deitle, Lulu Brant

Herman and Minnie's son James Elmer Deitle married Lulu Brant <sup>49,61,113a</sup>, the daughter of John Brant and Annie (Wahl) Brant <sup>66</sup>. Lulu lived on a big dairy farm near Garrett, and James had to take a horse and buggy over the mountain to date her<sup>192</sup>. Social Security records indicate that Lulu was born on April 15, 1896<sup>433</sup>. James was listed in the 1920 census as a 22 year old coal miner living in the Meyersdale Borough, along with his wife Lulu A., age 23 <sup>49</sup>. James' surname was spelled "Dietle" in the 1920 census <sup>49</sup>. One of James' sons has confirmed that James was a miner by occupation, and worked at Shaw Mines<sup>66</sup>, which is near Meyersdale out beyond the Fair grounds<sup>135*</sup>. Another son reported that James worked in the coal mines for 27 years<sup>225</sup>. We know James and Lulu were married already by Nov. 30, 1918, because on that date she was a witness on her mother-in-law's Declaration for Widow's Pension following the death of Nicholas Dieddle<sup>19</sup>. On that document, she spelled the surname as "Dieddle"<sup>19</sup>. One of their sons reports that James and Lulu were married in 1918, but did not give the month and day<sup>225</sup>. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in June, 1968<sup>91</sup>. In his sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970, James was said to be living in Dunlo, PA<sup>346</sup>. James E. Deitle was known as "Jim" to the family<sup>67</sup>. Jim's son Roy reports that Jim sometimes spoke in German when visiting with other family members<sup>192</sup>.

Jim Deitle and Lulu (Brant) Deitle

When asked what stood out in the memory of his parents, James and Lulu's son Ken Deitle wrote "Dad was a hard worker and a good provider. Mom never held public work but cared for her family in a most loving generous way. She did a lot of quilts, needle work, etc. which she graciously shared with family and friends. (She) was a great cook. (She) made good homemade bread (&) cookies. She had many friends and loved to play bingo."<sup>225</sup>

between Grantor Lulu Brant Deitle and Grantees Charles H. and Nancy B. Brant on Nov. 7, 1938. The significance of these transactions is not known. Charles Brant was Lulu (Brant) Deitle's brother, and Nancy was Charles' wife<sup>225</sup>.

Social Security Records show that James was living in Dunlo, PA 15930 at the time of his death in March 1977, and upon his death a lump sum Social Security payment was made to a party in zip code 15921<sup>433</sup>. The Social Security records show that Lulu died in November 1975, and that her last place of residence was Dunlo, PA 15930<sup>433</sup>. The Social Security cards for both James and Lulu were issued in PA; hers was issued in the 1955-1957 time period<sup>433</sup>.

Glenn Deitle, son of James Deitle, was born on Sept. 5, 1923 in Meyersdale, Somerset Co. PA<sup>66</sup>. Glenn married Ann Hofecker<sup>66</sup>, and was residing in or near Johnstown PA in 1994; Robert's obituary gave their address as Giestown<sup>436</sup>. Ann Hofecker was born on February 6, 1926<sup>66</sup>. She is the daughter of Merle Hofecker, and was originally from Cambria County. Glenn and Ann had no children<sup>66</sup>. Glenn is (1994) retired from Bethlehem Steel.

Our father Roy Emerson Dietle learned of the existence of Roy Emerson Deitle in an interesting way. As I recall the story, Roy Bruce Deitle moved to the Sandy Lake, PA area and made a credit application to Agway Petroleum Corp. in Mercer, PA where our father Roy E. Dietle worked, and listed his father Roy E. Deitle as a reference. Since Dietle is a rare name in Pennsylvania, the application was brought to dad's attention. Dad called Roy Deitle, and had a pleasant conversation with him. He found out that they shared some common interests, such as deer hunting. Roy Deitle is (1994) retired, as is my father Roy Dietle.

When I called Roy for an interview, the first thing he asked after finding out that I was calling from Texas was "How's the hunting and fishing down there?"<sup>192</sup> Roy is keen on outdoor sports. He once helped to construct a shooting range, and he has also participated on pistol and rifle competitive shooting teams<sup>192</sup>. His hunting career began when he was 12 and got his first hunting license<sup>192</sup>. His first hunt was on his Grandfather Herman Deitle's farm<sup>192</sup>. This hunt was an exceptional one, especially for a beginner, and Roy remembers it fondly<sup>192</sup>. He bagged his limit of 6 squirrels, and also collected two rabbits and a grouse<sup>192</sup>. His mother, who was a great cook, cooked the game up for supper, and it was a real treat for the family<sup>192</sup>. Someone who saw his take for the day commented that he was going to make a real hunter<sup>192</sup>. Roy was living in or near South Fork in 1995<sup>436</sup>.

Roy Bruce Deitle, son of Roy Emerson Deitle and Mary Lou (Simmons) Deitle, married EllaBeth Deniker, the daughter of Edward and Kathern Deniker<sup>192</sup>. Her parents were from the Grove City, PA area<sup>192</sup>. In April of 1994, they were living in a trailer park in Grove City, but they were getting ready to move to Oregon<sup>192</sup>. In 1996 they were living in Great Falls, MT <sup>496</sup>. Roy Bruce Deitle is (1994) retired from the Air Force after 20 years of service, during which he traveled all over the world<sup>192</sup>. He goes by his middle name "Bruce"<sup>496</sup>. Our dad met a salesman at a lumber yard in the Grove City area in 1995 who noticed dad's name on his credit card; it turns out the salesman had been a good friend of Roy Bruce's before he moved away, and had worked with him at a hardware store at one time, and spoke very highly of him. Roy and EllaBeth have the following children<sup>192</sup>:

Kevin Bruce Deitle, (eldest son) and

Scott Edward Deitle, who is (1994) in the Air Force.

We believe Scott is the Engineering Assistant of the 1845th Engineering Installation Group at Tinker AFB<sup>486</sup> who won a first place 1995 Intergraph Golden Mouse Award in the category of Engineering and Applied Sciences for the computer rendering of an ATCALS radar unit<sup>485</sup>.

Debra Jean Deitle, daughter of Roy Emerson Deitle and Mary Lou (Simmons) Deitle, is (1994) married to Allen Stoykovich<sup>192</sup>. She has a daughter Jennifer Louise Matalic from a previous marriage<sup>192</sup>. Her and Allan have a son named Allen Tobias "Toby" Stoykovich<sup>192</sup>.

David Shawn Deitle, son of Roy Emerson Deitle and Mary Lou (Simmons) Deitle, married Linda McFarland. He was in the Air Force for 8 years, and is now (1994) working for Evansburg Office Supply. David and Linda have the following children:

Shawna Lynn Deitle, reported as being age 11 in April of 1994<sup>192</sup>,

John Henry Deitle, son of Roy Emerson Deitle and Mary Lou (Simmons) Deitle, married Rhonda Blackner. In April of 1994 he was in the process of moving back to PA from Alexandria, VA. John and Rhonda have two daughters, as follows:

Kelsey Khristine Deitle, and

Kenneth<sup>66</sup> Paul<sup>493</sup> "Ken"<sup>225</sup> Deitle<sup>225</sup>, son of James Deitle, was born on December 25, 1931<sup>66,225</sup> in Dunlo, Cambria Co. PA<sup>225</sup>. Ken married Margaret Dilworth<sup>66,225</sup>, the daughter of Charlie D. and Lila Y. Dilworth<sup>225</sup>. Margaret was born in Carnesville, GA on Nov. 5, 1931<sup>225</sup>. Ken left PA in 1951, and became a Methodist Minister in 1955<sup>225</sup>. His first charge was in Bishop, GA in 1955, and his current (1994) charge is the Bold Spring Trinity United Methodist Church<sup>225</sup>. In 1989 he was reportedly assigned to Jefferson First<sup>493</sup>. His attended Seminary at the Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, GA<sup>225</sup>. He plans to retire in June of 1996<sup>225</sup>. In 1995 in his brother's obituary, his address was given as Carnesville GA.<sup>436</sup>

I spoke to Kenneth in May 1994 and January 1996, and on both occasions he was planning to lead a group to the Holy Land shortly thereafter<sup>225</sup>. The 1994 trip was his 11th trip there<sup>225</sup>. He has traveled all over the world, including Russia and China<sup>225</sup>. He likes to hunt—when I talked to him in January he was just finishing a meal of wild goose<sup>225</sup>. It was bagged in their yard by his son Jeremy while Kenneth was away hunting geese! Kenneth's children are as follows:

Gay Lynn Deitle<sup>225</sup>, daughter of Kenneth Deitle, was born on July 24, 1962<sup>225</sup>. She is married to Ronald Downy or Dowdy, and has a daughter Lila Marie who was born Oct. 20 or 21, 1990<sup>225</sup>.

Richard Deitle, son of James Elmer Deitle Jr. and Carolyn (Krause) Deitle, has custody of his daughter, Kristy Lynn Whitman, who was born Jan. 17, 1986<sup>178</sup>. He is (1996) not married<sup>470</sup>. He has his own construction business, which is named TK Remodeling<sup>178</sup>.

Jason Edward, born Sept. 21, 1983, and Stacy Nichole, born Aug. 21, 1986.

Helen Pearl<sup>91,113a</sup>, daughter of James Deitle, was born on Feb. 27, 1938<sup>66</sup> and died on Feb. 19, 1939<sup>66</sup>.

Herman Deittle's daughter who was listed as "Maryan" in the 1900 census was actually named "Mary Ann"<sup>65</sup>, and was born on Nov. 17, 1898<sup>91</sup> in Greenville Twp.<sup>91</sup>. Mary Ann married Godfrey Merrbach<sup>65,91,113a</sup> on May 15, 1920<sup>91,113b</sup>. Godfrey was born on Nov. 16, 1894<sup>113a</sup> or Sept. 16<sup>91</sup>, 1897<sup>91,315</sup> or 1899<sup>91</sup> in Barton, MD<sup>91</sup> and died on Nov. 13<sup>91</sup>, 1973<sup>91,315</sup> in the Meyersdale Community Hospital<sup>91</sup>. Godfrey was the son of Henry Merrbach (b. 1861<sup>91</sup>, d. April 10, 1940<sup>91</sup>) and Anna Bowers<sup>91</sup> (b. Dec. 20, 1870<sup>91</sup>, d. Aug. 15, 1953<sup>91</sup>). He was one of 17 children. In 1949 Mary Ann Merrbach was living at RD#1 Salisbury PA<sup>90</sup>, and in her sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970 she was also said to be living in Salisbury<sup>346</sup>. Mary Ann died Sept. 11, 1986<sup>91</sup>. Godfrey and Mary Ann both enjoyed gardening and making quilts<sup>211</sup>. They are buried side by side in the Greenville Union Cemetery, and share the same headstone<sup>315</sup>.

Godfrey and Mary Ann Merrbach

Godfrey was a coal truck driver by occupation<sup>190,211</sup>. He drove truck for John Tressler of Boynton, PA, and picked up coal and took it to the brick yards to be burned in the kilns<sup>211</sup>. Sometimes his daughter Margaret rode with him in his truck on runs to Fredricksburg<sup>211</sup>. This job required many long hours<sup>211</sup>. Margaret recalls that when she was a child, the family was so poor that she sometimes had to take lard and salt sandwiches to school for her lunch<sup>211</sup>.

St. Michaels Catholic Church in West Salisbury in 1994.

Helen Margaret Knecht, daughter of Edward Lawrence Knecht and Margaret Stella (Merrbach) Knecht, was married to Darrell L. Kyle on Jan. 10, 1969<sup>91,201</sup> in Salisbury<sup>201</sup>. Darrell was born on Feb. 6, 1947 in Barton, MD<sup>201</sup>. Helen is (1994) a housewife, and does not work outside of the home<sup>190</sup>. Helen, who was living in West Salisbury circa 1989<sup>165</sup> and 1994<sup>402</sup> has the following children, all born in Meyersdale<sup>91</sup>:

Hollie Lynn, b. 1980, and a son, b. Feb. 1986.

Valerie Streng, daughter of Arthur Streng III and Evelyn Marlene (Merrbach) Streng, married Del Wilmont circa 1980, and had a son who was born in 1982<sup>147</sup>.

Walter Deitle

Herman and Minnie's son Walter Allen Deitle was born on January 10, 1900<sup>67,433</sup> and married Thelma Irene Cox<sup>67,113b</sup>, who was born on February 16, 1909<sup>67</sup>. Thelma, who was from the Akron area, was the daughter of Nelson and Mary Ola Cox<sup>67</sup>. Walter was drafted into the Army during World War I, but fortunately didn't get to the front lines before the war was over<sup>67</sup>. Walter was a worker for Goodyear Rubber in Akron, Ohio, and put in 37 years with the company<sup>67</sup>. In his sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970, he was said to be living in Akron<sup>346</sup>. Walter's Social Security records show that he died in Feb. 1986, and his last place of residence was Uniontown, Ohio 44685<sup>433</sup>. His Social Security card was issued in Ohio<sup>433</sup>. Jackie (Timblin) Kingt recalls that he liked to joke with her<sup>458</sup>. Walter and Thelma had one child<sup>67</sup>, Richard Kenneth Deitle<sup>68,113a</sup>.

Richard Deitle and his wife Faye

Richard Deitle, son of Walter and Thelma Irene (Cox) Deitle, was born in Akron, Ohio on July 6, 1933<sup>67</sup> while his parents were staying at the home of Jack Bealer and his wife Minerva Ellen (Shoemaker) Bealer<sup>180</sup>. Minerva's daughter Vivian remembers taking care of Richard there when he was a baby<sup>180</sup>. Richard was drafted in the U.S. Army in 1952 and served through 1954 as a cook. Richard married Merilyn Faye Rhehardt<sup>68</sup> in 1956<sup>67</sup>. Merilyn is the daughter of John Edward Rhehardt and Oca Ruth (Edwards) Rhehardt<sup>68</sup>, and was born on November 18, 1936<sup>67,68</sup>. Richard Deitle was employed by Goodrich of Akron, Ohio<sup>68</sup>. He was a Custodian there, and is now (1993) retired<sup>69</sup>. Richard was living in or near Uniontown, Ohio in 1993. Richard and Merilyn Deitle's children are as follows:

Wayne Allen Deitle<sup>67</sup>,
Douglas Ray Deitle<sup>67</sup>,
Michael Kenneth Deitle<sup>67</sup>, and Wesley Robert Deitle<sup>67</sup>.

Wayne Deitle, son of Richard Deitle

Wayne Allen Deitle, son of Richard Deitle and Merilyn Faye (Rhehardt) Deitle, was born at the Akron General Hospital, Akron, Summit Co. Ohio on April 25, 1958<sup>68</sup>. Wayne married Elizabeth Margaret Pal, who was born on November 25, 1963<sup>68</sup>. Elizabeth is known as "Lisa"<sup>67,68</sup>. Wayne and Lisa were living in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio in 1993, and Wayne's line of work is (1993) installing burglar alarms<sup>67</sup>. Wayne has two daughters, as follows<sup>68</sup>:

Ashley Marie Deitle, born June 6, 1982, and Brandy Nicole Deitle, born July 24, 1986.

Douglas R. Deitle, son of Richard Deitle, was born March 3, 1960<sup>67,68,69</sup>. He was reported as not being married in 1993<sup>67,68</sup>. Douglas has a home about a block away from his parents in Uniontown, Ohio. He is (1993) a Certified Public Accountant.

Michael K. Deitle, son of Richard Deitle and Merilyn Faye (Rhehardt) Deitle, was born on July 19, 1963<sup>69</sup>. He was reported as not being married in 1993<sup>67,68,69</sup>. He was living in or near Akron, Ohio in 1993, and was a Janitor in a local school<sup>67</sup>.

Wesley Deitle, son of Richard Deitle and Merilyn Faye (Rhehardt) Deitle, was born on July 1, 1972. He was not married in Nov. 1993, and was still living at home with his folks at that time.

Herman and Minnie's daughter Ida E. Dietle lived in Ravenna, Ohio<sup>67,127</sup>. The details of her marriage(s) are not accurately known to us, and markedly different accounts have been received from different people. The following information is therefore recorded as a starting point for others who may wish to do additional research.

Julia (Knecht) Prokop's notes indicate that Ida was first married to Robert Cole, and was remarried to Sam Eisler then Charles Clark<sup>91</sup>. Julia's mother Margaret (Merrbach) Knecht told Julia in a 1994 interview that Ida had a son Earl F. Baer when she was single, then married Charley Clark and with him had Frank, Dorothy and Edna, then married Robert Cole and had a son with him<sup>157</sup>. In the same interview, Margaret (Merrbach) Knecht reported that she didn't think that Ida married Sam Eisler<sup>157</sup>. In a later interview, Margaret (Merrbach) Knecht reported to Julia that she had talked to Frank Clark and learned that Ida never actually married Bob Cole<sup>211</sup>. Vivian Timblin reports that Ida was not formally married to Mr. Cole, but lived with him long enough to become his common-law wife<sup>180</sup>. The Rembold Family Record only lists a marriage to Charles Clark<sup>113a</sup>. In her sister Margaret's obituary circa 1970, she was listed as "Mrs. Ida Cole, Ravenna"<sup>346</sup>. Further clarification of Ida's life history is needed.

Bob Cole and Ida (Dietle) Clark

Frank Clark

The sum total of Ida's children which we have seen reported are as follows:

Earl 91,113a,157,180 “Bud” 67,157 Baer 157,180 or Clark 113a, Dorthey Clark 91,113a,157,180,
Frank 91,113a,157,180 Clark 113a,157,180, and
_____ Clark, a son 157

Most evidence so far seems to indicate that Ida’s son Earl went by the last name of Baer rather than Clark. According to Richard Deitle, Ida had a son named “Bud” Baer who was still living in 1993<sup>67</sup>. Two sources report that Ida had a son Earl F. Baer when she was single<sup>157,180</sup>; one of these sources indicated that Earl went by the nickname “Bud”<sup>157</sup>. A photocopy provided by Julia (Knecht) Prokop of a May 6, 1942 War Ration Coupon Book belonging to Minnie S. Deitle, age 69, of Greenville Twp. Somerset Co. was signed by Earl F. Baer, who was identified in the document as her grandson<sup>88</sup>. The Somerset Co. deed index<sup>95</sup> lists a transaction between Grantor Herman W. & Minnie Deitle and Grantee Earl F. Baer on Sept. 21, 1944 in Greenville Twp. We have been told by one source that Earl Baer was blind<sup>180</sup>. He is (1994) said to be living in Revenna, OH in the house which his mother Ida once had<sup>180</sup>.

Edna Cole or Clark, daughter of Ida E. Dietle, married Walter 91 or Willard 157 Broadwater 91,157, and with him had a daughter named Pat 157.

Paul and Margaret Beutel

Maggie’s second marriage was to Paul<sup>91,189,343 C.343</sup> Beutel 91,189,343*, whose first wife Frances Miller had died earlier<sup>343</sup>. Their last name was pronounced “Bye-Tell”<sup>127</sup>. Paul was born at Brunswick, Ohio on June 6, 1905, the son of Charles William and Belle Ghedsey Beutel<sup>343</sup>. Paul died from a heart attack at age 53 while taking his customary after breakfast nap one Sunday at his home at 843 E. High Ave., leaving Maggie to survive him<sup>343</sup>. He had been on a hunting trip with Bob Ress of Schoenbrunn the day before. He was buried in the Spring Grove Cemetery<sup>343</sup>.

* Beutel is the spelling that Margaret herself used in a letter in 1947<sup>187</sup>. Ref. 67 gives the spelling Bidle, and Ref. 113a gives the spelling Bentela.

Chemical Co.<sup>343</sup>. He had moved from Wadsworth when he was appointed Manager of the Midvale operation, which was 10 years before his death.

Paul's obituary noted that he belonged to the Methodist Church at Medina, The Elks Lodge, the Union Country Club, the Tadmore Scottish Rite Shrine at Akron, the Barberton National Masonic Lodge, the Consistory at Canton, the New Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the Coal Mining Institute of America, and was on the Board of Regents of the Professional Engineers and Surveyors of Ohio<sup>343</sup>. He had attended the Ohio State University, and was a member of the Phi Epsilon Kappa fraternity<sup>343</sup>.

In 1947 Maggie was living in Wadsworth, OH, and reported in a letter that she had "all the old photographs" of the Deitle family<sup>189</sup>. She died after a long illness in her home in New Philadelphia at the age of 66<sup>346</sup>, which would likely be sometime in 1970. Before living in New Philadelphia she lived in Akron from 1927 to 1939<sup>346</sup>. She was buried at the Spring Grove Cemetery, Medina<sup>346</sup>.

Frederick Deitle

We know relatively little about the life of Nicholas and Mary Deitle's son Frederick Deitle. He married Dinia<sup>91,113a</sup> Christina<sup>91</sup> or Christinia<sup>113a</sup> Slaybaugh<sup>91,113a</sup>. According to the Rembold Family Record<sup>113a</sup>, Dinia was born in 1856 and died in 1931.

Frederick Deitle

In 1903 Frederick bought farming equipment from his mother Mary Deitle, as recorded in the following transaction<sup>159</sup>:

This is to certify that I have this day sold to Fred Deitle Our Bay horse, our Mower, and our Two horse wagon, for the sum of one hundred and Eighty ($180.00) Dollars, And I do hereby relinquish all claim to the foregoing property.

In his father's obituary in 1918, and in his mother's obituary in June, 1939, Frederick was said to be residing at Horseshoe Run, West Virginia<sup>76,263,345</sup>. Frederick died in 1941<sup>91</sup>. In the Rembold Family Record, he is listed as "Fred" Deitle<sup>113a</sup>. Ardeth (Deitle) Gurnik recalls knowing Frederick Deitle as "Uncle Freddy" and says he is buried somewhere in PA; she went to his funeral<sup>127</sup>. Vivian Timblin spoke of Frederick as "Fred" and "Freddy". She recalls that he and his wife had a farm in Horseshoe Run<sup>180</sup>. Vivian reported that Fred and his wife had no children<sup>180</sup>. In his father's obituary his name is given as "Fred"<sup>263</sup>.

Mary Ann “Annie” Dietle

Mary Ann “Annie” Dietle, daughter of Nicholas Dieddle and Mary (Rembold) Dieddle, was born on August 5, 1877* and died on Nov. 7, 1920 <sup>113a</sup>.

The 1900 census of Elk Lick Township, Somerset County <sup>31</sup> (Schedule No. 1-Population) lists one Annie M. Dietle, age 22, who was born in August 1877, and who was residing in Elk Lick Twp. at the time of the 1900 census and working for the widower Daniel M. Fike as a housekeeper. The 1900 census indicates that she was single, but had a child who was alive at the time of the census. A 2 month old “boarder” named Minerva Shoemaker was also shown to be living in the same household; this is the only boarder listed for this household, and we now know this was Annie’s child.

The 1910 census lists a grand-daughter Minerva Shoemaker, age 10, living at the home of Annie’s father Nicholas Dietle in Greenville Twp <sup>51</sup>. It is interesting to note that a Daniel Shoemaker filled out two Civil War pension affidavits for Nicholas 9 years apart, and may have been a neighbor or friend of the Nicholas Dieddle family. Perhaps one of Daniel’s sons (if he indeed had any) was Minerva’s father. We just don’t know at this point, and it will probably never be known, as Minerva’s only daughter did not know who Minerva’s father was when asked in 1994 <sup>180</sup>.

Mary Ann “Annie” Dietle,

§ The Rembold Family Record identifies this child as Minerva Shoemaker Martz. Minerva’s daughter Vivian states that Minerva did not take the Martz name, and used Shoemaker until the time of her marriage<sup>180</sup>.

** Ref. 174 indicates that Sylvester was born in 1910, but we believe this to be wrong based upon the information found in Ref. 113a and 433.

The 1910 census<sup>117</sup> shows Charles and Mary Ann living as husband and wife in a rented house in South Summit Twp., Somerset County along with sons Elven C. Martz and Sylvester E. Martz. This census (incorrectly, we believe) gives an age of 29 for Charles and Mary Ann, and states that Mary Ann is the mother of two children, both still living<sup>117</sup>. Charles' occupation is given as coal miner, and Charles and Mary Ann had been married 3 years at the time of the census<sup>117</sup>. In her father's obituary in 1918, Annie's residence was given as Meyersdale<sup>263</sup>.

Charles Henry Martz

The 1920 census<sup>118</sup> shows Charles and Mary Ann living as husband and wife in Summit Twp., Somerset County along with 3 sons, ages 13, 11 and 5. The name of the 13 year old son is very difficult to read, but may possibly read Melvin C. The name of the 11 year old is given as Lester E., and the name of the 5 year old is given as Russell W.. Vivian Timblin has confirmed that the sons were named Elvin, not Melvin, and Sylvester, not Lester<sup>180</sup>.

Elvin & Sylvester Martz

Minerva Ellen Shoemaker, daughter of Mary Ann (Deitle) Martz, was first married to John William McKenzie<sup>180</sup>. John was called into the armed forces during WW-I, but the armistice was signed before he was shipped overseas<sup>180</sup>. John died in the influenza epidemic of 1918, and was buried in the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>180,264*</sup>. John and Minerva had a daughter Vivian who was born April 5, 1917 in MD; this was the only child Minerva Ellen ever had<sup>180</sup>. Minerva Ellen and John William were living an apartment on Maple Street in Frostburg, MD when Vivian was born<sup>180</sup>. John William died at the home of Minerva Ellen's Grandfather Nicholas Dietle, and his obituary was carried on the same

John McKenzie & Ellen Shoemaker

Some records give the name of Minerva Ellen as Minerva, while others give it as "Ellen". Minerva's daughter Vivian tells us that Minerva was her mother's first name and Ellen was her middle name, but she preferred Ellen over Minerva, and used it as her name<sup>180</sup>. Ardeth (Deitle) Gurnik recalls her as "Aunt Ellen" <sup>127</sup>. Ellen is buried in Akron<sup>180</sup>.

Ellen's second husband was Jack Bealer<sup>180</sup>. They lived in Akron, OH <sup>127</sup>. This is who Mary (Rembold) Deitle, widow of Nicholas Deitle, lived with in Akron <sup>127</sup>. It appears the Bealers always had the welcome mat out for their extended Deitle family in OH, as many individuals and families stayed in their home over the years<sup>180</sup>. From this I infer that it must have been a very close-knit and caring extended family<sup>180</sup>.

Vivian, daughter of Minerva Ellen Shoemaker and John William McKenzie, was married to Russell Timblin of Revenna, Ohio<sup>180</sup>. Vivian reports (1994) that they have been or were married for 53 years<sup>180</sup>. (My notes unfortunately do not indicate whether or not Russell was alive at the time of the interview with Vivian in 1994.) Russell was the son of James F. and Iva Timblin<sup>180</sup>.

Vivian was left in PA with Herman and Minnie Deitle, and their daughters Mary Ann and Ida until she was 6 years old<sup>180</sup>. At that time her mother sent for her to come to Akron to live and start school, and also sent for Nicholas's widow Mary (Rembold) Deitle, who spent the rest of her life living with the Bealer family<sup>180</sup>. Each summer (until well into her high-school years) Vivian and her Great-Grandmother Mary went back to Herman and Minnie's farm to spend the summer, where they would stay until school started<sup>180</sup>. Vivian referred to Herman and Minnie as "Uncle Herman" and "Aunt Minnie"<sup>180</sup>.

Vivian recalled that the Herman Deitle house was set up as a double house for two families<sup>180</sup>. At one time Herman's daughter Mary Ann and her husband Godfrey Merrbach lived in one half, and Herman and Minnie lived in the other<sup>180*</sup>. When Mary Ann and Godfrey moved to Salisbury, Ida and her husband Frank Clark moved in to the house<sup>180</sup>.

* Godfrey's daughter Margaret (Merrbach) Knecht recalls that Mary (Rembold) Deitle stayed with Godfrey and Mary Merrbach in the summer. She also recalls that Mary (Rembold) Deitle never washed her hair, but instead brushed it with Wild Root Lotion, which kept it shiny, and kept her hair and scalp clean<sup>211</sup>.

Vivian was very close to her Great-Grandmother Mary Deitle, and recalls her in glowing terms, referring to her as “Grandma”<sup>180</sup>. When asked about Mary’s personality, she said simply “Mary was the most wonderful person in the world”<sup>180</sup>. Vivian felt she could talk and confide with her more easily than with her mother, and called her “her benefactor”<sup>180</sup>. After becoming old enough to drive, Vivian took her Great-Grandmother to church every Sunday, and reports that she really knew her Bible<sup>180</sup>. George and Clara Deitle also had taken her to church regularly; the church attended was the East Market Street Reformed Church<sup>180</sup>.

One story Vivian recited from her childhood is from when her and her Great-Grandmother were staying at Herman’s farm for the summer<sup>180</sup>. Frank, Edna and her used to play in the barn when they were children. One day they were climbing up on a beam and jumping down into the hay. This fun ended when Vivian sprained her ankle. Edna told her that Grandma (Mary (Rembold) Deitle) would be mad at her for hurting herself, and Vivian was afraid Edna might be right. She was hoping to avoid Grandma’s attention, and was scooting along on the sidewalk toward the house when Grandma spotted her, and asked her why she didn’t get up and walk. Fortunately, Grandma didn’t seem to catch on that she had hurt herself. Vivian managed to avoid further attention from Grandma, to her relief, and managed to hobble in through the screen door and find a place to sit and take it easy. Later, when Grandma did find out that she had hurt her leg, she teased Vivian that she had to get better before school started, or Grandma wouldn’t take her back to Akron.

When I interviewed Vivian in early 1994, she was living in Ft. Meade FL<sup>127</sup>, but had plans to go back to Ohio in the spring to stay with one of her daughters<sup>180</sup>. In the 1994 telephone interview, Vivian was vigorous, intelligent, kind, and very full of life and warmth. Her current (1994) hobby is dolls<sup>180</sup>. She does (1994) volunteer work at a hospital in FL 2 days a week, and also does volunteer work with the church<sup>180</sup>. Back in OH she was the correspondence secretary for the Coventry chapter of the American Association of Retired People for 9 years<sup>180</sup>. She also worked 3 years with auto and driver’s license registration<sup>180</sup>. Russell and Vivian have 3 children as follows:

Patricia Timblin, daughter of Russell and Vivian Timblin, married Doran Young<sup>180</sup>. They have since divorced, and Patricia has taken back her maiden name<sup>180</sup>, and is (1996) living in Akron<sup>458</sup>. Patricia is (1996) the owner of West Staff Services, which is a Temporary Employment agency<sup>471</sup>. She reported that when her children were younger they were involved in a lot of sports and would go to a Cleveland football game at the drop of a pin<sup>471</sup>. Patricia’s father got her involved in Rainbow and her daughter was involved also<sup>471</sup>. She says her boys belong to the Masonic lodge<sup>471</sup>. Patricia remembered the Deitles getting together on Saturday night to play cards, and she mentioned Thelma, Walt and Minnie<sup>471</sup>. She said they were an active bunch of people<sup>471</sup>. Patricia’s dad drove truck long distance, then later just in Ohio<sup>471</sup>. Her Dad’s people are from Somerset Co. PA also<sup>471</sup>. Patricia has the following children:

John Young, son of Patricia Timblin, is married to Kim<sup>457,471</sup> Knight<sup>471</sup>. John is (1996) working for Karter machine<sup>471</sup>. John has two sons, Steven Michael who was born Dec. 4 around 1985, and Paul William who was born May 28, 1987<sup>457</sup>.

Gregory Young, son of Patricia Timblin, married Elizabeth "Libbie", who was born Sept. 24, 1950<sup>471</sup>. Libbie has three children; Megan born Feb. 7 circa 1977, Andrea born Sept. 26 circa 1973, and Todd born Oct. 23 circa 1975<sup>471</sup>.

Vickie, daughter of Patricia Timblin, is now (1996) living in or near Friendswood, TX<sup>457</sup>. She married Richard Attar<sup>180</sup>, and has a son Taylor Amil Attar who was born Sept. 28, 1993 in Houston<sup>457</sup>. Richard Attar was born Sept. 8, 1957<sup>457</sup>.

Doran, son of Patricia Timblin, married Denise who was born Jan 29 1960/ 61<sup>471</sup>. Denise has two children: Shawn who was born Aug. 16 and will be 12 in 1996, and Ryan who was born Nov. 29 and will be 14 in 1996<sup>471</sup>.

Jeff Stoffer, son of Patricia Timblin, is married to Melissa<sup>471</sup>, and has a son Robert Allen Stoffer who was born Feb. 2, 1995<sup>457</sup>.

Ronald Timblin, son of Russell and Vivian Timblin, married Linda Maag<sup>180</sup> and lives in Hilton Head<sup>457,458</sup>. He presently (1996) has his own carpet business<sup>457</sup>. He also had a carpet business at one time in Kent, Ohio<sup>457</sup>. Ronald has two sons, as follows:

Andrew "Andy" Knight, son of Jackie and Fred Knight, is married to Sandra Cabrera, and has a daughter named Sarah Ashley who was born Dec. 11, 1994<sup>458</sup> .

Kimberly Knight, daughter of Jackie and Fred Knight, graduated from Steven F. Austin University, and is now (1996) a school teacher<sup>458</sup>. While in college, she belonged to two honor societies, and was on the Dean's List every semester<sup>458</sup>.

Elvin Martz, son of Charles Henry Martz and Mary Ann (Dietle) Martz, never married or had children<sup>180</sup>. He was planning to marry, but became ill and died on April 5, 19<sup>180</sup>.

Sylvester Edward Martz, son of Charles Henry Martz and Mary Ann (Dietle) Martz, married Thelma Leona Johnson, who was born Oct. 21, 1917<sup>113a</sup>. They had a daughter named Marylou Martz who was born March 17, 1934<sup>113a</sup>. Vivian Timblin believes they also had a son<sup>180</sup>. Social Security records show that Sylvester died in May 1980, and his last place of residence was Berlin, PA 15530<sup>433</sup>. His Social Security card was issued in PA<sup>433</sup>.

Marylou Martz, daughter of Sylvester Edward Martz and Thelma Leona (Johnson) Martz, married _____ Merdgers<sup>113a</sup>. She is said to be living in Missouri or Minnesota in 1994, and it is believed she moved out there because that is where her husband's farm was<sup>180</sup>. It has been reported that Marylou was in the Navy in WW-II, and that her husband had also been in the service. Marylou and her husband had the following children<sup>113a</sup>:

Andrew Merdgers,
Edward Wayne Merdgers,
Susan Merdgers,
Alysann Norma Merdgers,
Deborah Fayo Merdgers,
Sharon Elaino Merdgers, and

Paul Stephen Merdgers.

Russell Martz, son of Charles Henry Martz and Mary Ann (Dietle) Martz, married Mary ____<sup>180</sup>. Vivian Timblin recalls Russell as “Russ”<sup>180</sup>. Russ and Mary operated a gift and card shop in the town of Somerset, PA<sup>180</sup>. Mary had worked at the shop as an employee while Russell was in the service, and when he came home from the war they arranged to take over the business from the previous owner<sup>180</sup>. Russ participated in World War II as a Cpl. in an Amphibious Tractor Battalion, and was engaged with the enemy on Saipan and Okinawa<sup>344</sup>. He was also in the Philippines, but the news article we have access to doesn’t make it clear if he was involved with the fighting there<sup>344</sup>. After Okinawa, he was sent to Lucone Island, and after that was on a ship which was close by the battleship Missouri when the Japanese signed the unconditional surrender<sup>344</sup>.

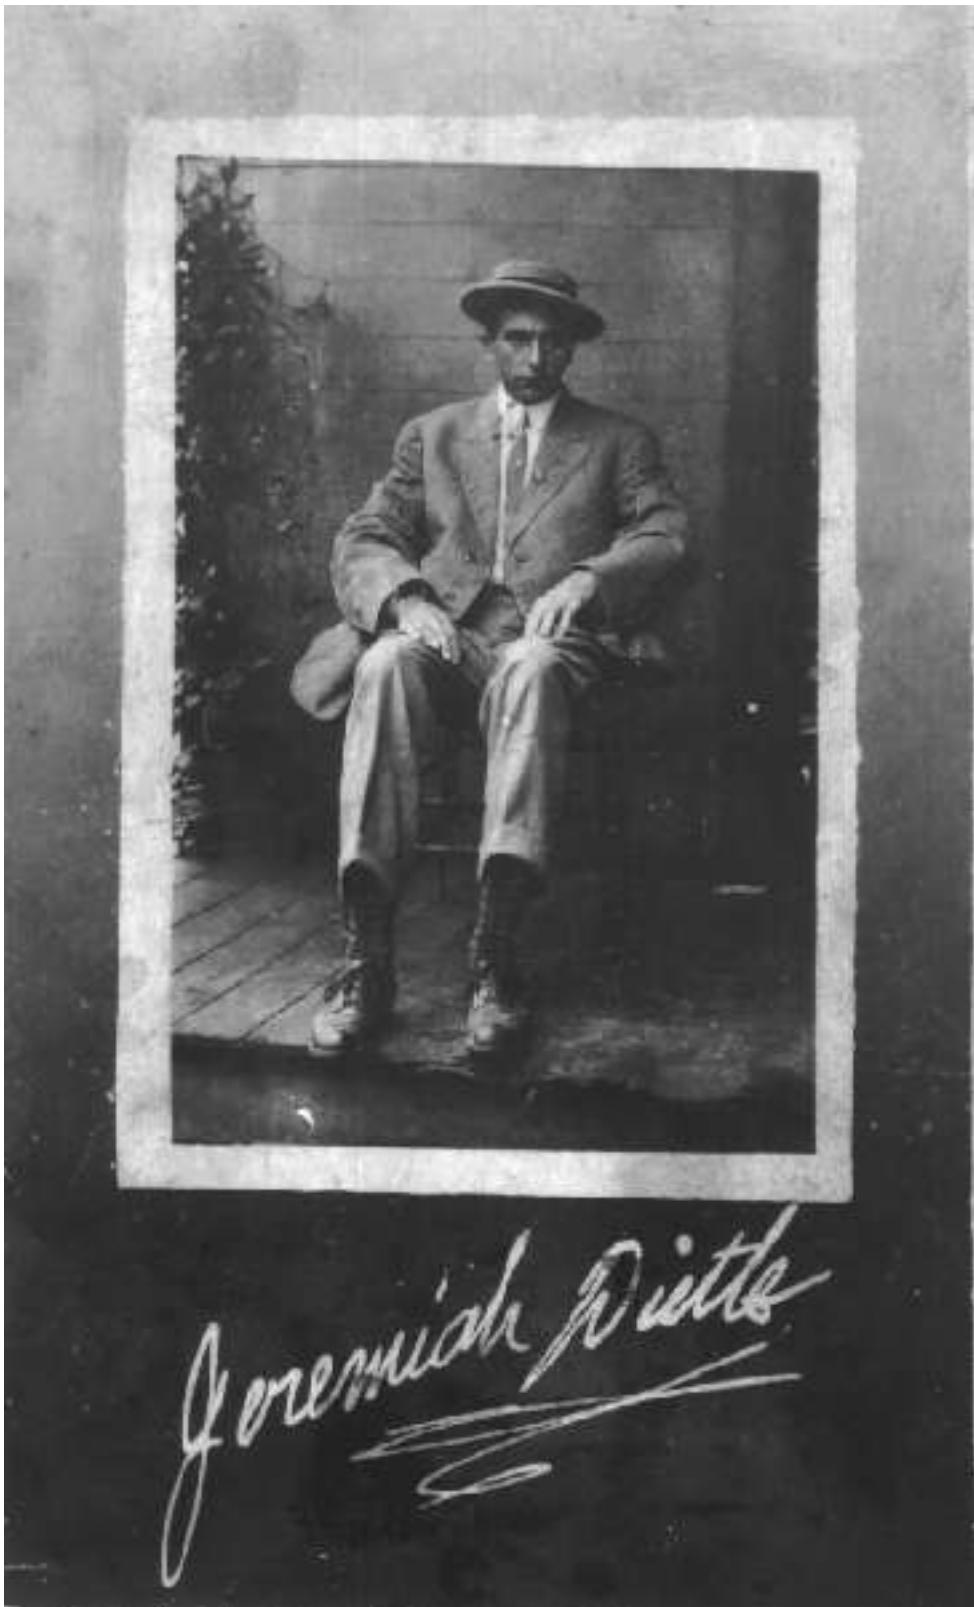

Sarah and Jeremiah Deitle

Jeremiah Deitle

We know very little about the life of Nicholas and Mary Deitle's son Jeremiah Deitle. He was born Aug. 20, 1881<sup>113a</sup> and died in 1939<sup>113a,315</sup>. In his father's obituary in 1918, his address was given as Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio<sup>263</sup>. In his mother's obituary in June, 1939, he was said to be very ill at his home in Wadsworth, Ohio<sup>76</sup>. He married Sarah<sup>91,180,315</sup> Eva<sup>315</sup> Lowry<sup>91</sup>, who was born in 1887 and died in 1971<sup>315</sup>. They are buried side by side in the Greenville Union Cemetery and share the same headstone<sup>315</sup>. Ardeth (Deitle) Gurnik reports that Jeremiah lived on a small farm in Wadsworth, and never had any children<sup>127</sup>. Wadsworth is west of Akron where state highway 57 crosses interstate highway 76. Vivian Timblin knew Jeremiah as "Jerry", and recalls that he farmed on a rented farm in Western Star, Ohio<sup>180</sup>.

Chapter 4

GG-Grandparents John Adam Diettle & Margaret (Ritter) Diettle, Ancestors of the Dietle Family Branch

Our GG-Grandfather was John Adam Dietle, son of the “first” Adam<sup>2,12b</sup>. He was born in Bavaria and immigrated to the U.S.<sup>12b</sup>. His wife was the former Margaret<sup>1,2,254</sup> or Margarite<sup>73</sup> Ritter<sup>2,12b,73</sup>. John Adam died at the age of 63 yrs. 3. mo. 23 days on Dec. 9, 1897<sup>12b,46,57,276</sup>, which puts his date of birth in 1834. He was a Farmer<sup>73</sup>, and is buried in the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>12b,315</sup>. His name was spelled “Diettle” in his obituary<sup>276*</sup>. On his daughter Mary’s Certificate of Holy Baptism in 1881, the surname is given as “Deittle”<sup>254</sup>. Margaret died at the age of 54 yrs. 8 mo. 26 days on August 14, 1883<sup>12b,73</sup>, which puts her date of birth in 1828. One descendant reports her birth date as Nov. 18, 1828<sup>73</sup>. The children of John and Margaret Dietle, and their spouses, were:

Tombstone of Margaret (Ritter) Dietle, 1994

Microfilmed church records of the Greenville Union Church (not available for all years) indicate that William and Adam “Deutle” were admitted to the church by the rite of Confirmation on May 22, 1875 along with 17 other individuals<sup>355</sup>. The same records show John Dietel, William Duetel, and Adam Duetel receiving the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper as members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church on May 23, 1875<sup>355</sup>.

The family of John Adam Dietle also appears in the 1860 census of Greenville Twp., abstracted as follows 105:

Name	Age	Occupation	Place of Birth	Value of Real Estate	Value of Personal Estate
John Dittle	24	Shoemaker	Hesse Kassel	$1,200.00	$250.00
Margaret	26		"
William	3		PA
John	1		"

The place of birth and the value of the personal estate of John Dietle are very difficult to read in the 1860 census owing to the badly scratched condition of the microfilm which we had access too. Dana interprets the value of the personal estate as $380.00, while I interpret it as $250.00. Hesse is spelled with the old-style double s, which looks like a lower case cursive f. Hesse Kassel is not in Bavaria, and we are not sure why it is shown as John's place of birth in the 1860 census. The 1870 and 1880 census records both indicate he was born in Bavaria.

One initially puzzling piece of data in the enumeration of John Adam in the 1860 census was a check-mark for having been married within the past year. If this were true, it would mean the two sons could conceivably be from an earlier marriage of either parent. It is important when evaluating this census record to be aware that the column for having been married within the past year is adjacent to the column for place of birth, which the name Hesse Kassel completely fills. Upon close examination, we have found that someone has gone down the pages of the census and put a check-mark at the right hand side of each foreign born place of birth, apparently while counting the immigrant residents. Since Hesse Kassel is a long name, and fills the column, the check-mark was inadvertently put in the column for having been married within the past year. The check-marks counting the foreign born individuals all look the same, but are completely different than the marks that were entered to denote having gone to school within the past year. From this we deduce that the check-marks which count foreign born individuals were not done by the original enumerator, and have no relationship to the date of John and Margaret's marriage. It is interesting to note that there is still a different shaped check mark which was used when counting persons with a trade or occupation.

The listing in the 1860 census is the only information which we have regarding the child John. Given the apparent popularity of the name John in this family, it seems probable that John, who was age 1 in the 1860 census, is actually the same individual who is listed as Adam, age 11, in the 1870 census; our Great-Grandfather Adam Dietle who was born August 28, 1859. This probably means his full name was John Adam.

John and Margaret also show up in the 1870 census, as shown in the following abstract by Dana<sup>4</sup>:

"I have also found the 1870 census with John Dietle on it. It is not very readable so I didn't copy it for you. Here is what it said.

Dittle John, 35 yrs., Male, White Farmer
Value of Real Estate $5000 Born in Bavaria
Value of Personal Estate $600

Margaret,	41 yrs.	Female	white	Housewife
William	13 yrs.	Male	white	works on farm
Adam	11 yrs.	Male	white	works on farm
Mary	8 yrs.	female	white
Sarah	5 yrs.	female	white
Catherine	9/12 yrs.	female	white	"

Dana also forwarded a photocopy of the 1880 census<sup>8</sup>. This is the first census which indicates the relationship between the head of the family and the other members of the household, and it names William and Adam as being sons of John. This is the last available census which lists the John Adam Dietle family, as the 1890 census was destroyed by fire. We have abstracted the 1880 census material as follows:

Head of Family: Dietle, John, white male, age 45, Birthplace:
Bavaria, County: Somerset, M.C.D. Greenville

Dietle, Margaret,	white wife,	age 51,	Birthplace:	Hanover
Dietle, William,	son,	age 22,	Birthplace:	Pennsylvania
Dietle, Adam,	son,	age 20,	Birthplace:	Pennsylvania
Dietle, Mary,	daughter,	age 18,	Birthplace:	Pennsylvania
Dietle, Sarah,	daughter,	age 15,	Birthplace:	Pennsylvania
Dietle, Catharine,	daughter,	age 10,	Birthplace:	Pennsylvania

The 1870<sup>350</sup> census of Greenville Twp. included a schedule for agricultural production which provides insight into John Adam Dietle's farming activities. In this schedule his name is spelled "Dittle". The census shows that his farm was valued at $2000, and consisted of 70 acres tilled and 50 acres in woodland. His farm implements and machinery were valued at $15. He had 1 horse, 8 milk cows, 6 sheep, and 3 swine, with the value of all livestock estimated at $600. He paid out $50 for wages in the preceding year, and harvested 25 bushels of rye, 150 bushels of oats, 43 bushels of buckwheat, 30 lbs of wool, 150 bushels of Irish potatoes, 800 lb of butter, 7 tons of hay, and $15 of orchard products. The value of home manufactured goods in the preceding year was $40, the value of animals slaughtered or sold for slaughter was $130, and the estimated value of all farm production was $772.

The 1880<sup>334</sup> census of Greenville Twp. also included a schedule for agricultural production. At that time the census indicates that John Adam owned two farms, the first with 75 acres tilled, and the second with 85 acres tilled. The first farm had 70 acres under the heading of permanent meadows, pastures, orchards and vineyards, and the second had 85 acres. The first farm had 37 acres of woods, and the second had 56 acres. The first farm was valued at $2,000, and the second at $2,500. His machinery and implements were valued at $100, and his livestock at $300. In 1879 he paid $200 for 37 weeks of labor. His farm production for 1879 was valued at $492. In 1879 he had 25 acres of grassland mown, and 150 acres not mown, and produced 16 tons of hay and 6 tons of grass seed. He had only one horse on hand for both farms, and had 9 pigs on hand in June, 1880. In 1879 he had 7 calves and slaughtered 7 cows, and made 700 pounds of butter. He had 3 acres of buckwheat in 1879, which yielded 69 bushels, 1 acre of Indian corn which yielded 30 bushels, 3 acres of oats which yielded 70 bushels, 4 acres of rye which yielded 50 bushels, 1 acre of wheat which yielded 17 bushels, 2 acres of potatoes which yielded 300 bushels, 3 acres of apples with 150 trees which yielded 200 bushels which were valued at $50, and harvested 181 lbs of honey, and sold or consumed $7 of forest products.

The Will of John Adam Dietle was admitted into probate on December 13 1897 in Somerset County, and can be found in file 98 for that year. The will also identifies William and Adam as being sons of John Adam, which also helps to clear up any doubt caused by the misplaced check-mark in the 1860 census which was mentioned earlier. The text of the will is included immediately below, however I have edited some of the capitalization and punctuation to achieve better clarity <sup>92</sup>:

I John Dietle of Greenville Township Somerset County and State of Pennsylvania being sound and disposing of mind and memory, do make, declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all former wills by me on anytime heretofore made, and first I direct that all my just debts, and funeral expenses be fully paid out of my estate and after payment thereof, I direct as follows. My son Adam Dietle to have the old home farm on which he now lives at the sum of twenty two hundred and fifty one dollars. One thousand dollars of this sum my son Adam shall have as his share in the real estate. The balance twelve hundred and fifty one dollars he shall pay out in equal shares to my three daughters as follows. Four hundred and seventeen dollars to my daughter Mary, wife of Ephriam Geiger. Four hundred and seventeen dollars to my daughter Sarah wife of C J Christner. Four hundred and seventeen dollars to my daughter Kate, wife of Harvey Fadeley. The amount coming to my daughter Mary must be paid to her in one year from the date of my death. The amount coming to my daughter Sarah must be paid to her in two years from the date of my death, and the amount coming to my daughter Kate must be paid to her in three years from the date of my death. I direct that my son Adam Dietle must secure to each of my daughters the amounts above stated by giving to each of them a judgment bond or mortgage on the property I have willed to him. As I have executed a deed to him for the farm, but I direct that my son Adam shall have no title to the farm under the deed until he shall first secure to my three daughters the amounts coming to them from the farm, and that he shall do immediately after my death. It is my will that whatever debts I may have shall be paid out of my personal estate, and after the payment of the debts & funeral expenses, the balance then remaining shall be divided in equal shares between my five children, William Dietle, Adam Dietle, and my three daughters Mary Geiger, Sarah Christner, and Kate Fadeley. It is my will and desire that my estate shall be settled without any proceedings at law. And I direct that in case my children cannot agree in the division of my personal property, that they each shall choose one person to act in their place, and the person chosen shall make the division, which shall be final. I direct further that in case it becomes necessary that an executor be appointed, I appoint my son Adam Dietle as my executor But he shall perform all the duties in the settlement without any commission and shall make no charges further than the actual expenses necessary. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 28th day of November 1896.

John Dietle      (seal)

The Somerset Co. deed index <sup>95</sup> lists a real estate transaction in Greenville Twp. between Grantor John Dietle and Grantee Adam Dietle on Dec. 13, 1897, several days after John Adam's death. The Somerset Co. deed index <sup>95</sup> also lists a real estate transaction between Grantor John Dietle and Grantee William Dietle on Dec. 9, 1895 in Greenville Twp.

John Adam Diettle's obituary reads as follows<sup>276</sup>:

THE GRIM REAPER

John Adam Diettle

The death of this well known and universally respected man came so suddenly that the announcement was a profound shock to all of his friends, neighbors and acquaintances. He was taken ill from a severe cold at the residence of his son, which developed into pneumonia, and which proved fatal in a few days. He died Dec. 9, 1897, in Greenville township, aged 63 years, 3 months and 23 days. He emigrated to this county from Germany and settled in Greenville. By thrift and wise management he amassed a competence and leaves, besides his good name and honest career, to his children a goodly portion of this world's goods. His wife died about 14 years ago. His sons are William and Adam, and his daughters Mary, married to E. Geiger, Sarah, to C. M. Christner, all of this county and near town, and Kate, to Harvey M. Faidley, of Burr Oak, Kans., who is now here on a visit. All the children were present and ministered to their loved father in his last illness.

Interment was made by the side of his departed wife in the cemetery of the Greenville church, in the midst of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, Bishop C. G. Lint officiating. Mr. Diettle's was a familiar figure on our streets, his genial smile and even temper making him a great favorite with all. Peace to his ashes.

Chapter 5

William Dietle

Frank Dietle 12a, 21,101,
Ephriam Dietle 12a, 21,
Eliza 21,119,111 E. 119,250 “Liza” 12a,101,111 Dietle,
Harvey Dietle 12a, and

Head of Family: Deittle, William, white, born July 1857, age 42,
Birthplace: Pennsylvania, County: Somerset, M.C.D. Greenville
Twp.

Deittle, Christie, wife, b. Aug. 1858, age 41, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Maggie, dau, b. Feb. 1886, age 14, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Frank, son, b. Sep. 1887, age 12, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Ephriam, son, b. Mar. 1889, age 11, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Eliza, dau, b. Dec. 1891, age 8, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, William, son, b. Nov. 1893, age 6, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Harvey, son, b. Nov. 1897, age 2, Birthplace: PA
Deittle, Emma, dau, b. Nov. 1897, age 2, Birthplace: PA

By the time of the 1910 census (Greenville Twp.)<sup>51</sup>, the only children living at home were Frank, Eliza, William, Harvey and Emma, which suggests the other children had perhaps moved out and married by 1910. William and his son Frank are listed as being farmers in the 1910 census, and the census indicates that William owned his farm free and clear<sup>51</sup>. The 1910 census indicates that Christiana's father and mother were both born in PA<sup>51</sup>. By the time of the 1920 census<sup>54</sup>, Frank and Harvey were still single and living at home in Greenville Twp. Frank is listed in the 1920 census as a farm manager, age 32, and Harvey is listed as a mill worker at a saw mill, age 22<sup>54</sup>.

Frank H. Brown, son of Nannie (Dietle) Brown, was living in or near Meyersdale in 1954<sup>197</sup>, and was not living in 1994<sup>111,397,398,399</sup>.

Ray W. Brown, son of Nannie (Dietle) Brown, was living in or near Meyersdale in 1954<sup>197</sup>, and was not living in 1994<sup>111,397,398,399</sup>.

Elmer C. Brown son of Nannie (Dietle) Brown, was living in or near Meyersdale in 1954<sup>197</sup>, and was not living in 1994<sup>111,397,398,399</sup>.

Clyde S. Brown, son of Hiram Brown and Nannie (Dietle) Brown<sup>397</sup>, was born on April 26, 1916 in Meyersdale<sup>397</sup>. He died August 24, 1994 at the Sacred Heart Hospital at the age of 78<sup>397</sup>. His residence at the time of death was Route 2, Frostburg, but his obituary said he was formerly of Meyersdale<sup>397</sup>. He was living in or near Painsesville, OH in 1954<sup>197</sup>. He was the Road Department Supervisor in Concord Twp, Ohio for 25 years, and served 18 years with the Concord Twp. Fire Department<sup>397</sup>. His first wife, Ethel (Decker) Brown proceeded him in death, and his second wife, Nellie (Rosenberger) Brown survived him<sup>397</sup>. He was also survived by two step daughters, Peggy Nagle, wife of David Nagle, Austin, TX, and Cynthia Early of Upper Marlboro, and by two step grandchildren, Nicholas Adam Nagle and Timothy Ryan Nagle of Austin, TX<sup>397</sup>. Clyde was a life member of the Mt. Tabor Lutheran Church where his funeral services were held<sup>397</sup>. He was buried in the Meyersdale Union Cemetery<sup>397</sup>.

Erma, daughter of Nannie (Dietle) Brown, married Charles<sup>197</sup> Pritts<sup>197,397,399</sup>, and was living in or near Garrett in 1954<sup>197</sup>. She preceded her sister June<sup>398</sup> and her brothers Clyde<sup>397</sup> and Clarence<sup>399</sup> in death. She may be the same Erma Pritts which the Social Security records list as born on June 23, 1906 and died Dec. 1987 having a last place of residence of Freedom, PA 15042<sup>433</sup>.

June, daughter of Hiram and Nannie (Dietle) Brown<sup>398</sup>, married Robert W. Decker<sup>398</sup>, and was living in or near Garrett in 1954<sup>197</sup>. She was born on June 4, 1918 in Meyersdale<sup>398</sup>, and died Aug. 11, 1994 at the Meyersdale Medical Center<sup>398</sup>. Robert died before her<sup>398</sup>. June was a member of the Garrett Mt. Tabor Lutheran Church, and was buried at the Highland Cemetery, Garrett<sup>398</sup>. June was survived by the following children<sup>398</sup>:

Grace,
Donald A.,
Dale A.

Pauline, daughter of Nannie (Dietle) Brown, married Donald Gnagey, and was living in or near Garrett in 1954<sup>197</sup>. She preceded her sister June<sup>398</sup> and her brothers Clyde<sup>397</sup> and Clarence<sup>399</sup> in death. She may be the same Pauline Gnagey which the Social Security records list as born on March 3, 1925 and died Dec. 1986 having a last place of residence of Garrett, PA 15542<sup>433</sup>.

Clarence D. "Jack" Brown, son of Hiram Brown and Nannie Dietle) Brown<sup>399</sup>, married Jenny Smith<sup>399</sup>, who preceded him in death<sup>399</sup>. He was born Aug. 12, 1911 and died at age 83 on Sept. 8, 1994 at his Bolivar, PA home<sup>399</sup>. For a number of years Clarence had also lived in Roanoke, VA<sup>399</sup>. He was a WW-II Veteran, and had worked for the Pennsylvania Turnpike<sup>399</sup>. His remains were cremated in Greensburg<sup>399</sup>. He had the following children<sup>399</sup>:

Patty, living at Bolivar in 1994,
Jack, living at Irwin in 1994,
Barbara, living at Tempe, AZ in 1994.

Margaret "Maggie" (Dietle) Meyers

Margaret Dietle, daughter of William Dietle and Christiana (Nedro) Dietle, married George Meyers<sup>61</sup>. Our father believes that his father Irvin H. Dietle got his start of Brown Swiss cattle from George and Maggie<sup>23</sup>. Maggie was living at Meyersdale R.D. # 3 in 1954<sup>197</sup>. She had the following children:

Grace Meyers<sup>111</sup>,
Mary Meyers<sup>61</sup>,
Ralph Meyers<sup>61</sup>,
Emma Meyers<sup>61</sup>,
Anna Mae Meyers<sup>61</sup>, and Evelyn Meyers<sup>61</sup>.

None of Margaret's children were alive in 1993<sup>111</sup>.

Frank Dietle, son of William Dietle and Christiana (Nedro) Dietle, was born on Sept. 14<sup>97</sup>, 1887<sup>97,315</sup> in Greenville Twp. <sup>97</sup> and died in 1958<sup>315</sup>. He took over his father's farm, and raised his children there <sup>149</sup>. He had a Frostburg, MD address in 1954<sup>197</sup>. He married Clara<sup>146,150,197,315</sup> Ruth <sup>146</sup> or Clair<sup>61,97*</sup> Brown <sup>61,97,133,150,199</sup>, the daughter of John Brown and Emma (Knepp) Brown <sup>150</sup>. John and Emma were born in 1861 and 1864<sup>146</sup>; we are not sure which date goes with which person. Emma Knepp's grand daughter Ida Mae (Brown) Snyder reports that Emma's family came from Germany and settled around White Oak; she believes the farm Sis & Irving Saylor owned was originally the Knepp home place<sup>146</sup>. Clara was born Oct. 22<sup>146,150</sup>, 1902<sup>146,150,315</sup> in Larimer Twp.,<sup>150</sup> and died at Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, FL<sup>150</sup>, on Jan. 21<sup>150</sup>, 1994 <sup>150,315</sup>. Clara's last residence was with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. & Mrs. Robert W. Laslo of Lake Park, FL <sup>150</sup>. Clara's obituary reported that she was a member of the Greenville Lutheran Church, where she is buried <sup>150</sup> beside her husband Frank<sup>315</sup>. Clara was employed in the food service at Frostburg State College for many years <sup>150</sup>. Frank and Clara Dietle had two daughters, as follows:

Viola Dietle <sup>60,61</sup>

Frank and Clara Dietle also raised a foster son named Irvin Sivits, who is living in or near Accident, MD in 1993/94 <sup>21,150</sup>. Clara's obituary indicates that she had a grandson and great-grandson who were alive in 1994 <sup>150</sup>. Darius Dietle tells us that neither Jennie Mae or Viola had children, so we guess the aforementioned grandson and great-grandson must be through Irvin Sivits <sup>150</sup>. Darius talked to Irvin Sivits' adult son at a funeral (possibly Clara's) in early 1994, but does not recall his name<sup>150</sup>.

Frank died on Dec. 1, 1958 at his home at 23 Centennial St., Frostburg after experiencing ill health for some time <sup>97</sup>. Funeral services were held on Dec. 3, 1958 with Rev. William J. Yingling officiating <sup>97</sup>. Frank was buried in the Greenville Cemetery <sup>97</sup>. His obituary indicated he was a retired farmer, and a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church <sup>97</sup>.

In the 1958 obituary of Frank Dietle, his daughter Jennie Mae Mintdrop was reportedly living in Hagerstown <sup>97</sup>. In the 1994 obituary of Clara Dietle, Jennie Mae was reportedly living in Hollywood, FL<sup>150</sup>.

Viola Dietle, daughter of Frank Dietle and Clara (Brown Dietle) was married to Robert W. <sup>150</sup> "Bob" <sup>146</sup> Laslo, a tool and die maker <sup>150</sup>. Robert Laslo was the son of John Laslo and Christiana (Walker) Laslo <sup>150</sup>. He was born in Midland on Dec. 23, 1919, and died on Jan. 20, 1994 at Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, FL <sup>150</sup>. Viola was living with her husband and mother in Lake Park, FL, and lost them both almost at the same time <sup>146,150</sup>. Bob died on Thursday, and Clara died on Friday <sup>146,150</sup>. Robert was buried in the Frostburg Memorial Park <sup>150</sup>. In the 1958 obituary of Frank Dietle, his daughter Viola B. Laslo was said to be living in Frostburg <sup>97</sup>. Robert had a daughter Carolyn Laslo who was reportedly living in Cumberland, MD in early 1994, according to his obituary <sup>150</sup>. Darius Dietle has indicated that Viola had no children, so Carolyn may be Robert's child by some previous marriage; we are just not sure <sup>150</sup>.

Irvin Sivits, the foster son of Frank Dietle, was said to be living in Grantsville in the 1958 obituary of Frank Dietle<sup>97</sup>.

* One source<sup>133</sup> also gives her name as Viola, but that may be confusion with the name of her daughter. We believe her given name to be Clara, as that is the name given on her tombstone.<sup>315</sup> It is my guess that the name "Clair" given by references 61 and 97 was a nickname.

In her obituary in the Meyersdale Republican, Ida's maiden name was spelled Seigner<sup>78</sup>, but her son Harold spelled it Siegner when he wrote to me in 1993<sup>61</sup>, and it is also spelled Siegner in The Werner Family<sup>131a</sup>. Ephriam died on Sept. 21<sup>132</sup>, 1959<sup>78,132</sup>. Ida Jane died March 24, 1967 at the Meyersdale Community Hospital<sup>78</sup>. She was a resident of Rockwood RD #2 at the time. Her sister Mrs. Martha McVicker was living at Sanford, North Carolina at the time of her death, and her brother Adam Seigner had a Hyndman address<sup>78</sup>. Ida was buried in the Union Cemetery<sup>78,259</sup> in Meyersdale<sup>78</sup>. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Cassidy<sup>78</sup>.

Ephriam was a self employed Farmer<sup>61</sup>. He was known as "Eph", according to his nephew Darius Dietle<sup>60</sup>. When asked what stood out in his memory of his mother and father, Ephriam's son Harold said "They gave me a good Christian home to live in."<sup>61</sup> Ephriam and Ida's home was in Brothersvalley Twp.<sup>61,461</sup> Somerset County, near Hayes Mill, where they had an 85 acre farm<sup>461</sup>. Ephriam had a Meyersdale R.D. # 2 address in 1954<sup>197</sup>. Ephriam and Ida were affiliated with the First Methodist Church in Meyersdale<sup>461</sup>.

June Dietle, daughter of Ephriam Dietle and Ida (Siegner) Dietle, died relatively young and had no children<sup>111</sup>.

* Ida Jane Siegner is a distant cousin of ours on our father's side through the Werner family. Her ancestors may be traced in REf. 61,78,131a and 432.

Edna Dietle, daughter of Ephriam Dietle and Ida (Siegner) Dietle, married Richard Kimmel 61,64,131a, who was born May 30, 1914<sup>461</sup>. Richard “Dick” Kimmel died circa 1986<sup>461</sup>. She and her brother Harold currently (1996) live at a Rockwood, PA address near the Seven Springs resort<sup>461</sup>. A newspaper article also listed her residence as a Rockwood rural delivery address in 1967<sup>78</sup>. They had a “Bed & Breakfast” business 111,461 which is now owned by a daughter and son in law. Edna worked 10 years as a book keeper for an electric company<sup>461</sup>. She and her husband had a “Red & White” grocery store in Trent (Rockwood RD#2) for 26 years<sup>461</sup>. Edna and Richard had the following children 131a,461:

Patricia Ann Kimmel, born May 30, 1949 (twin), and Pamela Jean Kimmel, born May 30, 1949 (twin).

Patricia Ann Kimmel, daughter of Richard Kimmel and Edna (Dietle) Kimmel, married Barry Enos<sup>461</sup>. They are living in Mount Joy, near Lancaster, and have the following children<sup>461</sup>:

Merideth Enos,
Laura Enos, and Matthew Enos.

Pamela Jean Kimmel, daughter of Richard Kimmel and Edna (Dietle) Kimmel, married Clarence Robert “Bob” Shrock<sup>461</sup>. They have two children<sup>461</sup>:

Jarod Shrock, and Sara Shrock.

Harold Dietle, son of Ephriam Dietle and Ida (Siegner) Dietle, never married<sup>61</sup>. He is a retired Farmer<sup>61</sup> who is (1993) living near Rockwood, PA.

Eliza Dietle, daughter of William Dietle and Christiana (Nedro) Dietle, married Marshall Arnold 60,61,64, son of John D. and Elizabeth (Faidley) Arnold 111. Marshall H. 119 Arnold was born on Feb. 4, 1889 111,119 and died Oct. 21, 1963<sup>111</sup>. A John D. Arnold 1852-1931 and his wife Elizabeth April 7, 1857-May 20, 1904 are buried in the Hostetler Cemetery in Greenville Twp<sup>286</sup>; this is presumed by the authors to likely be the last resting place of Marshall Arnold’s parents.

In the 1920 census records of Greenville Twp.<sup>54</sup>, the Marshall Arnold family is enumerated only two families ahead of the William Dietle family, which probably means the families lived in close proximity to one another. Marshall is enumerated as a self-employed 30 year old farm manager working on his own account, and owning his own farm free and clear<sup>54</sup>.

Eliza was born on Dec. 20, 1891 119,250 and died June 4, 1972<sup>111,250</sup>. Her given name was Eliza, and her nickname was “Liza”<sup>111</sup>. Her daughter Doretha recalls that Eliza participated in church groups, and enjoyed quilting<sup>111</sup>. When she was older, she went to the hospital every Monday with other older women volunteers to do mending<sup>111</sup>. In regards to her volunteer work, Doretha recalls that Eliza described her self as a “Go-Go Girl”*; when someone said go, she went<sup>111</sup>. Eliza remained an active person up until her death at age 80<sup>111</sup>. She and her husband Marshall are buried in the Union Cemetery in Meyersdale, which is right in Meyersdale, and not to be confused with the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>111</sup>.

Marshall was a Farmer in Pocahontas until moving to Meyersdale in 1937, at which time he began working as a self-employed Carpenter<sup>111</sup>. Eliza’s address was still Meyersdale in 1954<sup>198</sup>. Eliza and Marshall had the following children:

* This was evidently a spoof on the slang of the 1960’s era, when a Go-Go girl was a performer who danced in places like cocktail lounges to entertain the customers. Go-Go girls typically wore mini-skirts and knee-high “Go-Go Boots”. They were often depicted in magazines, movies and TV shows of the day.

Clarence F. Arnold, son of Eliza Dietle and Marshall Arnold, was born April 3, 1912<sup>111</sup> and died Oct. 5, 1987<sup>111</sup>. He lived in Finzel (between Frostburg and Pocahontas) and is buried in the Finzel Cemetery<sup>111</sup>. He was once a Truck Driver with his own truck, and after that he was a Carpenter<sup>111</sup>. He married Emma Clark<sup>111,119</sup> (who died Dec. 26, 1995<sup>111</sup>) and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Paul,
Harold,
Ronald,
Blaine,
Darrel, and Patricia.

Paul, son of Clarence F. Arnold, died at the age of 9 months circa 1936<sup>111</sup>.

Harold, son of Clarence F. Arnold, married Betty Capel<sup>111</sup> and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Shelly,
Mark, and Kelly.

Ronald, son of Clarence F. Arnold, married Rose Mankameyer<sup>111</sup> and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Kathy,
Rodney, and Lori.

Blaine, son of Clarence F. Arnold, married Margie Haer<sup>111</sup> and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Michelle.

Blaine also married Andrea Kross and had a child named Matthew<sup>111</sup>.

Darrel, son of Clarence F. Arnold, married Darlene Stinebaugh<sup>111</sup> and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Derek.

Patricia, daughter of Clarence F. Arnold, married John Urbas and had a son named Brian<sup>111</sup>.

Descendants of Johann Adam Dietel of 19th Century Somerset County, Pennsylvania

John William Arnold, son of Eliza Dietle and Marshall Arnold, was b. June 1, 1916<sup>111</sup> and died in Jan. 1973<sup>111</sup>. He was reportedly named for his grandfathers<sup>111</sup>. He lived in Akron, Ohio and worked for Goodyear, and is buried in that area<sup>111</sup>. He married Betty Baer<sup>111,119</sup> and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Larry Arnold, and Philip Arnold.

Larry Arnold, son of John Arnold, married Sherrie _____, and has (1994) no children<sup>111</sup>.

Phillip Arnold, son of John Arnold, married Jan _____ and had the following children<sup>111</sup>:

Tammy,

Floyd Arnold, son of Eliza Dietle and Marshall Arnold, married Virginia<sup>111,119,400</sup> Rose<sup>400</sup> Brant<sup>111,400</sup> on Oct. 17, 1947<sup>119</sup>. She was born Jan. 16, 1927<sup>119</sup>. Floyd was born March 7, 1926<sup>119,400</sup> in Greenville Twp., Somerset County, PA<sup>119</sup> and died Nov. 15, 1994<sup>119,400</sup> at the Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh<sup>400</sup>. A member of the former Center Lutheran Church, Garrett, his interment was at the Garrett Highland Cemetery<sup>400</sup>. Virginia worked for the Meyersdale Manufacturing Co.<sup>119</sup>. Floyd graduated from Meyersdale High School in 1944 and served in the U.S. Army during WW II<sup>400</sup>. He was a Mechanic for many years, working at the New Standard Motor Company from 1946 to 1963, and then with Gnagey Oldsmobile from 1963 to 1969<sup>400</sup>. He was also a Custodian for Somerset Rural Electric<sup>119,400</sup> Cooperative<sup>400</sup> (REA) for 18 years<sup>111</sup>. Floyd was living outside of Meyersdale in 1994, and had a Garrett address<sup>111,400</sup>. He had the following children<sup>119</sup>:

Doretha Jane Arnold, daughter of Eliza Dietle and Marshall Arnold, married Glen<sup>111</sup> Berg<sup>472</sup> Hoover<sup>111</sup>, son of Isaiah and Tillie Ann (Berg) Hoover<sup>111</sup>. Glenn was born on Nov. 5, 1927 at Barronzale, and was a Heavy Equipment Operator (cranes, etc.) on construction jobs<sup>111</sup>. Doretha went to school with our father Roy Dietle<sup>60</sup>, and was living at Meyersdale Rt 3 in 1993<sup>21,111</sup>. She retired from the Meyersdale Area School District in June of 1993 after working 29 years in the school cafeteria<sup>111</sup>. She worked in the Meyersdale Elementary School<sup>472</sup>. She said "I told them I was retiring after feeding several hundred who are parents now and saw their children go through. I can hardly believe their grandchildren are now starting school."<sup>111</sup>

Doretha reported in 1994 that she is helping with her 45th High School class reunion, and that they help with the annual Meyersdale Maple Festival, which is held two weekends in April<sup>111</sup>. She reports that the festival has a Maple Queen contest, crafts, parades, entertainment, etc., and that this is the only time of the year that Meyersdale has any traffic!<sup>111</sup>

Doretha attended the Meyersdale High School, and in her Sr. Yearbook she was chosen "Most outstanding Personality" by the Senior Class, and was described as having blue eyes<sup>288</sup>. For her 4 years of high school, 17 extra-curricular activities were listed, with many of these being pursued for more than one year<sup>288</sup>. She must have been a very industrious student indeed!

Doretha and Glen had the following children, who are (1994) all living within about 7 miles of her<sup>111</sup>:

The marriage to William Dietle was Cora's second marriage<sup>60</sup>, and she was employed at one time as a Celanese Worker<sup>22</sup>. Her first marriage was to Hampton Talmage Dashiell, an Insurance Salesman, who was the son of Talmage Dashiell<sup>359</sup>. Darius Dietle knew Cora's first husband as "Harry" Dashiell<sup>60</sup>. Her third marriage was to Nello N. Caporossi<sup>359,60</sup>, a Chef in Allegany Co. MD<sup>359</sup>, who was born on Feb. 10, 1896 and died in October, 1979<sup>359</sup>. Cora was still living at the time of William's death<sup>84</sup>.

Pauline B.<sup>84</sup> Dietle, daughter of William Dietle and Minnie (Bowser) Dietle, has been married several times, and we have been told that she lives (1993) in TX<sup>60</sup>. She had a son named William D. Guillory with her first husband Jeffery Guillory<sup>21,84</sup>. Darius Dietle referred to this son as "Billy"<sup>60</sup>. Pauline's second husband was named Sherwood Diehl<sup>21</sup>, her third husband was named Herbert Kuykendoll<sup>21</sup>, and her fourth husband was named Clyde Flemming<sup>21</sup>. Pauline was living in Beaumont, TX in 1967<sup>84</sup>.

Harvey Dietle, son of William Dietle and Christiana (Nedro) Dietle, was born on Nov. 4, 1897<sup>21,98,433</sup> in Greenville Township<sup>81</sup>. He married Minnie Bowser's sister<sup>60,99</sup> Ruth May Bowser of

* The ancestry of sisters Minnie Bowser and Ruth May Bowser can be found in Ref. 21, 85, 99, and 359.

Grantsville, MD, who was born on Nov. 27, 1903<sup>21</sup>. Ruth's parents were James Bowser and Sophia (Yommer) Bowser**, according to her son Darius Dietle<sup>21</sup>, who referred to his mother's father as "Jim" Bowser<sup>60</sup>. Ruth was living in a nursing home August 1993<sup>21</sup>. One of her hobbies was making quilts<sup>21</sup>.

Harvey Dietle, was a Farmer<sup>21,81</sup>, and had also been employed by the Garrett Co. Roads Department<sup>81</sup>. He was a member of the Maple Grove Church of the Brethren, where he had served as Deacon. He had a Frostburg, MD address in 1954<sup>197</sup>.

Brothers Harvey and Will Dietle lived on the farm of Ruth and Minnie Bowser's father James Bowser<sup>60</sup>. This farm is located about 6 miles south of Grantsville, MD on Route 495<sup>60</sup>, and was directly across the road from the farm of James Bowser's brother Perry<sup>60</sup>. The only natural son of Harvey and Ruth Dietle was Darius Dietle, however Harvey Dietle adopted Ruth Bowser's son Robert<sup>60</sup> when he married her<sup>21</sup>. Harvey Dietle knew our Grandfather Irvin H. Dietle, according to his son Darius Dietle<sup>21</sup>, who can remember hearing his father talking about Irvin. Further evidence that they knew each other is that a funeral card for Harvey was found in Irvin's effects after he died.

Darius Dietle, son of Harvey Dietle and Ruth (Bowser) Dietle, was born on Oct. 5, 1926<sup>21</sup>. Darius is a retired Cumberland, MD Firefighter<sup>21</sup>. His job was that of Driver and Equipment Operator<sup>60</sup>. His wife is Edna Wilda (Rumer) Dietle, who was born on June 10, 1934<sup>21</sup>. Darius and Edna were married on Sept. 3, 1949<sup>21</sup>. Edna's parents were Siple Vanmeter Rumer, who was born June 19, 1904 and died January 1, 1947, and Lola Wilda (Dawson) Rumer, who was born Sept. 12, 1912, and died January 17, 1987<sup>21</sup>. Darius and Edna have one child, a daughter Norma Ruth (Dietle) Redinger, who was born on August 23, 1950<sup>21</sup>.

Robert Dietle, the adopted son of Harvey Dietle and the natural son of Ruth (Bowser) Dietle, married Mary M. Hetrick<sup>149</sup> or Hedrick<sup>21,60</sup>, who died on Dec. 25, 1991<sup>149</sup>. Robert was born May 29, 1922 at Bittinger<sup>149</sup>, and died at Sacred Heart Hospital on Jan. 25, 1994<sup>149</sup>. He is buried at the Saint John's Lutheran Church Cemetery<sup>149</sup>. His home was at Star Route, Grantsville, MD at the time of his death<sup>149</sup>, and he was retired from working for Harbison-Walker Refractories as a Truck Driver<sup>149</sup>. Robert served in the Army in World War II<sup>149</sup>, and belonged to the Grantsville American Legion and the Salisbury VFW<sup>149</sup>. He was also a member of the Woodsman of the World Camp 41<sup>149</sup>.

** In The Burbach-Poorbaugh-Purbaugh Families in America 1771-1974, Ruth Bowser is listed as the only child of Edwin Franklin Bowser (born circa 1885) and Bessie Alice (Kelly) Bowser (born circa 1882) of Sang Run, Garret Co. Md<sup>22</sup>, who were married by the Reverend James W. Beeghly<sup>22</sup>. According to the Burbach- Poorbaugh book, Edwin Franklin Bowser is the son of James Bowser and Sophia Younner, and James Bowser was born circa 1852<sup>22</sup>. Ruth (Bowser) Dietle's parentage as given in the Burbach-Poorbaugh book is in conflict with that given by her son Darius Dietle, and we believe that the Burbach-Poorbaugh book is incorrect.

Emma Dietle, daughter of William Dietle and Christiana (Nedro) Dietle, married Reid<sup>61</sup> H.<sup>315</sup> Meese<sup>61</sup>, son of Daniel and Mary Ellen Meese<sup>107</sup>. Reid was a Farmer by occupation<sup>107</sup>. He was born on Jan. 2, 1897, and died on May 26, 1956<sup>315</sup>. Emma was born on Nov. 4, 1897 and died Feb. 9, 1989<sup>315</sup>. They are buried side by side in the Greenville Union Cemetery and share the same headstone<sup>315</sup>. Emma and her brother Harvey were twins, and she gave birth to twin sons Donald and Dale Meese<sup>60,61</sup>. Emma had a Salisbury address in 1954<sup>197</sup>. Emma and Reid's children are:

Donald Meese<sup>60,61</sup>,

Ernest McKenzie, the eldest son<sup>111</sup>, and Rodger McKenzie<sup>101,111</sup>

Rodger McKenzie, son of Frank McKenzie and Alverta (Meese) McKenzie, married Caroline, and has one son Michael who is about 17 in 1996<sup>473</sup>. Ernest and Caroline are divorced<sup>473</sup>.

Rodger McKenzie, son of Frank McKenzie and Alverta (Meese) McKenzie, was living in Meyersdale in 1993<sup>101</sup>. Rodger is (1996) working at Maple City Tire<sup>473</sup>. He married Mary Zinn and had the following children:

Andrea, and Lonnie.

Donald Meese, son of Emma Dietle and Reid Meese, married Lois Clark<sup>107</sup>, who was born June 10, circa 1939<sup>473</sup>. Donald was living in Somerset in 1993 according to Darius Dietle<sup>21</sup>. Donald has the following children:<sup>473</sup>

David Meese, born Feb. 1, circa 1964, and Natallie Meese, born April 8, circa 1965/66.

Natallie Meese married and divorced Tony Herchand, and goes by Meese now (1996)<sup>473</sup>. They Have one child Nicole Beth Herch, born Oct. 29 1986<sup>473</sup>.

Dale Meese, son of Emma Dietle and Reid Meese, married Jo Ann or JoAnne Thomas, daughter of Ken and Pauline Thomas. Jo Ann was born on Dec. 20, 1939. Dale, a Truck Driver, was living in Salisbury in 1993<sup>21</sup>. He (1996) drives truck for Oester, and drives long distance<sup>473</sup>. Dale and Jo Ann have a son Dale F. Meese, Jr. who was born on Aug. 8, 1959<sup>107</sup>.

Dale F. Meese, Jr., son of Dale Meese and Jo Ann (Thomas) Meese, is (1996) working for Harbison as a brick layer<sup>473</sup>. He has two children, as follows:

Adam Dietle

Adam Dietle is our direct ancestor, and will be discussed in a separate chapter.

Mary Dietle

John Adam and Margaret's daughter Mary Dietle married Ephriam Geiger<sup>1,322</sup> on March 31, 1887<sup>322</sup>. Ephriam was the brother of our Grandmother Mary (Geiger) Korns<sup>322</sup> (on our mother's side) and the son of Aaron Geiger and Lavina Bowman<sup>35</sup>. In a surveyor's draught of Ephriam's farm, the farm of his father Aaron Geiger is shown adjacent to Ephriam's farm<sup>393</sup>, and Ephriam's obituary indicates he was born next door<sup>322</sup>.

A drawing of Ephriam Geiger's caplock rifle.

The 1920 census also lists Mary (Dietle) Geiger as the mortgage-free owner of a farm in Larimer township<sup>48</sup>, which was the farm which Harry Dietle owned<sup>10,200</sup> briefly before his untimely death in a sawmill accident in 1926<sup>12b</sup>. Our Grandfather Irvin H. Dietle then purchased the farm<sup>1,200</sup> and spent most of his adult life there, as described elsewhere here-in. Ephriam and Mary spent the entire 32 years of their married life there, and Ephriam was born on the farm next door<sup>322</sup>. Ephriam Geiger bought the farm in two separate tracts. On April 3, 1886<sup>341,395</sup> he bought 98 acres 50 perches<sup>395</sup> from Richard and Christian Mankamyer and their wives<sup>341,395</sup> for $1,600.00<sup>395</sup>. On Nov. 13, 1909 he bought an adjacent 12 acres and 17 perches from Frank L. Bittner for $222.00<sup>396</sup>. This 12 acres was part of the tract conveyed from the heirs of Jeremiah Bittner to Frank L. Bittner in 1909<sup>396</sup>. The deed for the 12 acres was recorded on Dec. 30, 1919<sup>396</sup>.

Mary was born on Dec. 31, 1861<sup>53,254</sup> in Greenville Twp.<sup>254</sup>. She was baptized as "Mary Deittle" on May 14, 1881 by Pastor R. Smith<sup>254</sup>. Ephriam Geiger was born on August 9<sup>53,322</sup>, 1859<sup>53,312,322</sup> and died on Dec. 17<sup>200,322,341</sup>, 1919<sup>200,312,341</sup>, leaving Mary to survive him<sup>200,341</sup>. They are buried side by side in the cemetery of the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church<sup>312</sup>. Ephriam was a member of the White Oak Mt. Carmel Church, being confirmed there on June 10, 1876<sup>322</sup>. He was a Trustee in the Church at the time of his death, and had served there in official capacity for many years<sup>322</sup>. Mary was evidently deeply religious, for she willed $500.00 to the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church, to be used by the Trustees in the best interests of the Church<sup>305</sup>. She also willed that "Harry Dietle shall have the first right to purchase the farm, whether sold at public or private sale..."<sup>305</sup> Harry Dietle was also one of the executors she appointed; the other being Howard Mazer<sup>305</sup>. The will was certified on June 10, 1925, so she died before then<sup>305</sup>.

Ephriam Geiger and Mary (Dietle) Geiger had a son John<sup>12a,271</sup> William<sup>271</sup> Geiger<sup>271</sup>, who died young<sup>12a,271</sup>. John was the only child they had<sup>319,322</sup>. Ephriam and Mary Geiger's large family Bible, which contains the Apocrypha, is in the possession of our father Roy E. Dietle<sup>53</sup>. It was originally purchased on August 18, 1881<sup>53</sup>. It indicates that their son John Wilson Geiger was born on Nov. 16, 1889, and was baptized on Jan. 19, 1890<sup>53</sup>. The Bible contains a receipt for $5.00 from the National War Finance Committee of the American Red Cross which is dated May 23, 1918, and is signed F.L. Bittner to Ephriam Geiger & wife<sup>53</sup>.

John William Geiger<sup>271</sup>, the only child of Ephriam and Mary (Dietle) Geiger<sup>271,320</sup>, was born Nov. 16, 1889<sup>271,320</sup>, and died Oct. 1, 1912<sup>271,320,322</sup> at the age of 22 years<sup>271,320</sup>. He was born and raised at the Larimer Twp. farm where he died<sup>319</sup>. He was a member of the White Oak<sup>319</sup> Lutheran<sup>271,319,320</sup> Church, having joined at the age of about 15<sup>321</sup> or 16<sup>320</sup>. One of his obituaries said he was a "young man of fine spirit and great promise"<sup>271</sup>. Another said "His place was always occupied in the Sunday School, and in all the public services of the church."<sup>320</sup> His funeral was attended by an unusually large group of mourners<sup>271,320</sup> and "The church was crowded in every part..."<sup>320</sup> One obituary remarked on the cause of death as follows<sup>271</sup>:

The young man complained of a headache on Friday night a week ago. On the following Sunday the family physician was called who saw symptoms of typhoid fever."

Another obituary commented as follows<sup>319</sup>:

"... the cause of death is somewhat hard to determine.

It may or may not have been due to an accident which happened to the young man on Thursday of Meyersdale's Old Home Week celebration.

On the Thursday mentioned, young Geiger was a passenger on the East-bound Western Maryland excursion train, and when the train was nearing Deal station it was running at a rate of speed that caused some of the passengers to think that no stop would be made there, and young Geiger jumped from the train while it was still in motion, falling as he struck the ground.

He complained of being badly wrenched after arising to his feet, and in a few days became quite (word missing).

F.E. Sass, of Pocahontas, and Dr. Rowe, of Meyersdale, both visited the patient the day he died, and while they thought he showed some symptoms of typhoid fever, his death taking place so soon thereafter, it is not unlikely that death was due to some internal injury caused by the accident in falling when alighting from the train."

Howard,
Wilbert,
Florence, and Wilma

The above list of children differs from what Mildred Sass recalled in 1994 of Eli Weimer's 4 children, which she gave as follows<sup>287</sup>:

Oldest child which she thought was probably a daughter,

Archie,
Betty, and
Shirley, who became Homer Paul's second wife.

Mary Christner, daughter of Sarah (Dietle) Christner and Calvin Christner, married Milton Shuck<sup>101,163,269,278</sup> or Shook<sup>275</sup> who was born Nov. 28, 1895<sup>163</sup> and was still living in 1966<sup>278</sup>. Milton Shuck's parents were William Shuck and Rachel May (May is the last name)<sup>463</sup>. Milton was a Railroader by occupation, and Mary was a Housewife<sup>163</sup>. In her father's obituary, Milton and Mary's residence was given as Sand Patch, Larimer Twp.<sup>269</sup>. In her sister Margaret's 1966 obituary, her residence was given as Meyersdale RD<sup>278</sup>. In her mother's obituary, Mary's age was given as 22<sup>275</sup>. Mary and Milton are buried at St. John's Church at White Oak<sup>463</sup>. They had the following children:

Clarence C. Christner, son of Sarah (Dietle) Christner and Calvin Christner, married Mary<sup>101,313,464</sup> Leona<sup>464</sup> Knapp<sup>101,464</sup>. Clarence was born on Oct. 9<sup>261</sup>, 1895<sup>261,313,464</sup> and died on June 22<sup>132,261</sup>, 1971<sup>132,261,313</sup>. He is buried at the White Oak Cemetery<sup>261</sup> at the little Church beside the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church<sup>313</sup>. Mary is buried by his side<sup>313</sup>. She was born in 1899 and died in 1994<sup>313</sup>. In his father's obituary, Clarence's residence was given as Sand Patch, Larimer Twp.<sup>269</sup>. In his sister Margaret's 1966 obituary, his residence was given as Meyersdale RD<sup>278</sup>. In his mother's obituary, Clarence was listed as being age 20<sup>275</sup>. Clarence worked on the Western Maryland Railroad, and lived

Bonnie, daughter of Lewis Christner, married Henry<sup>468</sup> McKenzie<sup>464,468</sup>, and is (1996) living along old Route 40, just up from Frostburg<sup>468</sup>. She has a son named Scotty McKenzie<sup>468</sup>.

Wyade Leo Christner, son of Lester Christner, married Sharon Virginia Stanton, who took the married name Sharon Stanton Christner<sup>466</sup>. Sharon was born Nov. 9, 1949<sup>466</sup>. Her parents were Lawrence Stanton and Carmella Arnone<sup>466</sup>. Wyade is (1996) living in Lewisville, TX, which is near Dallas, and is a Sales Representative for a trucking firm<sup>466</sup>. He reports that his mother was of Italian heritage and a Catholic, and so he was raised as a Catholic and attended St. Michaels in Frostburg<sup>466</sup>. When Wyade was little, his parents called him Leo, and now he answers to either Leo or Wyade<sup>468</sup>. Wyade has two children:

Gene Christner, son of Clarence & Mary Christner, worked on the railroad, then at the sand quarry in Corriganville<sup>464</sup>. He had two sons :

Gary, son of Gene Christner, is married to Rita Bittinger, and has a daughter named Kelly Jo<sup>467,468</sup>.

Rex Wayne Stone, b. April 24, 1951, and Sherri Lynn Stone, b. Jan. 21, 1954, not married in 1996.

Rex was named by Ruth's brother "Buss"<sup>464</sup>. Rex married Sandra Martz, and has the following children<sup>464</sup>:

Jaime Lynn Stone, b. Aug. 16, 1976, and

Bernard was a Rifleman in the 69th Infantry Division in WW-II, and served overseas for 18 months<sup>72</sup>. He enlisted on Feb. 15, 1944 and was discharged on May 18, 1946<sup>72</sup>. He participated in the Central Europe and Rhineland campaigns and was present when the 69th linked up with the Russians at the end of the war<sup>72</sup>. Bernard's second wife Lerene wrote "He told me there were only 8 of his group left when the fighting ended that were not injured." <sup>72</sup> Bernard was spared from injury when a bullet went through his sleeve, but missed his arm<sup>72</sup>.

Lisa Murray, adopted daughter of Bernard Murray and Norma (Christner) Murray, was married to B. Hetz but they are now (1993) divorced<sup>101</sup>. They had one daughter named Krystal Hetz<sup>70,101</sup> who was born on April 28, 1980.

Margaret Christner, daughter of Sarah (Dietle) Christner and Calvin Christner, was born Feb. 6, 1902 in Larimer Twp. and was residing in Johnstown at the time of her death<sup>278</sup>. She died Nov. 7, 1966<sup>132,278</sup> in the Johnstown Memorial Hospital at the age of 54, and is buried in the Grandview Cemetery, Johnstown<sup>278</sup>. She went to live with Myra Bowman in Johnstown<sup>70</sup>, and left many beautiful items at the home of Irvin and Alma Dietle, our grandparent, for the remainder of her life<sup>49</sup>. The 1920 census from Larimer Twp. shows Margaret living at the home of Mary (Dietle) Geiger as a Farm Helper. In her mother's obituary, Margaret was listed as being age 14<sup>275</sup>, which could be used to calculate the year of her mother's death.

Margaret was the Supervisor of Cafeterias for the Johnstown School System<sup>278</sup>. She belonged to the Johnstown Business and Professional Women's Club, and was a member of the St. Paul's EUB Church<sup>278</sup>.

Sadie Christner, daughter of Sarah (Dietle) Christner and Calvin Christner, married Joseph<sup>269</sup> Lint<sup>12a,101,269</sup>. She was living in Holsopple at the time of her father's death<sup>269</sup>, and she may have died in 1952<sup>132</sup>. In her mother's obituary, Sadie was listed as being age 12<sup>275</sup>.

Miles E., son of Sarah (Dietle) Christner and Calvin Christner, was living in Johnstown at the time of his father's death<sup>269</sup>. In his mother's obituary, Miles was listed as being age 8<sup>275</sup>. In 1966 Miles was living in Johnstown<sup>278</sup>.

Catharine Dietle

Catherine was born in Greenville Twp. on Sept. 24<sup>272,291</sup>, 1869<sup>272</sup>. She died at the Research Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri at age 69 on Dec. 28, 19<sup>_</sup><sup>272</sup>. She had been in poor health since a stroke which occurred 5 1/2 years prior to her death, and she had a heart attack two days before her death<sup>272</sup>. Funeral services were held at the Lowman Methodist Church, Topeka, and Catherine was buried at the Memorial Park Cemetery<sup>272</sup>. In her youth she belonged to the Greenville Lutheran Church, and she remained a Lutheran until the Easter preceding her death, when she united with the Melrose Methodist Church South in Kansas City<sup>272</sup>. Some of her passions in life were flowers and gardens, and her obituary said she was also interested in political and civic problems<sup>272</sup>. Two of her favorite Hymns were sung at her funeral service; "In the Garden" and "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"<sup>272</sup>. Her daughter Mrs. H. L. Harrell said in a letter to Irvin and Alma Dietle that "Mother was always vitally interested in Meyersdale and Somerset and we heard so much about the people she new.... Perhaps that is why we have always been interested in coming back to visit as it almost seems one of my past homes."<sup>294</sup>

Margaret.

An 1897 obituary found in the effects of our Grandfather Irvin Dietle, Sr. states in part that "Sweet little Florence Lucile only child of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fadely a bright and lovable child, whose winsome ways had been the sunshine of the home for fifteen short months was taken away on Thursday, November 4."<sup>306</sup> It is very possible that this was the first child of Harvey Faidley and Catherine (Dietle) Faidley. The child was buried in the Burr Oak Cemetery<sup>306</sup>.

Letty F.<sup>272</sup>, daughter of Harvey Faidley and Catherine (Dietle) Faidley, married a Harrell<sup>12a,101,294</sup>, and was living at 402 Denver, Kansas City, MO at the time of her mother's death. On March 21, 1939, which was after her mother's death, she wrote a letter to Irvin and Alma Dietle and was living at 4426 Sunrise Drive, Kansas City, MO at the time. Her return address on the envelope was addressed as "Mrs. H. L. Harrell", and within the letter she mentions that Leon has been growing plants under lights in the basement to set out in the spring<sup>294</sup>. From this, we surmise that Leon must have been her husband. She also mentioned that "We get out alot and it seems like we just don't have enough time."<sup>294</sup>

Richard T. Fadely, son of Catherine (Dietle) Faidley, was living in Topeka at the time of his mother's death, and was the County Treasurer of Shawnee Co. Kansas<sup>272</sup>. In his mother's obituary, it was said that his mother was survived by 3 grandchildren; "Nancy Sue, John Richard, and Gary Dean Fadely of Topeka, Kansas."<sup>272</sup> It seems logical to assume that these 3 were probably Richard's children.

Catherine Fadely, daughter of Harvey Faidley and Catherine (Dietle) Faidley, was unmarried and living in Topeka at the time of her mother's death. She may be the same Catherine Fadely which the Social Security records list as born on Sept. 29, 1903 and died Feb. 1981 with a lump sum payment to zip code 66601<sup>433</sup>.

Margaret, daughter of Harvey Faidley and Catherine (Dietle) Faidley, was referred to as Mrs. Margaret Madison in her mother's obituary, and was living in Kansas City, Missouri at the time of her mother's death.

Chapter 6

Great-Grandparents Adam Dietle & Susan (Werner) Dietle

Our G-Grandfather was Adam Dietle, who was born in Greenville Twp., Somerset Co. PA<sup>2,12b</sup> on August 28, 1859<sup>2,12b,71a,131b,298,315</sup> and died on Dec. 27, 1930<sup>2,46,71a,123,315</sup> on the farm where he was born<sup>2,298</sup> and where he resided all of his life<sup>298</sup>. Death occurred after about one year of failing health, but he was only bedfast for the last two weeks<sup>298</sup>. His wife was Susan Werner†, who was born March<sup>108,131a,315</sup> 5<sup>315</sup> or 6<sup>108,131a</sup>, 1864<sup>108,131a,315</sup> in Somerset Co.<sup>108</sup> and died on July 27, 1932<sup>2,108,123,131a,315</sup> at the Wenzel Hospital<sup>267</sup> in the Borough of Meyersdale<sup>108</sup>, where she had been a patient for a week<sup>267</sup>. They are buried side by side in the Greenville Union Cemetery and share the same headstone<sup>315</sup>. Our Grandfather referred to this as the “Greenville Lutheran and Reformed Church Cemetery”<sup>2</sup>.

“George Werner was born September 11, 1828, in Germany, where he was confirmed a member of the Reformed church at the age of fourteen years. He learned the weaving trade in early life. He spent three years in the German Army. In 1852 he married Elizabeth Shroeder of his native village.

In 1854, he with his parents and three brothers, came to the United States of America.

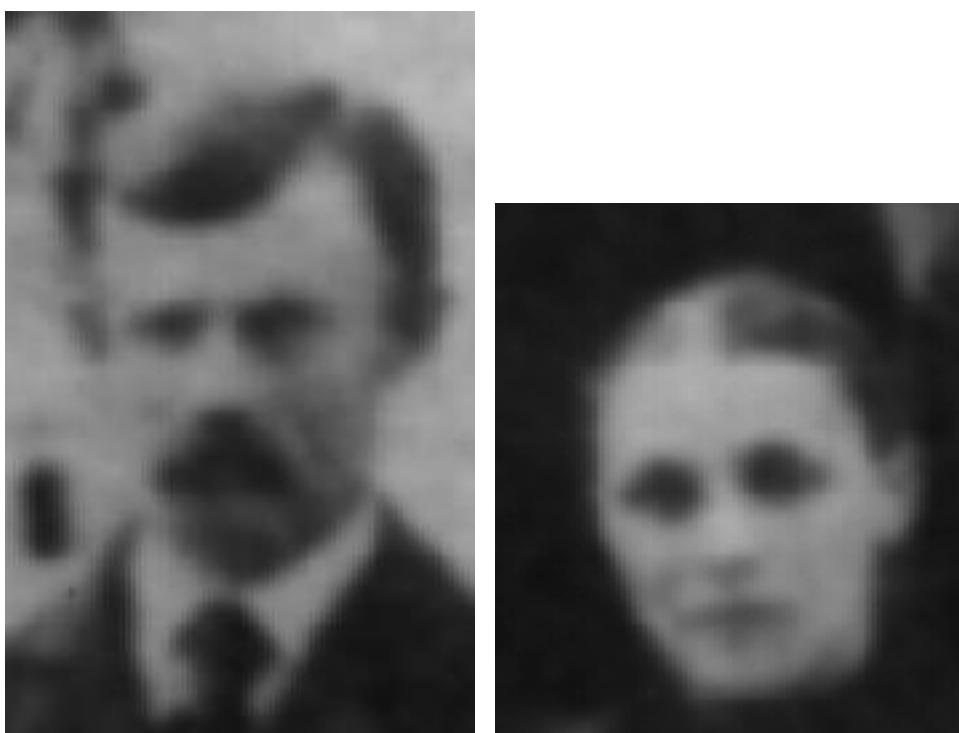

The following year he sent one hundred dollars to his wife, to make it possible for his wife, their daughter Anna Catharine and his wife's parents to come to America too. They went to house-keeping on the Emanuel Erkley farm in Summit Township, near what is now known as Meyersdale, Pennsylvania, which was then a place of less than a dozen houses.

They were listed among the original members of the Amity Reformed Church, Meyersdale, where Mr. Werner served as Deacon, Elder, Trustee, and otherwise when called upon for 39 years.

In 1865 he purchased a farm, where he raised his family of six girls and four boys. One girl died in infancy on March 24, 1876. Six days later his wife Elizabeth died.

Mr. Werner was in charge of a crew of workmen on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad when it was laid through Meyersdale in the early 70's where he earned the money to pay off his farm.

In 1890 he married Minnie Markel. They had no children, but lived in great contentment until his death in February 1, 1899. His wife Minnie died in 1930. He and his two wives are buried in the Reformed Church Cemetery, Meyersdale".

died Oct. 13, 1986 71b,135,257,
Clara Belle Dietle, born June 5, 1901 2,12b,131a,242,256, died Dec. 3, 1974 2,12b,242,256, and

All of the above-named children except Mary Elizabeth Dietle are also listed in the family tree which Grandpa helped me make circa 1968 <sup>3</sup>. Mary Elizabeth is buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery <sup>57</sup>.

The Somerset Co. deed index <sup>95</sup> lists the following real estate transactions which involved Adam and/or Susan:

Grantor John Dietle to Grantee Adam Dietle on Dec. 13, 1897 in Greenville Twp.
Grantor Jacob Steinle to Grantee Adam Dietle on July 2, 1894 in Greenville
Grantor Adam & Susan Dietle to Grantee H. J. Ebbecka on Dec. 9, 1889 in Meyersdale
Grantor Adam & Susan Deitle to Grantee al Benford Tille on Jan. 27, 1890 in Meyersdale
Grantor Adam Dietle to Grantee ux William Dietle on April 26, 1898 in Greenville
Grantor Susan Dietle to Grantee al H.C. & John Werner on Jan. 17, 1901
Grantor Adam Dietle to Grantee ux Irvin H. Dietle on April 9, 1927 in Larimer Twp.
Grantor Adam Dietle to Grantee ux Alma C. Dietle on April 9, 1927 in Larimer Twp.
Grantor Adam Dietle to Grantee ux Lloyd M. Dietle on Nov. 8, 1927 in Greenville Twp.
Grantor Adam Dietle to Grantee ux Anna M. Dietle on Nov. 8, 1927 in Greenville Twp.
Grantor Susan Dietle to Grantee Simon & Ruth Deitle on Dec. 30, 1931 in Greenville

The 1900 census <sup>25</sup> shows the family of Adam Deitle (sic) along with two hired hands; this information is abstracted as follows:

Head of Family: Deitle, Adam, white, born August 1859, age 45,
Birthplace: Pennsylvania, County: Somerset, M.C.D. Greenville
Twp.
Deitle, Susan, wife, b. March 1864, age 51, Birthplace: PA
Deitle, Sadie, dau, b. Mar. 1890, age 10, Birthplace: PA
Deitle, John, son, b. April 1892, age 8, Birthplace: PA
Deitle, Harry, son, b. June 1894, age 5, Birthplace: PA
Deitle, Simon, son, b. Nov. 1896, age 3, Birthplace: PA
Deitle, Irvin, son, b. April 1899, age 1, Birthplace: PA
Crissinger, Wm., Se, b. July 1884, age 15, Birthplace: PA
Stouby, Henry, Se, b. Mar. 1857, age 42, Birthplace: Germany

The 1910 census from Greenville Twp. <sup>51</sup> gives Adam's surname spelling as "Dietle" and lists all of his children as still living at his home, and indicates that Adam was a farmer and owned his farm free and clear. The 1910 census indicates that the parents of Adam's wife Susan were both born in Germany, but it erroneously (we believe) lists Adam's parents as having been born in PA <sup>51</sup>.

By the time of the 1920 census (Greenville Twp.), only Irvin, Clara and Lloyd are listed as living at home; Irvin as a public school teacher and Lloyd as a farmer <sup>54</sup>. The 1920 census indicates that Adam and Susan

* The book Tombstone Inscriptions, Cemeteries of Somerset County, Pennsylvania<sup>57</sup> indicates that the date of death of Mary Elizabeth was March 26, 1886 at the age of 8 months, 21 days; this disagrees with the other birth and death information that we have, and may be a typographical error.

were born in PA, that Adam's father was born in Bavaria and his mother was born in Germany, and that Susan's parents were born in Germany<sup>54</sup>.

This is an old photo of the farm house of Adam Dietle. The house still looked much the same in 1993, but by then it did have an addition on the right hand side.

This postcard style photo (which I have enlarged at right) was handed down to one of Nicholas Dieddle's descendants who wishes to remain anonymous. The photo is labeled "Adam Deitle", but we are not sure if it is the original immigrant or his grandson, our G-Grandfather. The face has obvious similarities to the face of our G-Grandfather which is shown on page 2.

Chapter 7

Descendants of Adam Dietle & Susan (Werner) Dietle

Sadie Naomi Dietle

Dad recalls that before Ralph Steinley got married (and possibly after) he worked on Grandpa Irvin H. Dietle's farm in the springtime (before the boys got out of school for the summer) to help with the spring plowing and getting the fields ready to plant<sup>135</sup>. Dad also remembers that when Grandpa Irvin H. Dietle traded in his 1936 Chevy for a new 1940 Chevy, Ralph bought the 1936 Chevy from the dealership<sup>135</sup>. In his mother's obituary, Ralph's residence was given as Meyersdale RD 3<sup>270</sup>. Ralph and Lenora had the following children:

a son born and died July 27<sup>2,71a</sup>, 1947<sup>2,71a,315</sup>.

Rosella Steinly, daughter of Millard Steinly and Sadie Naomi (Dietle) Steinly, married James Bittner<sup>2,12b,71a,465</sup>. In her mother's obituary, her residence was given as Sand Patch<sup>270</sup>, which is in Larimer Twp. James worked for the state, and before that at a sand pit<sup>465</sup>. He also had a farm<sup>465</sup>. James died on May 5, 1974<sup>71b</sup>. Several years after James died, Rosella married Lewis<sup>23,438,465</sup> Eli<sup>438</sup> Shockey<sup>23,438,465</sup> Sr.<sup>438</sup>, who worked on the railroad<sup>23</sup>. Lewis was born in 1905 and died in 1993<sup>432</sup>. James and Rosella are buried at the Hostetler Church of the Bretheren<sup>462</sup>. James and Rosella had the following children:

Paul James Bittner, son of James Bittner and Rosella (Steinly) Bittner, married Iva Lou Smith<sup>2,12b,131b</sup>, and had the following children:

Mark Allen Bittner, born Oct. 5, 1957,
Dwayne Keith Bittner, born July 15, 1961,
Lori Ann Bittner, born May 3, 1963.

Doris Marie Bittner, daughter of James Bittner and Rosella (Steinly) Bittner, married Daniel Elliot<sup>2, 12b,71a</sup>. They reportedly had no children<sup>465</sup>.

Marian Marie Jackson, daughter of Lawrence Jackson and Velma (Steinly) Jackson, married David<sup>2,12b,247</sup> Corliss<sup>247</sup> Sutton<sup>2,12b,12b,247</sup>, son of Mr. & Mrs. William E. Sutton, Sr. of Keysor, West Virginia<sup>247</sup>. Marian and David were married on Oct. 14, 19__ at the Hostetler Church of the Brethren<sup>247</sup>. Marion graduated from the Meyersdale Joint High School in 1958, and later graduated from the Cumberland Memorial School of Nursing<sup>247</sup>. David graduated from the Fort Ashby High School, and served 4 years in the U.S. Air Force<sup>247</sup>. He was employed by the Western Maryland Railroad at the time of their marriage<sup>247</sup>. Marian's father reported in 1996 that Marian is employed as a visiting Nurse out of Cumberland, and David works at the West Vaco paper mill<sup>465</sup>. The newspaper announcement of their wedding indicated that they planned to reside in Cumberland<sup>247</sup>. Marian and David had the following children:

David Lawrence Jackson, son of Lawrence Jackson and Velma (Steinly) Jackson, married Linda<sup>2,12b</sup> or Lynda<sup>71a</sup> Baker. David Lawrence Jackson is (1996) the present owner of the old Dietle farm which was once the residence of Adam Dietle and his wife Susan (Werner) Dietle<sup>135,462</sup>. After Adam, the farm went to Lloyd Dietle<sup>465</sup>. When Lloyd died, the farm went to John and Bertha Dietle, then Lawrence Jackson, then David Jackson<sup>465</sup>. David reports that the old foundation on his place was that of an old log cabin or house that he had to take down because of it's poor condition<sup>462</sup>. Neither he nor his father know the history of the log house or cabin<sup>462,465</sup>. David and Linda had the following children:

Shayla Jackson.

John Milton Dietle

John worked some in timber, enjoyed hunting, and was a member of the Greenville Lutheran Church<sup>53</sup>. The 1920 census lists him as a Farmer living in Greenville Twp with his wife Bertha and son Carl (sic) and daughter Dorothy<sup>54</sup>. The census indicates he owned his farm free and clear in 1920<sup>54</sup>. His address was R.F.D. #1, Sand Patch, PA in 1927<sup>394</sup>.

** Ref. 71a incorrectly gives this name as Dwayne. According to his father, it is spelled Duane<sup>462</sup>.

* Bertha Steinley is a distant cousin of ours through the common ancestor Owen Beal on our mother's side. Bertha's ancestry may be traced using Ref. 2, 12b, 35, 62, 91, 101,131a and 268.

Dad recalls that John was a jolly sort, always joking, and that John and his brother Irvin liked to kid each other. Some time after Irvin and John had aged enough to require glasses, John also had to get false teeth and was having a rough time with them. Irvin kidded him by saying it wasn't so bad for someone to have to get glasses, but when you had to have glasses and false teeth, well, that was pretty bad! Of course, eventually Grandpa had to get false teeth too. John told a funny story about driving home after getting his first pair of bi-focals, saying he saw two bridges instead of one, and didn't know which one to take.

Bertha was born on April 11, 1892<sup>249,268</sup> in Greenville Twp.<sup>268</sup> and died on Dec. 7, 1969 <sup>71b,132,249</sup> in Mt. Holly, NJ<sup>268</sup>. She is buried at the Greenville Cemetery<sup>249,268</sup>. John and Bertha had a big farm down the road from the farm once owned by John's father Adam, then later by John's brother Lloyd<sup>465</sup>. This farm did border at least partially on his father's farm<sup>465</sup>. After Lloyd died, John and Bertha got the farm, and eventually sold it to Lawrence Jackson<sup>465</sup>. John died intestate<sup>335</sup>. John and Bertha had the following children:

Dorthy Dietle, daughter of John Dietle and Bertha (Steinley) Dietle, married the Rev. Ralph<sup>2,53,131a,262</sup> I.<sup>262</sup> Shockey <sup>2,53,131a,262</sup>, who was a Lutheran minister <sup>53</sup>. They were married at the Greenville Lutheran Church on Easter Sunday, April 9, 1915<sup>315</sup>. Ralph was born in 1915<sup>315</sup>. His parents were Mr. & Mrs. Irvin Shockey of Meyersdale<sup>262</sup>. Ralph graduated from the Meyersdale High School in 1932, and in 1936 received an A.B. from Susquehanna University<sup>262</sup>. Their wedding announcement stated that Ralph was scheduled to graduate from the Lutheran Theological Cemetery in Gettysburg in the month following the wedding<sup>262</sup>. In 1938 Dorothy graduated from the Lutheran Deaconess Training School with special classes in Christian Service<sup>262</sup>.

Ralph's first charge was at Winber, PA <sup>135</sup>. Dorothy and Ralph eventually went to live in the New Jersey area <sup>53</sup>. In Grandma Dietle's notebook, his address was listed as Moorestown, NJ <sup>132</sup>, and in Dorothy's mother's 1969 obituary, Dorothy's residence was also given as Moorestown<sup>268</sup>. Grandpa Dietle always thought very highly of Ralph Shockey, and named one of his own sons Ralph in his honor <sup>135</sup>. Dad recalls that Ralph once owned a 1949 Buick Road Master; this was a large luxury car, and left a lasting impression with dad<sup>135</sup>. Dorothy and Ralph had the following children <sup>12b</sup>:

The Somerset Co. deed index <sup>95</sup> lists a real estate transaction between Grantor John M. Dietle and Grantees Karl F. & Anna Catherine Dietle in Greenville Twp. on Nov. 20, 1940.

Karl was a Farmer <sup>53</sup>. He sold his farm sometime in middle age and went to New Jersey to work on a large farm there <sup>53</sup>. Grandma Dietle's notebook gives their address as Riverton, NJ <sup>132</sup>. Karl was not listed as a survivor in his mother's 1969 obituary. Karl and Catherine had the following children <sup>2,12b,71a</sup>:

Mary Ann Dietle, born Oct. 10, 1941,
Nancy Dietle, born Oct. 2, 1942, and Sally Dietle, born Nov. 16, 1948.

Mary Ann Dietle, daughter of Karl Dietle and Catharine (Seigner) Dietle, married William Beck <sup>2,12b,71a</sup>. They had the following children:

Hubert A. Dietle, son of John Dietle and Bertha (Steinley) Dietle, died at a young age **. Hubert, his brother Karl, and his sister Dorthy all attended the Spruce Dale School in 1930, along with Alberta Meese<sup>349</sup>, daughter of Emma Dietle and Reid Meese. The teacher that year was Emma (McKenzie) Murray<sup>349</sup>. A Spruce Dale school photo from 1930 shows 21 children of all ages, including Hubert<sup>349</sup>.

Harry Dietle

Harry Dietle, son of Adam Dietle and Susan (Werner) Dietle, was engaged to be married <sup>24</sup> at the time of his untimely death at age 32 <sup>77,297</sup>. He was a farmer, and died on Nov. 5, 1926<sup>12b,57</sup> in a horrible accident at a sawmill which he and his brother Irvin owned <sup>53</sup>. Their business was known as the Dietle Bros. Lumber Company <sup>77,297</sup>. They had recently finished sawing at what was known as the Ephriam Geiger farm <sup>77,297</sup> which Harry owned<sup>341</sup>, and had moved the steam driven mill to the Joseph Bittner tract<sup>297</sup>. Harry was working in the pit under the mill at about 5:30 PM on a Friday, and was apparently drawn into the revolving saw blade by the “drag” which carried the sawdust to the sawdust pile <sup>77,297</sup>. He was in the pit to apply grease and oil, and the accident split his head in two<sup>297</sup>. He was a member of the Church of the Brethren at the time of his death <sup>77,297</sup>. He is buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery <sup>46,57,77,297</sup>. The funeral services were conducted by The Rev. Samuel Sigler of Salisbury and the Rev. T. Rodney Coffman of Meyersdale <sup>77</sup>. John and Irvin Deitle were the administrators of Harry’s estate<sup>388</sup>. Total cost of the funeral was $495.75<sup>388</sup>. The appraised value of Harry’s estate was $2,600 for real estate and $2189.27 personal property, less debts of $2802.62<sup>394</sup>.

Harry Dietle

In 1920 Harry was living at the farm of Mary Geiger in Larimer Twp. <sup>48</sup>. On June 19, 1920 Harry bought the following items from Mary Geiger for $800: 2 horses, 3 cows, 3 hogs, lot of chickens, 1 mowing machine, plows, harrows, wagons, cream separator, and farm implements and tools<sup>338</sup>. He eventually bought the farm from her for $2,500.00<sup>341</sup>. She conveyed the property to him in a deed dated January 7, 1925<sup>200,341</sup> which let her use the house jointly with Harry as long as she lived<sup>341</sup>. This deed is recorded in the Somerset Record Book of Deeds, Vol. 263, page 571<sup>200</sup>. The text of the deed, which lists several previous owners, is included in Appendix B. The deed transferred a 98 acre+ tract and a 12 acre+ tract. This farm (The Ephriam Geiger farm) eventually became the home of our Grandfather Irvin H. Dietle.

Simon Albert Dietle

Simon Albert Dietle, son of Adam Dietle and Susan (Werner) Dietle, married Ruth<sup>2,50</sup> Ada<sup>50</sup> Arklie<sup>2,50</sup>, who was born on Dec. 3, 1897<sup>50</sup> and died on May 24, 1945<sup>2,12b,71a</sup> or May 25, 1945<sup>187</sup>. Ruth's father Eugene<sup>50</sup> "Gene"<sup>177</sup> Arklie<sup>50</sup> was born in 1873 and died in 1948, and her mother Magie (sic) Cline was born in 1874 and died in 1932<sup>50</sup>. Simon was a Farmer<sup>50,53</sup>, and later in life he worked at a sawmill in Meyersdale<sup>187</sup>. Simon was also a member of the Greenville Lutheran Church<sup>53</sup>. Simon and Ruth's daughter Catherine remembers them as hard working, and good parents<sup>136</sup>. Dad recalls Simon as a likable fellow who liked to hunt<sup>53</sup>. A number of Dietle family members went hunting together with Simon, including (in different combinations) Sylvester, Dad, Bud, June, John, Karl, and Grandpap<sup>53</sup>. Dad also recalls that Simon was very good at playing the violin, and liked what would now be called Country-Western music<sup>135</sup>. Simon's daughter Ada recalls that Simon frequently played the violin<sup>187</sup>. This love of music has been noted in 3 subsequent generations.

Simon and Ruth lived between Greenville and Sand Patch<sup>53</sup>, about 8 miles away from Grandpa Irvin H. Dietle<sup>23</sup>, and often came to visit Grandpa's home when our father Roy Dietle was still a youth<sup>23</sup>. Simon's daughter Ada recalls that visiting the homes of their Uncles was one of the things that they did for pleasure after church on Sundays<sup>187</sup>. They alternated, going to Uncle Irv's one week, Uncle John's the next, and so forth. Ada also recalls that farming took a lot of their time, and didn't leave a lot of time for recreation<sup>187</sup>.

She said "We got up with the chickens, and went to bed with the chickens"<sup>187</sup>. There weren't a lot of modern day conveniences on the farm either. Ada recalls that when she was growing up, they had no electricity, no indoor plumbing, and no running water<sup>187</sup>.

Simon Dietle & his wife Ruth (Arkle) Dietle

Grantor Simon Dietle to Grantee Clarence A. Obringer on May 1, 1946 in Greenville, and Grantor Simon A. Dietle to Grantee ux Susan Dietle on Dec. 30, 1931 in Greenville Twp.

Clarence Obringer was from Pittsburgh, and lived back on the neighboring farm<sup>187</sup>, and was no relation to the family<sup>187</sup>.

Simon and Ruth had the following children:

Catherine 50,291,335 or Catharine 2,131a Susan <sup>136</sup> Dietle 2,50,335, born Feb. 42,12b,71a, 1918
Sylvester<sup>2,12b,71a,260,295</sup> S.<sup>295</sup> Dietle<sup>2,12b,71a,260,295</sup>, born May 19, 1919 2,12b,71a,260,295, died July 10, 1970 71b,260,295,
Ada<sup>137,335</sup> Ruth<sup>137</sup> Dietle 2,137,335, born Feb. 8, 1932 2,12b,71a,137 in PA<sup>187</sup>.

Catherine Susan Dietle, daughter of Simon Dietle and Ruth (Arkle) Dietle, married Harvey<sup>2,12b,131a,136</sup> E.<sup>317</sup> Deal 2,12b,131a,136, son of John M. Deal and Alice (Garlitz) Deal <sup>136</sup>. Catherine and Harvey farmed <sup>53</sup>. Harvey was also a State Highway Worker <sup>136</sup>, and Catherine was a Homemaker<sup>187</sup>. Harvey was born in 1911<sup>317</sup> and died on Sept. 18<sup>1a,132</sup>, 1959 71a,132,317. Catherine recalls him as a very good husband and father <sup>136</sup>. Catherine was living near Meyersdale in 1994 <sup>136</sup>, and had a Meyersdale RD address in 1970<sup>295</sup>. Catherine and Harvey had the following children:

Larry Deal, born Sept. 24, 1949 2,12b,71a,
Brenda Deal, born Sept. 17, 1952 2,12b,71a,132, and Wanda Kay Deal, born Nov. 22, 1956 and died June 12, 1962 2,12b,71a,131b,317 of Leukemia<sup>187</sup>.

Craig Matthew Ringler, and Christian Mark Ringler.

Sylvester Dietle, son of Simon Dietle and Ruth (Arkle) Dietle, married Elizabeth S. Sipple<sup>79</sup>, who was known as "Betty"<sup>2,12b,71a</sup>. Betty was the daughter of Harold Sipple and Mary (Fike) Sipple, and was born in Meyersdale on July 26, 1920<sup>79</sup>. Sylvester died at home<sup>295</sup> on July 10, 1970<sup>132,260,295</sup> after 6 years of ill health<sup>295</sup>, and is buried in the Meyersdale<sup>187</sup> Union Cemetery<sup>187,260,295</sup>. Betty, who was a member of the Amity United Church of Christ of Meyersdale, died at age 69 on May 30, 1990 at the Johnstown Memorial Hospital<sup>79</sup>. Both Sylvester<sup>294</sup> and Betty<sup>79</sup> were living at Meyersdale RD #4 at the time of her death. The Rev. Carl Mitchell conducted her funeral service, and she is buried in the Union Cemetery, Meyersdale<sup>79</sup>. Sylvester farmed all of his life, and was exempted from military service in WW-II due to his occupation<sup>187</sup>. His obituary noted that he was formerly a Deacon at the Amity United Church of Christ, and formerly a member of the Lions Club<sup>295</sup>.

Faye Diane Dietle, daughter of Sylvester Dietle and Betty (Sipple) Dietle, had a Meyersdale rural route address in 1990<sup>79</sup>. She is (1994) a nurse in Meyersdale<sup>187</sup>.

* Reference 71a incorrectly attributes four children to Sylvester and Betty by inadvertently giving the names of two of Bruce Dietle's children. Sylvester's sister Ada has confirmed that Sylvester only had two children, Linda and Faye<sup>187</sup>.

Bruce Dietle, son of Simon Dietle, in 1990.

Bruce Dietle, son of Simon Dietle and Ruth (Arkie) Dietle, was a close friend of our Uncle "Bud" Dietle at one time<sup>23</sup>. Dad recalls that Bruce was an energetic and entertaining talker; the type of person who is the life of the party<sup>135</sup>.

Bruce was in the Armed forces in WW-II<sup>23,187</sup>. At least part of his military service involved the use of gliders<sup>23</sup>. He went into the service with the 17th Airborne in 1942, and was discharged from the 82nd Airborne Troopers in 1946<sup>50</sup>. He was still in Germany when his mother died, and was not able to come home for the funeral<sup>187</sup>.

Dad recalls that at one time Bruce owned his own business, and did back hoe and bulldozer work<sup>53</sup>. Bruce married Susan<sup>2,50,131a,315</sup> F.<sup>315</sup> Belcher<sup>2,50,131a</sup>, who was the daughter of Frank Belcher and his wife Elizabeth (Bisbing) Belcher<sup>164</sup>. Susan was born on November 12, 1927<sup>50,164,315</sup> and died Oct. 10, 1990<sup>71b,164,315</sup>. She is buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>315</sup>. Joyce Hertsch reports that Bruce enjoys country-western dancing, and participates in it frequently<sup>137</sup>. Joyce recalls that Susan lived her life for her children, and also enjoyed the outdoors, working with her plants and flowers<sup>137</sup>. Susan's son Daryl also recalls Susan's love of flower gardening and recalls that she also had an interest in hummingbirds, and enjoyed feeding and observing them<sup>177</sup>. Susan also worked summers at a fruit and vegetable stand that was near their home<sup>177</sup>. Bruce and Susan had the following children<sup>12b,50</sup>:

Daryl Dietle, son of Bruce Dietle and Susan (Belcher) Dietle, married Beverly<sup>177</sup> Jane<sup>50,177</sup> Miller<sup>50,177</sup>. Jane, who was born July 10, 1952 in Baltimore, MD is the daughter of Desmond Dean Miller and Elizabeth Jane (Sellers) Miller<sup>177</sup>. Before their children were born, Jane worked at a bank, but now (1994) she is a Housewife, and is home-schooling her children<sup>177</sup>. Daryl runs heavy equipment<sup>177</sup> in a landfill<sup>137,177</sup> for Baltimore County<sup>177</sup>. He and his wife are members of the Jehovah's Witness Church<sup>137</sup>. They live on Jane's Grandfather's farm in the country, near Kingsville, MD, which borders a State Park<sup>177</sup>. Their residence is fairly close to Daryl's father's home, and about 20 miles north of Baltimore<sup>177</sup>. Daryl was in the Army, and was stationed in Augsburg, Germany in 1968<sup>177</sup>.

Daryl's main interest is music<sup>177</sup>. He plays fiddle and guitar, and has his Grandfather Simon's fiddle<sup>177</sup>. He likes bluegrass and country music, and plays at the Deer Creek Fiddler's Convention<sup>177</sup>. Both of his children like music too<sup>177</sup>. Daryl also likes landscaping, fishing, and riding a Honda "4-wheeler" all terrain vehicle off-road. He operates a part-time business with a dump truck and front-end loader, and sells topsoil, mulch and firewood. His wife Jane enjoys photography, flower gardening, hummingbirds, and travel.

Travis Dietle, son of Daryl Dietle and Jane (Miller) Dietle, is (1994) taking piano lessons, and his father is teaching the guitar to him<sup>177</sup>. He is (1994) in the third grade, and loves country music and singing Garth Brooks songs. He likes riding a Susuki “4-wheeler” off-road, and also enjoys swimming, bicycling, roller blading, bass fishing, baseball, gymnastics, and other sports.

Kelsey Dietle, daughter of Daryl Dietle and Jane (Miller) Dietle, is (1994) taking music lessons<sup>177</sup>. She likes country music, particularly Reba McIntire and Dolly Parton<sup>177</sup>. She (1994) enjoys roller blading, bicycling, and swimming, and has fun with makeup and pierced ear-rings<sup>177</sup>.

Marlin Dietle, son of Bruce Dietle and Susan (Belcher) Dietle, married Darlene Dowell and had a son named Brian Dale Dietle<sup>50</sup>. Marlin is (1994) presently living in Bradshaw, MD<sup>137</sup>, and is an Auto Mechanic<sup>137,187</sup>.

Ada Ruth Dietle, daughter of Simon Dietle and Ruth (Arkle) Dietle, married John Goodwin*<sup>2,137</sup>, and according to Dad, was living near Baltimore, MD<sup>53</sup> in 1993. Grandma Dietle’s address book gave their address as Perry Hall, MD<sup>53</sup>. They were still residing in Perry Hall in 1994<sup>187</sup>. Ada Ruth’s name is based upon her mother’s name Ruth Ada, but she is also named after a town in Kansas named Ada, where relatives reportedly still live<sup>137</sup>.

Before she was married, Ada moved to MD to seek employment because there wasn’t much work around home in PA<sup>137</sup>. When she first moved to MD, she worked for a box and container factory<sup>137</sup>. Most of her working career has been with box and container factories, but she also worked as a Waitress when she was first married<sup>137</sup>. According to her daughter Joyce, some of Ada’s hobbies are following the horoscopes and the daily lottery<sup>137</sup>. When I interviewed Ada in the spring of 1994, she reported that she had just retired from MacMillan and Bloedell, a corrugated box company<sup>187</sup>.

John Goodwin, the son of John and Teresa Goodwin<sup>187</sup>, was born on October 14, 1928<sup>137</sup>. He was the only son in a family of 8 sisters, and had to help support the family after his father died when he was in the second grade. John worked in the Esskay Butcher Plant as a Butcher, and also worked as a Mechanic in a gas station in Hollandtown<sup>137</sup>. His working career ended when he was about age 40/42 when he was badly crushed in a near fatal automobile accident<sup>137</sup>. He likes to work with his hands mechanically, and presently (1994) does small engine repair on lawn mowers, roto-tillers, etc.

Irvin Henry Dietle

Irvin Henry Dietle is our direct ancestor, and will be discussed in a separate chapter.

Clara Belle Dietle

Clara Belle Dietle, daughter of Adam Dietle and Susan (Werner) Dietle, married Harvey<sup>2,72</sup> "Harve"<sup>23</sup> Alfred<sup>72</sup> Geiger<sup>2,72</sup>, who was born on Dec. 26, 1897<sup>72</sup> and died Oct. 21, 1981<sup>72</sup>. Harvey was the son of Ezra Geiger and his wife Martha (Lowry) Geiger, and is related to our mother and Lerene Viola (Geiger) Murray through the Geiger family. Ezra and Martha are buried in the cemetery of the White Oak Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church<sup>312</sup>.

Our father recalls that Clara Belle was a very quiet person<sup>53</sup>, as does Clara's son Harvey Geiger, Jr.<sup>106</sup>. Harvey, on the other hand, was talkative by nature<sup>106</sup>. Clara and Harvey lived and farmed near Wittenburg, and attended the White Oak Lutheran Church<sup>53</sup>. Harvey did a lot of huckstering<sup>53</sup>. Every Friday he had his route, selling butter, eggs, meat and produce<sup>53</sup>. Clara collected beautiful glassware, dishes, etc<sup>70</sup>. According to Grandma Dietle's notebook, Clara broke her leg or hip on Sept. 4, 1971<sup>132</sup>. She is buried at the White Oak Cemetery<sup>242,256</sup>. In her father's 1930 obituary, Clara was residing at Corriganville, MD, and in her mother's 1932 obituary, Clara was also said to be living in Maryland<sup>267</sup>. Clara and Harvey had the following children:

Mark Klink.

Harvey Geiger, Jr., son of Harvey Geiger and Clara Belle (Dietle) Geiger, married Vida Yoder<sup>2,12b,71a</sup>, the daughter of Menno L. Yoder and his wife Mildred G. (Shuck) Yoder<sup>106</sup>, on June 14, 1957<sup>131b</sup>. He was residing in or near Corriganville, MD in 1993. They had the following children:

Teresa Lynn Geiger, born Oct. 9, 1958<sup>2,12b,131b</sup> or Sept. __ 1958<sup>71a</sup>,

Teresa Lynn Geiger, daughter of Harvey Geiger, Jr. and Vida (Yoder) Geiger, married Donald Waldo<sup>106</sup>. They have the following children<sup>106</sup>:

Jarett N. Waldo, born July 18, 1989, and

Rachelle N. Geiger, born March 3, 1987, and Greg A. Geiger, born Feb. 13, 1989.

Linda Rae Geiger, daughter of Harvey Geiger, Jr. and Vida (Yoder) Geiger, married Duane Miller<sup>106</sup>. They have a daughter Jessica L. Miller who was born on Feb. 5, 1991<sup>106</sup>.

Lloyd Mahlon Dietle

Lloyd Mahlon Dietle, son of Adam Dietle and Susan (Werner) Dietle, married Annie Mildred Miller (a sister of Alma Catharine (Miller) Dietle) on October 9, 1927<sup>9,14</sup>. Annie Mildred Miller was born on October 2<sup>9,14,132</sup>, 1906<sup>9,14,132,315</sup>. She is known as Mildred<sup>2</sup>. Lloyd and Mildred farmed in Greenville Township, Somerset Co.<sup>9</sup> on his father Adam's farm<sup>53</sup>. They had a daughter Agnes Marie Dietle who was born on April 24, 1930<sup>9,14,315</sup> or March 24, 1930<sup>2,71a</sup> and died on March 7, 1936<sup>14</sup> or March 9, 1936<sup>2,9,71a,315</sup> of appendicitis<sup>9</sup>. Lloyd died intestate<sup>335</sup> of pneumonia<sup>9</sup> on November 11<sup>9</sup>, 1931<sup>9,315</sup> and buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>46,57,315</sup>. Agnes Marie is also buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery<sup>315</sup>.

In an oral interview, our father Roy Dietle recalled that after Lloyd's father Adam Dietle died, Lloyd ran Adam's farm<sup>49</sup>. After Lloyd died, John Dietle owned the farm, and eventually sold it to Lawrence Jackson and Velma (Steinly) Jackson<sup>49</sup>. (Velma, who was the daughter of Sadie (Dietle) Steinly, was John's niece<sup>49</sup>.) In 1993 the farm was being run by Lawrence's son David Jackson<sup>49</sup> as a dairy farming operation<sup>70</sup>.

The Somerset C. Deed Index<sup>95</sup> shows that a piece of ground in Greenville Twp. changed hands between Grantor Adam Dietle and Grantees Lloyd and Anna M. Dietle on Nov. 8, 1927, shortly after Lloyd and Mildred's marriage. This was evidently the sale of Adam's home place. The Somerset C. Deed Index<sup>95</sup> also shows a transaction in Greenville Twp. on Dec. 16, 1931 (shortly after Lloyd's death) between Grantor Anna M. Dietle and Grantees John M. and Bertha N. Dietle. Another transaction between Grantor Lloyd M. Dietle and Grantees John M. and Bertha N. Dietle occurred in Greenville Twp. on Oct. 5, 1926.

Mildred spent most of her lifetime living in Greenville Twp. except for a short time when she lived with her sister and brother-in-law Vaughn and Maggie Williams of Everett PA, which is in Bedford County<sup>64</sup>. During this time her little girl Agnes Marie became ill with appendicitis and passed away in the Bedford Memorial Hospital<sup>64</sup>. After this, Mildred came home and lived with her parents on the Harvey Miller farm<sup>64</sup> east of Pocahontas on the Finzel road<sup>307</sup>. Later she worked and retired from the Meyersdale shirt factory, and eventually built a home on a portion of her father's farm where she was living in 1993<sup>64</sup>. She was living in this home already by 1963, because it was mentioned in a Miller genealogy printed in that year<sup>9</sup> which also mentioned that she was working for the Meyersdale Manufacturing Co.. She moved into a nursing home in 1995, and her household, which contained some of her parent's furniture, was auctioned off in the summer of 1995.

Grandparents Irvin H. Dietle & Alma C. (Miller) Dietle

Grandfather Irvin Henry Dietle, son of Adam Dietle and Susan (Werner) Dietle, was born on April 6, 1899<sup>1,14,73,83,122,252,257</sup> in Greenville Twp.<sup>73,83,252,257</sup> and died at age 87<sup>83,257</sup> on Oct. 13, 1986<sup>1,122,257</sup> in Summit Twp.<sup>135</sup> at his son Ralph's home. He was known as "Grandpa" or "Grandpap" Dietle to me. His wife was Alma Catharine Miller*, eldest daughter of Harvey Miller (b. Sept. 21, 1873<sup>9,14,35,132,281,372</sup>, d. June 8, 1957<sup>9,14,281</sup>) and his wife Belinda (Baer) Miller<sup>9,14</sup> (b. May 28, 1875<sup>9,14,35,290,372</sup>). She was born on Feb. 7, 1901<sup>9,14,73,122,132,253,265</sup> in Greenville Twp.<sup>73,253</sup> and died of a stroke on Jan. 9, 1974<sup>12b,80,122,265</sup> after 49 years of marriage<sup>12b</sup>. The official cause of death was a cerebral vascular accident due to arteriosclerosis<sup>265</sup>. Irvin and Alma were married on June 15,

* The ancestry of Alma Catharine Miller can be traced using Ref. 9, 12b, 14,35, 46, 62, 63, 91, 122, 132, 158, 227b, 281, 286, 290, 308, 315, 356, 357,358, 359, and 372.

1924<sup>9,14,132</sup> at the bride's home<sup>9</sup>. They had a large ornate framed marriage certificate which hung on their bedroom wall when Dana and I were growing up. This certificate had a light blue background, white flowers with green leaves, and near the bottom a picture of Jesus within a circle.

Luther<sup>2,9,14</sup> Lloyd<sup>9,14</sup> Dietle<sup>2,9,14</sup>, born May 3, 1925<sup>2,9,14,132</sup>, died Nov. 12, 1976<sup>9,14,131a</sup>,
Julia<sup>2,9,14</sup> Lavaughn<sup>9,14</sup> Dietle<sup>2,9,14</sup>, born Oct. 13, 1926<sup>2,9,14,132</sup>,
Irvin Dietle, Jr.<sup>2,9,14,131a,257*</sup>, born May 28, 1928<sup>2,9,14,131a,132</sup>,

All of the children except Ralph were born at home; Ralph was born at Dr. Glass's Hospital<sup>325</sup>.

Like many of the Somerset County Dietle's, Grandpa was short in stature. His sons all grew up to be much taller than he was. Our father has always attributed his own height (6 ft.<sup>196</sup>) and size to the Miller blood flowing in his veins. According to dad, Grandma Dietle's family were all big people. Tradition has it that the original Miller immigrant (the father of the Peter Miller who married Elizabeth and Rebecca Gaver) was 6'6" tall and could cut and stack 6 cords of wood in a day<sup>40</sup>.

Before Grandma and Grandpa married, she worked in a confectionery store at Somerset, PA<sup>9</sup> and he taught school. He and his brother Harry also bought and ran a sawmill<sup>9,24</sup>. Harry, who was engaged to be married<sup>24</sup>, borrowed money from their father Adam to buy a farm from Ephriam and Mary (Dietle) Geiger<sup>10</sup>. (Mary was the daughter of our GG-Grandparents John Adam Dietle & Margaret (Ritter) Dietle<sup>12b</sup> and Ephriam Geiger was the brother of our Great-Grandmother Mary (Geiger) Korns.) Harry died intestate<sup>200</sup> (without a will) in an accident at the sawmill<sup>77</sup>, and his parents Adam and Susan Dietle inherited his farm and its contents<sup>200</sup>. Grandpa then sold the sawmill<sup>24</sup>. He and Grandma bought Harry's farm for $2,900.00<sup>200</sup>, borrowing $1900.00 from Adam and Susan to do so<sup>389</sup>. The terms of the loan were $200.00 annually (with a final payment of $100.00) without interest, except in the event of deferred payments, which were to bear interest at 3%<sup>389</sup>. This purchase also included the stock, farm implements, and the household furniture<sup>200</sup>. One of Grandpa's pocket notebooks indicates what he paid for the personal property, and what the value of Harry's estate was, as follows<sup>336</sup>:

The deed for their purchase of the farm was made and recorded on April 8, 1927<sup>200*</sup>. A copy of the deed is included in Appendix B. This farm of 110 acres§ was in Larimer Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania<sup>200</sup>, and was one and one half miles east of the White Oak Church<sup>238</sup>. The house was quite old, as evidenced by the simple board construction of the upstairs doors, and the simple iron latches which were used instead of door-knobs. The attic was filled with interesting antiques, such as a dovetailed rocking cradle with heart shaped cut-outs that Irvin Dietle, Jr. now owns, an ancient rope bed which I now own, and assorted German books which I presume were left there by Ephriam Geiger or a previous family. The house and barn were directly at the base of a very steep hill which was used for pasture, and the cultivated fields were at the top of the hill. The hillside pasture behind the house, like many Somerset Co. pastures, was so steep that it was often joked that the cows had to have longer legs on one side in order to keep from rolling down the hill. When I was young, I found some interesting fossils of tiny marine-like creatures lying atop the ground in that pasture. Grandpa's barn still contained a horse-drawn buggy and sleigh when he held an auction to sell the house-hold contents and left-over farm equipment after Grandma died.

When Bud and Sis were born, Grandma and Grandpa Dietle were still living in Wittinburg in a rented home<sup>135</sup>. Dad recalls hearing that not long after Sis was born, they moved to the farm in Larimer Twp.

* The Somerset Co. Deed Index <sup>95</sup> incorrectly indicates that this transaction occurred on April 9, 1927.

where he was born and raised<sup>135</sup>. The move was accomplished by going across the fields in sleds<sup>135</sup>. Dad speculates that the roads may have been blown shut by snow at the time<sup>135</sup>. The fields would have been bordered by rail fences, which could have been easily parted for passage of the sled(s)<sup>135</sup>. Dad recalls that the road from the White Oak Church down to the farm often blew shut. The neighbors would get together on Saturdays and shovel it out so that they could get into town. Grandpa often had to walk to the Witt Schoolhouse to teach due to the roads being snowed shut. He would have to leave home before daylight, so he'd take up a shotgun and away he would go, taking a shortcut through the woods. Grandpa himself made note of this in a pocket notebook he owned, as follows<sup>309</sup>:

“Winter of 1939-40 Was an old fashioned winter The ground was covered with snow from Christmas until the first of april There were plenty of drifts and our road was closed for 3 months I brought the car home on the first day of April only had it home once since before Christmas There was no plowing done untill April. I taught Witt school and walked both ends about 6 miles a day.”

The left hand portion of the church is a recent addition that was carefully made to match the original architecture.

Grandpa and Grandma Dietle attended the White Oak† Mount Carmel Lutheran Church in Somerset Co. during my lifetime, but are buried at the Greenville Lutheran Church along with many of Grandpa's

† The locality known as White Oak is located along the old Plank Road about 10 miles south of Berlin at the confluence of several country roads, and is conspicuous by the presence of 3 country churches. The area was known as White Oak at least as early as 1842, when Rev. Christian Lepley began to preach in a school house there<sup>409</sup> that was evidently made of logs<sup>74</sup>. In 1844, after preaching in the school for 2 years, Rev. Lepley organized a congregation that took the name “Mt Carmel Evangelical Lutheran Church of Larimer Township, Somerset County”<sup>409</sup>. This congregation<sup>409</sup> joined forces with the Reichards Reformed congregation in 1847 to build the original White Oak Church, which has been known in recent years as the Grace Reformed Independent Bible Church<sup>74</sup>. The first church was jointly dedicated by the Lutheran Minister Rev. Christian Lepley and the Reformed Minister Rev. William Uhl<sup>74</sup>. The Lutherans withdrew from the congregation in 1891<sup>38,409</sup> and built the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church nearby, and the Reformeds began the third church in 1900<sup>38</sup>. These churches are said to have been built near the original site of a Breastworks fort that dates back to 1755<sup>74</sup>. As a deed for a seven acre church tract at White Oak was executed on Feb. 3, 1819, which indicates the presence of some type of congregation at that early date<sup>409</sup>.

ancestors. According to a large (12" x 16"), colorfully decorated confirmation certificate† which is in Dana's possession, Grandma was confirmed as a member of the Greenville Lutheran Church on July 23, 1916<sup>59</sup>.

The reason they attended the White Oak church rather than the Greenville church was probably because it was much closer to their home in Larimer Twp.. They formally moved their membership to the White Oak Lutheran Church on March 24, 1957<sup>72,132</sup>. Grandpa and Grandma were faithful church members, and Grandpa was the Sunday School Superintendent at Mt. Carmel for many years<sup>53</sup>.

Grandpa Irvin H. Dietle was a School Teacher and Farmer<sup>53</sup>. He went to Normal school in Meyersdale, and took correspondence courses from Penn State<sup>10</sup>. He also took classes from the Southwestern State Normal School, California, PA (My Alma Mater) during the term of 1923-24<sup>378</sup>. He received his permanent teaching "standard certificate" in 1934<sup>384</sup>, after having a partial certificate from 1923 to 1932<sup>385</sup>, and a non-permanent standard certificate from 1932-1934<sup>386</sup> in the elementary curriculum<sup>385,386</sup>. He also had Teacher's Provisional Certificates for the years 1915 through 1919 which were awarded via examination; each certificate contains grades in 13 different categories<sup>387</sup>. It is interesting to note that he was only 16 years and 3 months old when he received the 1915 provisional certificate. The name on the 1917, 1918, 1919, and 1923 certificates is spelled "Deitle", while the 1915, 1916 and 1932 certificates have the spelling "Dietle".

At one time or another Grandpa taught all of his children<sup>53</sup> in school. He also taught his daughter-in-law Lerene, and Bud and Lerene's daughter Judy Dietle<sup>72</sup>. Judy had him in the fourth grade, and reported that "It was very difficult to call him Mr. Dietle instead of Grandfather"<sup>73</sup>. His daughter Julia had him for Grades 1, 2, 5 and 6, and recalls that she was afraid of him in the classroom<sup>101</sup>. His son Irvin Dietle, Jr. remembers calling him "Mr. Dietle Daddy" in school. Our father Roy E. Dietle was taught by him in Grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 in the one room Geiger school<sup>53*</sup>. Dad has joked to me that he was once first in his class because he was the only student enrolled in his grade level. I can recall waving to Grandpa as he stood outside a one room school house (probably during recess) as our family drove by on the way to visit his home. He did most of his teaching in the Geiger, Pine Grove, Wittinburg, and Wit schools, but retired from the Meyersdale Joint Schools<sup>53,237</sup> after 36<sup>318</sup> years of service<sup>83</sup> on June 6, 1962<sup>237</sup>. He was teaching 4th grade at the time of retirement<sup>373</sup>. His first teaching job was at Spruce Dale in 1917-18<sup>318</sup>, which was evidently in Greenville Twp.<sup>367</sup>. He also taught at the Pocahontas, Miller, and Somerset Twp. schools<sup>318</sup>.

† Julia (Dietle) Saylor has a smaller, plainer certificate that commemorates the same occasion; and which refers to the church as the Greenville Evangelical Lutheran Church.

* The one room Geiger school no longer exists. It was within about 3/8ths of a mile from Grandpap Irvin Dietle's driveway. Dad showed the ruins of it to me when I was in my 20's. To get there from Grandpap's house, one turned left at the end of Grandpa's driveway, turned right at the first road, and it was up the road a hundred yards or so on the right<sup>53</sup>.

As in today's society, the pay for being a Schoolteacher was not astronomical. Grandpa's contract of May, 1937 provided for a salary of $100 per month for 8 months of teaching in Larimer Twp. (less deductions for the Teacher's Retirement Fund), and had this extra provision written in: "School to be Scrubbed Not less than Three times"<sup>369</sup>. By 1959, his teaching salary was $3,100 for a 9 month term<sup>370</sup>, which is equivalent to 344.44 per month worked.

Grandpa was a very hard worker<sup>53</sup>. For example, he walked about 4 miles each way to teach at the Witt school, then still did his morning and evening milking and other farm chores<sup>53</sup>. Grandma and Grandpa also kept a garden.

His son Irvin Dietle, Jr. recalls that he was thrifty, and a respected schoolteacher in the community, and was a hard worker who farmed with very little equipment<sup>130</sup>. For many tasks he had to make do with hand equipment, such as the grain cradle, the scythe, and the fork<sup>130</sup>. He did his milking by hand, and the corn was husked by hand<sup>130</sup>. The manure was hauled to the fields with a wagon or sled and spread by hand<sup>130</sup>. The barn was filled with loose hay, which was dug out with a fork in the winter to feed the cows<sup>130</sup>. He used horses on the farm to work the ground, pull wagons, sleds, logs, etc<sup>130</sup>. Irvin Jr. also recalls that Irvin, Sr. cut firewood and mine props, and in the winter walked to school to teach<sup>130</sup>. Aside from being a good provider, Irvin, Jr. also recalls his dad as a caring father who liked to take the family for sled and wagon rides on the weekends<sup>130</sup>.

Irvin H. Dietle's daughter-in-law Lerene remembers him as a man of few, but stern words, with a shy grin<sup>72</sup>. His daughter Julia recalls that he was a very loving, but stern, father<sup>101</sup>; Dad also recalls that he was very strict when it came to disciplining his children. I recall that his manner had something of the air of a Patriarch, which of course he was to all of us. His daughter Julia recalls that he "made you realize the value of a dollar"<sup>101</sup>; a statement which I believe all of his children would endorse heartily.

Grandpa enjoyed rabbit hunting, and I have fond memories of hunting with him and my father behind an eager and talented though aged beagle named Butch. Grandad also played the violin, and could recite long verses of poetry from memory, even in his latter years. When Grandpa visited Bud and Lerene, sometimes he and Bud played the violin, while Lerene played the piano and the rest of the family gathered around the piano to sing<sup>72</sup>. Lerene remembers that "It was inspiring and a very happy time for us all" <sup>72</sup>. In a high school report that was made circa 1969, Irvin's Grand-daughter Judy Dietle wrote that some of Grandpa's favorite hobbies were "making maple syrup, hunting, and fishing"<sup>73</sup>. I recall that he and/or Ralph made maple syrup in a big black kettle.

Grandma was a quiet, kindly soft-spoken person. She kept a very clean house, and was a very good cook<sup>53,101</sup> and homemaker<sup>101</sup>. One of her traits which dad recalls is that she was very careful not to intentionally hurt other people's feelings<sup>53</sup>. Her daughter-in-law Lerene expressed this as "She was a lovely lady who never said anything bad about anyone"<sup>72</sup>. Her daughter Julia expressed the same sentiment by writing that she "never gossiped about anyone". Grandma Dietle enjoyed quilting and crocheting<sup>101</sup>, and each of her grandchildren inherited one of her quilts<sup>70</sup>. She was very loving and hard-working, and did without many things for the sake of her children<sup>101</sup>.

Irvin, Jr. remembers his mother as a caring woman, and a great homemaker<sup>130</sup>. He recalls that she was a hard worker, and went many years without electricity<sup>130</sup>. It wasn't installed until 1940<sup>24,238</sup>, at which time they had 33 lights* and 16 receptacles in the residence and outbuilding(s)<sup>238</sup>. She had to carry wood for the cook stove, then carry out the ashes<sup>130</sup>. For cooling food she used the stone spring house and her pantry. She papered all the rooms in the house, and washed clothes in the "summer house" with a gas powered washer<sup>130</sup>. She canned much of the meat, vegetables and fruit which they ate, and she also picked wild berries and canned them<sup>130</sup>. Irvin, Jr. also fondly remembers that his mother was a source of encouragement when the children were sad<sup>130</sup>.

The home of Irvin Dietle, Sr. Note the full length porch, the steep hill in back, and the "summer house" on the left. This farm house was also once the home of Ephriam Geiger.

On Dec. 1, 1969 Grandpa & Grandpa sold the farm to a land development company named The Flintlock Corporation<sup>383</sup> which was buying up adjoining property to make a Community Resort named Callimont which was incorporated as the borough of Callimont<sup>285</sup>. He sold the farm on the condition that he and Grandma could remain living in the house for as long as they wanted to<sup>382,383</sup>, and use the summer house, garage, spring house, and the land immediately surrounding the house<sup>382</sup>. They received $16,000 for the farm<sup>382</sup>. They did stay at the farm after selling it, but Grandpa eventually went to live with his son Ralph Dietle near Meyersdale after Grandma died. He released the right to live on the farm on June 7, 1974<sup>383</sup>. Grandpa remained healthy, mobile and alert up until the time of his sudden death at an advanced age. Both grandparents are buried at the Greenville Union Cemetery.

Callimont was not successful, and the property was sold to the Pennsylvania Game Commission for use as State Game Lands. The house and all of the out-buildings on Grandpa Dietle's farm were torn down by the Game Commission, but the fields were still in cultivation the last time I was there, which was in the summer of 1994. It is difficult to accept the fact that the house which held so much love is no longer there, but I appreciate the fact that the farm is now public property, and the family can go back and visit the grounds anytime.

When Grandpa bought the farm and contents from Harry's estate, it included a Pennsylvania long rifle made by the J.H. Johnston Great Western Gun Works of Pittsburgh, PA. This gun, which has a cherry half-stock, brass furniture, and an extraordinarily long (36 11/16 in.) hexagonal barrel of roughly .36 caliber, had belonged to Ephriam Geiger, who reputedly used it to kill pigs and beef<sup>11</sup>. Grandpap Dietle never fired this gun<sup>11</sup>. He kept it under a dresser in the bedroom which our family always stayed in when we visited. This rifle stimulated my curiosity as a boy. When I was yet too small to lift the rifle, Dad would get it out from under the dresser, then hold the front end while I held the stock to my shoulder. It had a very deeply curved butt-plate, and Dad always used to joke that the gun "killed at one end and crippled at the other". Dad and Mom purchased this rifle from Grandpap Dietle and gave it to me as a college graduation present. It was accompanied by the original powder horn and a two compartment leather accessory bag which was tanned with the hair on. The rifle is not in working order; in fact it is quite worn out from many years of hard use, but it still makes a nice memento of the old home place. I also have an antique cherry night-stand with dovetailed drawers which was from the same room; I bought it at the auction which Grandpap had when he moved away. I also bought a rope bed which was kept in the attic. Uncle Ralph & Aunt Marg bought Grandma's antique hutch at the auction, and use it in their kitchen. Pat and June bought the antique cradle, and dad bought a Stevens .32 rimfire rifle which at one time was used on the farm for slaughtering. Most of the household was sold at the auction; Grandpa thought that it was fairest if the children bought the items which they really wanted. A part of the contents of the sale, as recorded in Grandpa's hand, were as follows<sup>130</sup>:

Irvin H. Dietle's children and grandchildren have many fond memories of the farm, and came from far and wide to visit at Thanksgiving and Christmas-time. Thanksgiving dinner was one of my favorite events, because Grandma, her daughter, and her daughter-in-laws were all excellent cooks, and put on a memorable holiday spread. I can still taste Grandma's gravy to this very day, and can recall the sense of love and fellowship which surrounded us at the table. Often times, in lieu of, or in addition to the meal-time prayer, Grandpa would lead us in singing a hymn; a pleasant tradition which I try to uphold at Thanksgiving in my own home.

For as far back as I can remember the first Monday in December was always the opening day of buck season, which Uncle Irvin, Uncle Ralph and Dad (and eventually myself, when I became old enough) participated in religiously at Grandpa's farm. The weekend before the big day was usually taken up with small-game hunting, big-game scouting, stand selection, and checking the zero on our deer rifle sights. I recall one time after a long and tiring "Opening Day" at Grandpap's, someone asked dad "Did you see anything?" He replied, "I saw 13, but 12 got away." If I recall correctly, dad was the only one of the family who got a buck on that particular day. This was in 1969<sup>70</sup>. In the fall of 1994, dad told me that he had harvested 40 deer in his lifetime<sup>135</sup>.

Larimer Township Background Information

Deal is located at the spot where Daniel Lepley built a grist mill in 1850<sup>63,375</sup>. The mill burned down when it was only two years old<sup>63,375</sup>. It was powered by water from Flaugherty creek<sup>375</sup>. Edwin Deal rebuilt the mill<sup>63,375</sup>, and eventually the town was named after him<sup>375</sup>. Edwin Deal also had several sawmills<sup>375</sup>. Both the Western Maryland and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads came through Deal, and there was a Western Maryland station there at one time<sup>375</sup>. Wittenburg was the business center of the township before the coming of the railroads, which drew some of the business to Sand Patch<sup>63</sup>.

Sand Patch, which is in the southwest part of Larimer Township<sup>375</sup>, was founded in 1872. A building built by the Pittsburgh and Connellsille Railroad was the first to be constructed, followed shortly by a Post Office<sup>375</sup>. For many years Sand Patch was a shipping point for lumber products<sup>375</sup> and at one time Sand Patch had a store, a hotel, and a woolen factory<sup>375</sup>.

Chapter 9

Descendants of Irvin H. Dietle & Alma C. (Miller) Dietle

Luther Lloyd Dietle

Uncle Luther Lloyd Dietle, eldest son of Irvin H. Dietle and Alma C. (Miller) Dietle, was born on May 3<sup>9,14,82,331</sup>, 1925<sup>9,14,82,312,331</sup>. Luther was known by the nickname “Bud”. He was an easy going, kind individual who would do anything for anyone if he could<sup>53</sup>. He played the violin, and liked to hunt<sup>53</sup>. Uncle Bud graduated from the Meyersdale High School in 1942<sup>73</sup>. He was inducted into the U.S. Army and served in the Counter Intelligence Corps in the rank of Sergeant<sup>11</sup>. Ten months of his 18 month military hitch were spent in Italy as a Special Agent of the CIC<sup>73</sup>. Lerene recalls that he went into the service on March 29, 1946, and returned in August of 1947<sup>72</sup>. Dad recalls that Bud had the uniforms of an officer and of an enlisted man so that he could assume different roles in his investigations of black market activities<sup>135</sup>.

Bud worked for the Saylor Motor Co. as Parts Man for 18 years<sup>72,73</sup>. After that, he was the Manager of the Somerset Auto Parts store in Meyersdale for 9 years<sup>72</sup>. I went to his place of employment one time as a boy, and there saw my first paint can shaker, which was quite a spectacular contraption to an impressionable youngster. Another spectacular contraption from about the same time period (1959/62) was Bud's shiny new, bright red Dodge with gigantic tail fins; it too left a vivid impression on my young mind. When I was a youngster, Bud and Lerene lived in a well kept frame house in Meyersdale, PA. With all the care and pride they put into it's upkeep, they were understandably very upset when someone built a shabby-looking (in my opinion) car repair shop next door.

Later on, in 1975, they bought a house in Somerset, PA. After moving to Somerset, Bud was employed in the Research Department of Wheeler Brothers, Inc. up until the time he passed away in 1976. After moving to Somerset, Lerene first worked at Grants, and then later was a Receptionist and Accounts Payable Clerk for Wheeler Brothers until her retirement in 1985<sup>72</sup>. She now (1993) does volunteer work at the Somerset Court House. Her hobbies are crafts and traveling in the States, abroad, and on cruises. Bud and Lerene's children are:

Uncle Bud died of a heart condition at age 51<sup>82</sup> on November 12<sup>14,82,331</sup>, 1976<sup>14,82,312,331</sup> in the Somerset Community Hospital<sup>82</sup>. The seriousness of his condition wasn't discovered until a few days before he died, and his doctor inexplicably delayed action due to a weekend or holiday, during which time Uncle Luther passed away. He was much loved by those of us in his extended family, and it was very distressing to lose him at a relatively young age. He is buried at the White Oak Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church<sup>312</sup>. I was a pall-bearer at his funeral, where he was given a formal rifle salute by a local Army or VFW unit. He was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Somerset at the time of his death<sup>82</sup>.

On Sept. 15, 1984, eight years after Bud passed away, Lerene married the widower Bernard A. Murray<sup>72</sup>. Bernard, who is also mentioned elsewhere herein, had been married to Norma Christner (a Dietle descendant) until she passed away<sup>55</sup>. Tragically, Bernard died on April 18, 1986, not long after marrying Lerene<sup>72</sup>. He had been an employee of the B&O Railroad for 30 years<sup>72</sup>. Lerene says he was an Engineer who took his work very seriously, and his pipe smoking just as seriously<sup>72</sup>. His fellow workers admired his love for his job<sup>72</sup>. She recalls that when people saw his train go by, they would say "That's Bernard and his pipe"<sup>72</sup>. He was an accomplished card player, and one of his pleasures in life was driving nice cars<sup>72</sup>.

Lerene reports that all of her family are (1993) active members of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Somerset<sup>72</sup>. Bernard was a member of the White Oak Lutheran Church<sup>72</sup>.

Judy (Dietle) Zeigler & husband Joseph Zeigler

Judy Ann Dietle, daughter of Luther Dietle and Lerene (Geiger) Dietle, was born at the Hazel McGilvery Hospital at Meyersdale, PA<sup>73</sup>. Judy was married to Joseph Alan Zeigler<sup>14,35</sup> on Aug. 19, 1972<sup>14,35,132</sup>. Joseph, the son of Mr. & Mrs. Donald Zeigler<sup>35</sup>, was born on June 4, 1954<sup>14</sup>. Joseph was formerly (1993) a Plant Man for the Somerset Limestone, Blacktop and Concrete Co.<sup>72</sup>. He started working for the Hauger-Zeigler Funeral Home in Somerset as a Funeral Assistant on April 15, 1994<sup>72</sup>. Joseph was a member of the volunteer fire department for 12 years, and one of his hobbies is (1993) driving his black 1987 Corvette sports car<sup>72</sup>. Judy is the Billing Secretary for Dr. Debrah Baceski<sup>72</sup>. Judy and Joseph live in Somerset<sup>72</sup>, and have a daughter Jill Elaine Zeigler, who was born on Feb. 3, 1973<sup>14,132</sup>. Judy's hobbies are travel and reading<sup>72</sup>.

Jill Zeigler

Descendants of Johann Adam Dietel of 19th Century Somerset County, Pennsylvania

Jill Zeigler, daughter of Judy (Dietle) Zeigler and Joseph Zeigler, was attending Allegany Community College and working part time as a Sales Clerk at Leather Loft in 1993<sup>72</sup>. She graduated on May 15, 1994 as a certified Dental Assistant, and also has an Associate Degree in Business Administration<sup>72</sup>. She is (July 1994) living in Cumberland, MD and working in MD as a Dental Assistant for Dr. Frank Mitchell<sup>72</sup>. Her hobbies are cross-stitching and music<sup>72</sup>.

The family of Donald and Kay Albright, 1994.

Kay Colleen Dietle, daughter of Luther Dietle and Lerene (Geiger) Dietle, was married to Donald Charles Albright on June 25, 1976<sup>14</sup>. Don was born on Sept. 19, 1951<sup>14</sup>. He is (1993) the Inside Sales and Purchasing Agent for Penstan Plumbing and Heating Supply<sup>72</sup>. Kay is (1993) a Paraprofessional at the Somerset Area Schools<sup>72</sup>. Kay's hobbies are reading, walking, and trying out new recipes. Don's hobbies are hunting and walking<sup>72</sup>. Kay's sister Judy noted in a high school report that Kay had quite a sense of humor as a youth, and liked to play tricks on her<sup>73</sup>. Kay and Don have the following children:

Valerie Dawn Albright, born May 9, 1981<sup>72</sup>.

Candace is (1993) a Sophomore at the Somerset Area Senior High School. She loves to read, and does baby sitting.

Julia Lavaughn Dietle

Julia Lavaughn Dietle, the only daughter of Irvin H. Dietle and Alma C. (Miller) Dietle, was born on Oct. 13, 1926<sup>9</sup>. She is quiet and has an easy going personality<sup>53</sup>, and is known among the family by the nickname "Sis". She learned to cook quite young<sup>53</sup>, and graduated from the Meyersdale High School in May 1944<sup>236</sup>. After graduation she worked at home for $4.00 a week, with $2.00 going for room and board, which she says helped her learn the value of a dollar<sup>101</sup>. She also worked in a grocery store before she was married<sup>53</sup>.

Jerry Saylor was a World War I veteran<sup>101,274</sup> who saw action in France<sup>101</sup>, including the Marbache Sect. and Meuse-Argonne engagements<sup>239</sup>. Dad recalls hearing that Jerry was involved with using horses to draw artillery there, and also recalls fondly that Jerry took the time to write letters to him when he was in the Army<sup>135</sup>. Jerry joined Battery D, 319th Field Artillery as a Private on Oct. 6, 1917 at Rockwood, PA, and served overseas from May 19, 1918 to May 12, 1919<sup>239</sup>. He was a member of St. John's United Methodist Church<sup>274</sup>, and is buried at the Mt. Lebanon Cemetery<sup>251,274</sup> in Glencoe<sup>274</sup>.

"Sis" and Irving lived most of their adult lives on a dairy farm in Larimer Twp. (the Saylor home place which is adjacent to Grandpa Dietle's farm) and raised Jersey cows. Sis worked very hard on the farm with Irving<sup>53</sup>. There were two houses on the Saylor place. Sis and Irving lived in one house, and Irving's father Jerry Saylor lived in the other. In my opinion, Irving and Jerry had the most pleasant and interesting voices of anyone I've ever heard; no doubt Irving acquired his unique inflections from his father. The Saylor home place was atop a steep and lonely mountain, and in the wintertime the road up was subject to severe drifting. This meant that it could be something of an adventure to visit them at Christmas time, often requiring tire chains, an experienced foot on the throttle, and a firmly clenched jaw. I have memories of being driven there as a child when the snow seemed impossibly deep, but somehow we always made it up and back without mishap.

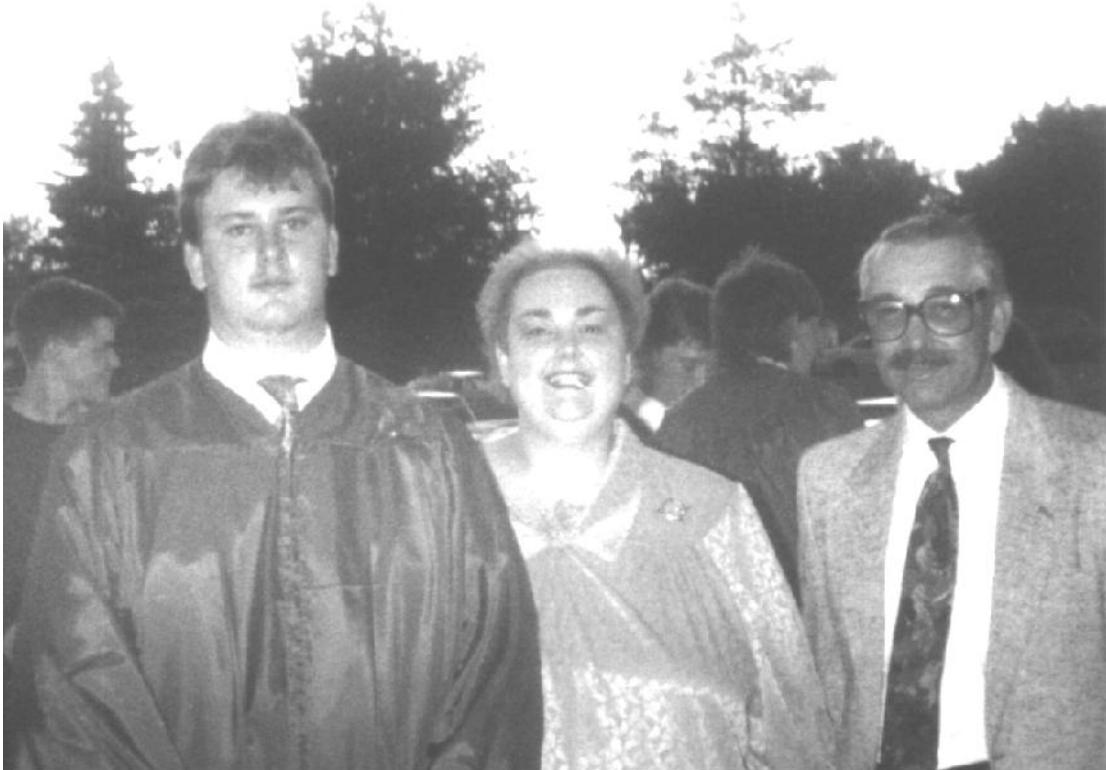

Irving Saylor, Sr. and his wife Julia (Dietle) Saylor

Irving served in World War II in the 702nd Tank Battalion. He saw action in France and Germany<sup>101</sup>, and participated in the Battle of the Bulge<sup>101,435</sup>. One of the few tales I ever heard him tell about his military service was the practice of shooting the tank's machine gun in combat until the barrel got so hot that it started to droop from its own weight (At least this is how I recall the story over 30 years later). The barrel would then have to be replaced with a spare. He also spoke once of his involvement with tanks that carried whole batteries of rockets on top. He was injured in WW-II, and discharged in 1945<sup>101</sup>.

Irving was a member and the Secretary of Church Council at the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church, and for many years was the Larimer Township Secretary<sup>435</sup>. When Irving retired from farming, they put their farm up for sale and bought a pleasant brick house in Berlin. Sis got a job at the Snyder's potato chip factory in Berlin as a bagger and packer<sup>53</sup>. Irving tended a neat, well kept vegetable garden in the back yard which any gardener would be proud of. Sis and Irving's children are:

Linda Dianne Saylor, born March 2, 1951<sup>2,14,71a,132</sup>, and

Irving Saylor, Jr., his wife Debra, and son Matthew.

Irving Saylor, Jr., son of Irving Saylor and Julia Lavaughn (Dietle) Saylor, has always been known to the extended family as "Junior". He was married to Debra<sup>14,435</sup> Ann<sup>14</sup> Weyant<sup>14,435</sup> on September 14, 1974<sup>14</sup>. She was born on Sept. 6, 1951<sup>14</sup>. At one time they ran an antique store together. Debbie is (1993) a Real Estate Dealer, and Junior is the Maintenance Supervisor at the Somerset Mall<sup>101</sup>. In 1995 their address was listed as Central City<sup>435</sup>. Irving, Jr. and Debbie have a son Matthew Aaron Saylor, who was born on May 18, 1975<sup>14,101</sup>.

Matthew Aaron Saylor, only child of Irving Saylor, Jr. and Debra Ann (Weyant) Saylor, was attending the University of Pittsburgh in Johnstown in 1993<sup>101</sup>.

Linda Dianne Saylor, daughter of Irving Saylor and Julia Lavaughn (Dietle) Saylor, was married to Frankie Shirley on Feb. 5, 1971<sup>14,132</sup>. Frankie was an Army cook at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School in Ft. Belvoir, VA prior to their marriage<sup>101</sup>. He is presently (1993) employed as a technical Plant Manager for Asheboro Sox and Active Wear<sup>101</sup>. Linda is (1993) the Business Manager of the Randolph County Public Library.

They presently (1995) make their home in Asheboro, North Carolina<sup>435</sup>. Frankie was born on March 8, 1947<sup>14</sup>, and enjoys cooking for the family. Dad and Mom have visited Frankie and Linda, and tell us that Frankie has a pleasant sense of humor, and is also an entertaining story teller. Frankie and Linda have two children, as follows:

Franklin Chad Shirley is known as Chad. He was in the Army in 1992, which is the last time I have seen him. His grandmother Julia Saylor reports that he served in the 82nd Airborne, and was an Aircraft Armament Missile System Repairer<sup>101</sup>. He was in Dhahran and Al Hufuf during the Gulf War<sup>101</sup>. In 1993 Chad was working for Klaussner Furniture in Asheboro and studying micro-computer technology at Randolph Community College<sup>101</sup>. He was married in the fall of 1995.

Donna Jean Saylor, daughter of Irving Saylor
and Julia Lavaughn (Dietle) Saylor, 1978

Donna Jean Saylor, daughter of Irving Saylor and Julia Lavaughn (Dietle) Saylor, graduated from the Meyersdale Area High School<sup>282</sup>. She was married to Clark Evans Brant<sup>101</sup>, Jr.<sup>292</sup> on Nov. 5, 1977<sup>12b</sup>. Clark, the son of Clark Brant, Sr. and Patricia (____) Brant<sup>292</sup>, was born on May 29, 1957<sup>14</sup>. They had a son Michael<sup>101,280,292</sup> Ryan Brant<sup>280,292</sup> who was born in May 31, 1978<sup>101</sup>. Michael died tragically at the age of 33 months due to smoke inhalation<sup>280</sup> in a home fire which occurred on the morning of Feb. 8, 1981<sup>101</sup>. The home was completely gutted, and all of the family's belongings were lost<sup>280</sup>. Five fire trucks and 30 Firemen responded to the blaze, but the Firemen were hampered in reaching the home by snow and ice on the road, and by smoke which obscured the road<sup>280</sup>. Donna, Clark, and their overnight guests were forced to jump to safety from a second story window, and were unsuccessful in their attempts to re-enter the home to rescue the child<sup>280</sup>. Michael was buried in the Berlin Cemetery<sup>292</sup>.

Donna and Clark were divorced, and Donna was subsequently married to David Ansell on July 24, 1984, but they are now (1993) also divorced<sup>101</sup>. She presently (1993) lives in Berlin and works at the Giant Eagle store in Somerset as a Health and Beauty Care Assistant Manager<sup>101</sup>.

Irvin Dietle, Jr.

Uncle Irvin Dietle, Jr., son of Irvin H. Dietle and Alma Catharine (Miller) Dietle, was born on May 28, 1928<sup>9</sup>. Dad recalls that Irvin, Jr. was a tease in his childhood days, and played coronet in the high school band<sup>53</sup>. As children, Dad and Irvin, Jr. liked to fish together in the stream which ran through their father's farm<sup>53</sup>. Fishing and hunting are activities which dad and Irvin have also pursued together as adults. They have taken several fishing trips to Canada, and have often visited one another in the fall for bird and deer hunting.

Our family has traditionally called Aunt Patricia and Uncle Irvin by the nicknames "Pat and June", however since Grandpa has died there is more of a tendency to call Uncle Irvin by his given name. Uncle Irvin received a B.S. in Agriculture from Penn State University<sup>53</sup>. Irvin is retired now, but in his working days taught school<sup>9</sup>, managed a Farm Bureau store<sup>9</sup>, and worked for Agway after Farm Bureau and Agway merged. He was employed with Farm Bureau and Agway for a total of about 34-35 years<sup>53</sup>. He started to work at Farm Bureau as a Field Man and Salesman, and then managed the farm store at Chambersburg<sup>53</sup>. Later he worked for Agway as a Dairy Specialist and Soils & Crops Specialist<sup>53</sup>.

After Pat and June's children were all in school, Pat went to work for the Tuscarora School District as a Teacher's Aide<sup>130</sup>. Later she transferred to the Chapter I Program as a Teacher's Assistant, then as a Chapter I Reading Assistant<sup>130</sup>. Chapter I is a Federally funded remedial education program<sup>130</sup>. She retired in 1993 so that they could travel, which is one of their biggest joys in life<sup>130</sup>. During 1993 they drove 12,000 miles during a trip to Alaska on a motor-camping trip with our parents Roy and Estalene Dietle<sup>130</sup>.

Pat and Irvin have lived in a rural area near Chambersburg, PA for as long as I can remember. They are both active members of the St. Thomas Lutheran Church, where both have been choir members for about 30 years<sup>130</sup>. They have also served as Teachers and Council Members, and served on numerous Committies<sup>130</sup>. One of them also served as Sunday School Superintendent for about 10 years<sup>130</sup>. They are also both active in the St. Thomas Ruritan club, where they have served as officers and workers in community service<sup>130</sup>.

Debra Lou Dietle, born Feb. 14, 1953<sup>2,9,14,71a,132</sup>, Craig Irvin Dietle, born Jan. 11, 1958<sup>2,9,14,130</sup> and died Dec. 5, 1990<sup>130</sup>, and Kimberly Sue Dietle, born Sept. 15, 1964<sup>2,14,132</sup>.

Sandy (Dietle) Michaels, her husband Barry Michaels, and children.

Sandy (Dietle) Michaels

Sandy graduated from James Buchanan High School in 1969, and graduated from Harrisburg General Hospital as an RN in 1972 <sup>154</sup>. At one time Sandy worked as a Nurse in the Intensive Care Unit at the Carlisle Hospital <sup>154</sup>. She presently (1994) works at the Newville Nursing Home-Retirement center, where she has been a Nursing Supervisor for 4 years <sup>154</sup>. She has also been a Lactation Consultant for 10 years, and was among the first to receive nursing certification in this field <sup>154</sup>.

Justin David Michaels, born July 26, 1976,
Ryan Craig Michaels, born Oct. 4, 1980, and Dean Stewart Michaels, born Jan. 11, 1982.

Justin David Michaels, son of Sandra (Dietle) Michaels and Barry Michaels, will graduate from High School in June, 1994, and has been accepted at Penn State University, Mt. Alto in Engineering <sup>154</sup>. His Grandmother characterizes him as a tall, quiet mannered A-Student who enjoys reading and watching TV <sup>154</sup>.

Ryan Craig Michaels, son of Sandra (Dietle) Michaels and Barry Michaels, is (1994) attending Big Spring High School, where he excels in his studies <sup>154</sup>. He is (1994) very sports minded, and participates in soccer, basketball and baseball <sup>154</sup>. He is also talented at writing and art <sup>154</sup>.

Dean Stewart Michaels, son of Sandra (Dietle) Michaels and Barry Michaels, is (1994) attending Big Spring Middle School, where he is an A student <sup>154</sup>. Like his brother Ryan, he loves sports, and participates on the soccer and baseball teams <sup>154</sup>. He enjoys playing the piano, and has knife, baseball card, comic book, coin and rock collections <sup>154</sup>.

Debra Lou Dietle, daughter of Irvin Dietle and Patricia (Smith) Dietle, married Glenn Irvin Martin, Jr.<sup>390</sup> on Sept. 1, 1973<sup>14</sup>. Glenn was born on April 18, 1952<sup>14</sup>, and is a self-employed Cabinet Maker. His company makes furniture, showcases, kitchen cabinets, baths, vanities, etc.<sup>391</sup>. Debra had previously worked in Washington, DC for the FBI<sup>130</sup>. They live on Shimpstown Road near Mercersburg, PA<sup>391</sup>. Their children are as follows:

Amelia Dawn Martin, born Sept. 21, 1982<sup>390</sup>, and Aileen Rebecca Martin, born Feb. 24, 1988<sup>390</sup>.

When I spoke with Debra in July of 1994, she said that April played the clarinet, Anya played the flute, and Amelia played the french horn, and Anya is involved with gymnasitics<sup>390</sup>.

Craig Dietle, son of Irvin Dietle and Patricia (Smith) Dietle, made his home in the Bronx<sup>130</sup>, NYC and never married. He graduated from the James Buchanan High School in 1976<sup>296</sup>, and graduated with honors from Penn State University in 1980 with a B.S. In Political Science<sup>130</sup>. He accepted a President's Fellowship in Political Science at Columbia University, NYC, where he received his Master's degree in 1982<sup>130</sup>. While attending Columbia, Craig started working for the publisher R.R. Bowker in Manhattan, NY, and continued working there after graduation as an Editor<sup>130</sup>. They were in the business of publishing lists of unpublished works for libraries<sup>130</sup>. Craig worked his way up to Manager of Electronic Publishing, which provided a computer service to clients<sup>130</sup>. He died of cancer of the liver on Dec. 5, 1990, having worked up until three weeks before his death<sup>130</sup>. I never knew him as an adult, but as children we often played and explored Grandpa's farm and woods together.

When we saw Kim and Michael in July of 1994, they were living in Williamsport, PA<sup>379</sup> in a colonial style home. They enjoy camping and hiking together, and Michael plays the Piano<sup>379</sup>. Kim has an Associates Degree from the Central Pennsylvania Business School, and Michael has a B.S. from Lockhaven University<sup>379</sup>.

Caleb Michael Vuocolo, born January 4, 1995<sup>391</sup>.

Roy Emerson Dietle

Our father, Roy Emerson Dietle, is the fourth child of Irvin H. Dietle and Alma Catharine (Miller) Dietle. He was born at the Larimer Township, Somerset County, PA farm home of his parents on January 3, 1932. While growing up on the farm, he attended the Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church at White Oak with his parents. He attended the Geiger one room school for grades 1-8, and attended the Meyersdale High School for grades 9-12.

Our mother†, Estalene (Korns) Dietle, is the daughter of Allen Lester Korns (b. Nov. 7, 1904<sup>1,246</sup>, d. May 8, 1974<sup>1,35,246</sup>) and his wife Gladys Edna (Bittner) Korns (b. May 9, 1904<sup>1</sup>), and was born on April 13, 1933<sup>14,15,35</sup> at her grandmother Bittner's house<sup>135</sup>. She grew up on her parents' farm in Southampton Township, Somerset County, PA near Wellersburg.§, which was originally owned by our GGG-Grandfather Daniel Korns, Sr.<sup>15</sup> and has been in the family ever since. Mother attended the Korns School for grades 1-8, and then attended the Meyersdale High School<sup>391</sup>.

Our father & mother Roy Dietle & Estalene (Korns) Dietle, circa 1994.

Father and Mother were married on Nov. 22, 1952<sup>14,132,195</sup> at the E.U.B. Church in Ellerslie, MD<sup>135</sup> by Rev. A.W. Raley<sup>195</sup>, the Pastor of Mother's home church in Wellersburg<sup>135</sup>. Rev. Raley had also married mother's parents. Both churches were part of the same charge, and both churches eventually became Methodist Churches<sup>135</sup>. Dad believed he would soon be drafted, so they decided to get married before it happened<sup>135</sup>. His hunch was right, as he received his draft notice the day after they returned from their honeymoon<sup>135</sup>. He was employed for the H.A. Miller Saw Mill Co. of Meyersdale as a Power Saw Man before being called to the Army<sup>ø</sup> <sup>136</sup>.

weeks when he got word that he was being shipped to Germany, so they sold the trailer to some other “lucky” GI, and went back to Somerset Co., where Mother stayed while Dad was away<sup>110</sup>. Dad was shipped to Germany from New York, and was stationed at Bad Hersfield (occupied Germany) for a year<sup>110</sup> in Company G of the 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment. When dad came back, they stayed temporarily at the Korns farm while Dad secured a job on the pipeline<sup>110</sup>. They followed this job to West Virginia, staying for a brief time at Wheeling, Elkins, and Buchanan<sup>110</sup>.

After the pipeline job they moved back to the Korns farm in a new 35 ft. (including tongue) mobile home<sup>110</sup>. While living there, dad attended a machinist’s school in Cumberland and worked at a gas station<sup>110</sup>. My earliest memory is from this time; the trailer and the farm house were connected by an old crank telephone, but one cold day the phone wouldn’t work, and mother bundled me up and had me take a note down to Grammy.

After dad finished machinist school, he set out looking for work in Altoona, Allegheny Co. and many other places<sup>110</sup>, and finally found work in Western PA as a machinist at Westinghouse<sup>110</sup>. As a result, when I was about 3-4 years old, we moved, trailer and all, from Somerset Co. to a mobile home park in Mercer Co. PA just off of Route 62 at the top of Wallace hill near Charleston. As with most family displacements, this one was for economic opportunity. During this time we attended the Methodist Church in Charleston, PA. As young as I was, I remember this time of my life clearly. We lived there about a year<sup>110</sup>.

Dad & Mother purchased a 25 acre parcel of land along the Millbrook road in Jackson Twp. and moved the trailer there in October 1957<sup>110</sup>. This property had a completed, roofed basement on it at the time of the purchase, but the house had never been built. On January 1, 1958 dad started working for Farm Bureau in Mercer, which later merged with Agway. This, finally, was the steady work which he was hoping for. He spent the rest of his working days with the company, and retired as an accomplished Master Service Technician on Oct. 31, 1992<sup>110</sup>.

In the spring of 1959 they added a garage to the basement for their 1955 Plymouth, and in the fall of 1959 we moved from the trailer into improvised basement living quarters, and sold the trailer<sup>110</sup>. Pappy Korns came up to help us with this chore<sup>110</sup>, after which the trailer was sold. In the spring of 1960 they began building a frame house on top of the basement<sup>110</sup>. They completed the house themselves with very little outside help*, and no borrowed funds except a small amount from parents. Dad traded work with Don Smith and next door neighbor Vic Marburger when he needed an extra hand<sup>110</sup>. Pappy and Melvin Korns came for 2 weeks to help, and dad’s brother Bud came for a weekend, but Mom and Dad did the rest<sup>110</sup>. I was too little to help, but enjoyed playing in the excavated dirt while Mother and Father toiled. We moved upstairs in the fall of 1961, and the kitchen was finished in 1962<sup>110</sup>. Mother built a beautiful tiered rock retaining wall (using rocks from local farm rock piles) following the curved driveway which provided space for flower gardening, one of her life-long hobbies.

We led an idyllic existence there, nestled between two dairy farms, but 3 years after finishing the house, our lives were rudely interrupted by the construction of Interstate Highway 79<sup>110</sup>, which was destined to cut lengthwise through the property. The state intended to give them a nominal amount for the land taken for the highway, and leave them cornered between the noise of the interstate a few yards away, and the eyesore of a bridge embankment in their front yard. This would have given them a tortuously steep driveway which would have been impractical to maintain, and would have left them with the un-lovely view of a dirt embankment right out of their living room picture window. This proposed settlement was unacceptable to them, and they successfully fought it.

With funds from the settlement, they moved the house to its present location on Millbrook road, which is about 1 mile from the original site<sup>110</sup>. Chester Shepp performed the move by jacking up the house and placing 2 sets of tandem wheels under it, then towing it to the new location<sup>110</sup>. The house was backed into the hole for the basement, jacked up to the correct height, then the basement walls were built up to meet the house<sup>110</sup>. Dad, myself and friends and neighbors poured the basement floor, bringing all the cement down by hand in wheelbarrows. The land had to be cleared, the driveway had to be laid, a new well and septic system were required, the plumbing had to be redone, and the electric and furnace had to be reconnected<sup>110</sup>. This was a time of intensive labor for Dad and Mom, but their efforts produced a beautiful place which we are all proud to call home.

While we were working on the place, James and Francis Magargee let us stay the winter in their farm house near Jackson Center while they visited a son in California - which was a real blessing for us. Of course, trust and friendship like that don't happen by accident. Mom and Dad have always had a quiet, unselfish way of helping out when other members of the community needed a helping hand, particularly the elderly. Not too long ago, an elderly neighbor woman passed away whom dad and mom had been helping for over thirty years. Soon after her death the neighbor's grandsons stopped by to give their heart-felt thanks, as they had found their Grandmother's diary which was filled with references to Mom & Dad's generous assistance.

Mother has been gifted with a sharp intellect and a strong work ethic which she applies with good effect to any task she tackles, whether it be husbanding the family finances, preparing an elaborate meal, or decorating the home. Some of her passions in life have been sewing, gardening and landscaping, cooking, and service to the church. Her interest in sewing became focused when she received a sewing machine as a high school graduation gift. In the 40+ years since then she has honed her skills to perfection, and the dresses which she makes for her grand-daughters are wonders of craftsmanship and fine detail. Once she even reupholstered a reclining rocking chair for Amy and I, which involved the meticulous hand fitting of 52 pieces of heavy fabric. After Dana and I were out of school, mom went to work part-time for Interstate Auto Auction in the office, and is still employed there in 1995<sup>391</sup>. Mom and Dad both enjoy traveling & camping, particularly in the American west<sup>391</sup>. They have also seen parts of Alaska, Canada and Mexico<sup>391</sup>. They attend the Vincent United Methodist Church in Jackson Center, where they have served as Teachers and Board Members<sup>391</sup>. Mother has been active in the United Methodist Women group there, and has served as President<sup>391</sup>. Both have been choir members in one church or another since they were teenagers<sup>391</sup>.

Lannie Laroy Dietle (myself) born on August 23, 1953<sup>32</sup>, and Dana Doreen Dietle, born July 14, 1959<sup>14,132</sup> at Grove City, PA.

I, Lannie Laroy Dietle, only son of Roy E. Dietle and Estalene (Korns) Dietle, was born on August 23, 1953 at the U.S. Army Hospital, Fort Knox, Hardin Co., Kentucky<sup>32</sup>. Dad was a soldier, and he and mother were living at West Point, Ky<sup>32</sup>. The total delivery cost for me was only $5.30<sup>53</sup>. We lived in several states when I was a baby, including Texas, then moved into a trailer on Pappy Korns' farm in Somerset Co.. When I was about 4, we moved near Charleston, PA, and not long afterwards we moved to the neighborhood where Dana and I grew up near Mercer and Jackson Center, PA on the Millbrook road.

I graduated from Lakeview High School in 1971, and graduated with honors from California State College, California Pa with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Arts Education on May 18, 1974. After graduation I worked as a truck mechanic at Agway Petroleum Corporation in Mercer, PA for about 3 1/2 years.

Amy and I were married on March 1, 1980<sup>20</sup> at the Bethany United Presbyterian Church in Mercer, PA by Rev. Ronald Sellers, who served at the Vincent Methodist church when I was growing up. The next day Amy and I flew from Pittsburgh to my apartment in Houston, TX to begin our married life together.

I was a draftsman with NL Baroid at the time of our marriage. Amy and I had met when I was working for Agway Petroleum Corp. in Mercer, PA. There was an oil shortage in the late 1970's, and I sensed that my job with Agway wasn't necessarily very secure. I had by chance been to the Agway bulk storage facility with the District Manager, and learned that the company barely had any product on hand. This same petroleum shortage was driving a booming economy in Houston, so when NL invited me down for an interview and made me a job offer, I accepted.

Unfortunately, the boom turned to bust, and in 1982, just after Emily was born and we had bought a house in NW Houston, I was laid off when the plant was closed down. Amy was working at Traveler's Insurance at the time which gave us a financial buffer, and I stayed home for a few months to raise Emily. As often happens, the layoff seemed tragic, but turned out to be opportunity in disguise. Baroid had used a small 4-person consulting mechanical engineering firm named Kalsi Engineering, Inc. (KEI) on a project before the layoff, and since KEI had no draftsman, I did the drafting. The owner of the company is M.S. Kalsi, PhD, an immigrant from India, and the former Director of Research and Development at WKM Valve. After the layoff, KEI hired me because they were already familiar with my capabilities. I'll always be grateful to Dr. Kalsi for taking the risk of hiring me in such a depressed local economy. It has been enjoyable to participate in the growth of the company, and today KEI has a well-deserved reputation for valve expertise in the U.S. nuclear industry, and also has a proprietary rotary shaft seal product line which is used in oil well drilling*.

In Pennsylvania I had a keen interest in deer hunting, and collected deer with bow, pistol, flintlock, and center-fire rifle. This interest waned after moving to Texas due to the different hunting philosophy found here, so my interest evolved into competitive target shooting. Pistol Silhouette was my forte, and for a number of years I was the club champion at Bayou Rifles, Inc., a club of about 1000 members. Pistol Silhouette involves knocking down metal targets at 25, 50, 75 and 100 meters. On my best weekend, I won a Texas Regional Championship on Saturday, and on Sunday won the Bayou Rifles club championship and set new range records at 25 and 100 meters. The 25 meter record had been 35 in a row, and I managed to raise it to 134. My interest in the shooting sports also lead me to service in the club, where I have served as Vice Chairman of the Pistol Silhouette Division, Director at Large, Newsletter Editor, and on various committees.

One of my other interests is writing, and I have had a number of articles published on shooting and drafting, including one about a computer program I created which was translated and reprinted in Japan.

Amy and I have the following children:

Emily Christine Dietle, b. Sept. 15, 1982 at Memorial Hospital SW, Houston, TX.

Carl Jacob Dietle, b. October 27, 1995 at .

Emily Dietle was born in Houston, Texas at the Memorial Hospital SouthWest on September 15, 1982<sup>17,33</sup>. She has done well at school, and had distinction of having the highest TAAS test score of all pupils in her grade at Ermel Elementary.

Dana Doreen Dietle, only daughter of Roy E. Dietle and Estalene (Korns) Dietle, was born July 14, 1959<sup>14,132</sup> at Grove City, PA. Dana married Dale Wilson Moore on Jan. 26, 1979<sup>12b</sup> at the Vincent United Methodist Church, with our Great Uncle Rev. John Sass† presiding. Dale grew up on his parents' Holstein dairy farm near Mercer, PA. Dale and Dana met each other through the 4-H club, where both participated in square dancing. Dale was born on June 3, 1958. He is the son of Arthur Wilson Moore (b. Oct. 13, 1939) and his wife Shirley Mae (Vogan) Moore (b. Sept. 13, 1938). He attended Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, and presently works there as a Senior Research Systems Programmer. Dale takes a 10 1/2 mile bicycle commute to work and back, and typically takes a 40-50 mile bike ride on Sundays. Dana enjoys sewing, crafts and gardening. She the de-facto chauffeur for her teen-age daughters, and is the leader for their 4-H club. Dana is (1995) working for the Shaler School District as a substitute clerical worker. Dale and Dana recently acquired a new home in Allison Park, PA. Their former home was in Stanton Heights, Pittsburgh. They have two children, as follows:

Lisa Laura Moore, born May 9, 1979<sup>12b</sup>, and Wendy Renee Moore, born April 4, 1980<sup>12b</sup>.

Lisa & Wendy Moore

Lisa Moore is (1996) a Jr. in Shaler High School where she is taking accelerated classes. She is a member of the National Honor Society and the marching Band. She is also a volunteer at West

Wendy Moore is (1996) a sophomore in Shaler High School where she is taking accelerated classes and has had five years of Japanese. This year Wendy was able to spend ten days in Japan. She is working at Shaler North Hills Library. She is active in her church youth group and belong to a 4-H club. She hopes to become a teacher.

Ralph Dietle

Uncle Ralph Dietle, the youngest son of Irvin H. Dietle and Alma C. (Miller) Dietle, was born on July 18, 1944<sup>(9,14)</sup>. He was still living at Grandpa's when I was growing up, and I recall that as a teenager he raised strawberries for income.

Ralph married Margaret Hahn<sup>2,14,132</sup> on Feb. 3, 1965<sup>14,132</sup>. "Marg", as she is known by the extended family, was born on April 26, 1944<sup>14,132</sup>. Ralph and Marg make their home in a scenic rural area near Meyersdale, PA. They have no children. Ralph collects metal John Deere toy farm implements, and for many years maintained a dog for rabbit hunting. Ralph and Marg also enjoy trailer camping and country music<sup>135</sup>.

Ralph has an easy going personality, and dad says he is the type of person who would do anything for you if he could<sup>53</sup>. Ralph has worked in farm equipment maintenance all of his adult life. He first worked as a John Deere mechanic, then as shop foreman and parts man for Cecil Jackson John Deere<sup>53</sup>. He presently (1993) is working as a farm implement parts salesman for one of Cecil Jackson's sons. Marg worked at Clapper's Manufacturing from 1962-1984, and for Cecil E. Jackson during 1984/85. From 1985-1989<sup>348</sup> Marg had a clothing store in Meyersdale<sup>135</sup> known as Dietle's Apparel<sup>348</sup>. She is now (1994) working for the Dean O'Neal Ford Dealership<sup>70,348</sup> and has worked there since 1989<sup>348</sup>.

Ralph Dietle, son of Irvin Dietle, Sr.

Margaret (Hahn) Dietle

Ralph has always been a big fan of trout fishing. When he was small and had no equipment, he would go fishing with a string and use a safety pin for a hook<sup>53</sup>. This occurred in the mid-1950'a when he was 7 or 8 years old<sup>348</sup>. He wrote the following to us in 1994<sup>348</sup>:

I would go fishing in the barnyard below the corn crib in the upper end of Will's Creek. I took a steel rod approximately four feet long and put a piece of cord string on it with a safety pin bent in a hook fashion. I would bait this with a red worm, push the steel rod in the bank and throw the hook in the water. I would come back the next day to find the worm gone but no fish. It's a wonder I didn't get disgusted with fishing at an early age, but as I got older my equipment got better. I went from the steel rod to a five foot wood stick to a five foot fiberglass rod to an 8 1/2 foot graphite rod with a graphite reel. My love for trout fishing has been my favorite pastime. Years ago you went fishing in April and maybe in May. Now I go every chance I get; spring, summer and fall. It is a way of relaxing and getting away from everyday stress. I only enjoy stream fishing where I can walk - the further back into nowhere, the better. The last few years I've had fishing licenses in PA, WV and MD. It is not how many, or how big, but being out in God's country.

Chapter 10

History of the Dietle Surname

Early U.S. Spelling Variations

As documented in the first few chapters, the surname of our immigrant ancestor and his sons is spelled many different ways in the surviving records, including Dietle, Deitle, Dietel, Diettle, Deittle, Dieddle, Deitle, Deutle, Deetle, Detel, Tietle, Tietel, Deatle, Tittle, Dittle, Diddle, Dieddle, Diedle, Diettel, Deatte, and Deate. Such wide spelling variations are common in many German-American families which immigrated in the 18th and 19th centuries. Sometimes immigrants intentionally attempted to Anglicize their surname to disguise German origin, or to make the name easier for their fellow Americans to spell phonetically using English spelling conventions. Sometimes census takers, ministers, lawyers, tax collectors, etc. entered a name into a record carelessly, or just spelled it the way they thought it sounded, rather than inquiring as to how it should actually be spelled. Immigrants have also been known to be illiterate, and not actually know how to spell their own name. All of these factors may have played a role in the many different spellings of the Dietle family name which are present in the documents of record. The variations in the old records are not surprising to anyone who has done genealogical research, nor should they come as a surprise to those who bear the Dietle/Deitle name today, for who among us doesn't regularly receive mail with corrupt spellings? The phone company just sent our household a letter addressed to "Dedall", for example!

American Pronunciation

The American descendants of Johann Adam Dietel which I have spoken to seem to pronounce the name Dee-tull or Deed-ul. In my opinion, when asked how to pronounce the name, we carefully enunciate "Dee-tull" with a somewhat awkward t sound in the second syllable, however when we say it quickly without thinking about it so much, we (again, in my opinion) actually pronounce it "Deed-ul", which is a little easier to say.

At least one other American family with the spelling Deitle (but no known relation to us) pronounces the name "Dye-tull" with the ei in the first syllable pronounced "eye"<sup>191</sup>. The family member who I spoke to said that in German, the "ei" and "ie" sounds are backwards, meaning "ei" is pronounced "eye" and "ie" is pronounced the same as the "e" in he<sup>191</sup>. Another American family, with the spelling Dietle (but no known relation to us) also pronounces the surname as "Dye-tull", with the first syllable having a long i sound<sup>171</sup>. Another family in Michigan pronounces Dietle as "Deet-Lee"<sup>170</sup>.

Current Spelling Variations

Given the many surname spelling variations encountered in the first two American generations, it is amazing that there are now just two stable variations among Johann Adam Dietel's descendants. The descendants of his son Nicholas use the spelling "Deitle", and the descendants of his son John use the spelling "Dietle". The exact reason for these two spellings cannot be known perfectly, but surviving records and stories do provide insight. It appears that at one time there was a concensus to use the name "Deitle" in order to facilitate pronunciation, then part of the family changed to "Dietle" in order to retain German spelling.

Grandpa Irvin H. Dietle told his son (our father) Roy E. Dietle that he changed the family name from "Deitle" to "Dietle" because of advice he received from a professor who knew something of German spelling and who informed Grandpa that in Germany the name would have been spelled with "ie" rather than "ei". In the 1923-24 School Report of Somerset County, Penn'a., Grandpa Irvin's last name is spelled Deitle<sup>376</sup>, and our dad has told us that on his own birth certificate the name is given as "Deitle". Since Dad was born on Jan. 3 1932, Grandpa must have changed the name from Deitle to Dietle some time after that. As I understand the story, Grandpa first changed the name from Dietle to Deitle, and then back to Dietle. This is supported by the record of his Teacher's Provisional Certificates <sup>387</sup>; the name on the 1917, 1918,

Darius Dietle reports that “I heard the name change from Deitle to Dietle was by a school teacher in the Dietle family (who) said that the “i” comes before “e” except after “c” and that is where we get the Dietle name.”<sup>21</sup> This account may relate to our Grandfather Irvin H. Dietle, who was a school teacher, and who was known personally by Darius’s father.

Edna (Dietle) Kimmel did not know how the name came to be spelled two ways, but did express the belief that German “ie” names are expressed “ee”, and “ei” names are pronounced “eye”<sup>461</sup>.

Mrs. Chuck Deitle says that her husband was told that his grandfather or Great-grandfather didn’t like the name being mispronounced as Dye-Tell in America, and inquired as to how to alter the spelling to achieve the correct pronunciation of Dee-Tull, and followed someone’s suggestion of swapping the ie to ei<sup>189</sup>. This seems plausible, because one genealogical handbook indicates that Germans were usually concerned more about correct pronunciation than spelling<sup>141</sup>. Chuck’s grandfather was Herman, and the name on Herman’s tombstone is spelled “Deitle”<sup>315</sup>.

When I talked to Roy E. Deitle (son of James) in April of 1994, he said that his dad or grandfather (he thought it was his grandfather) used Dietle, but didn’t like it being pronounced Dye-tell, so he changed it to Deitle so that people would pronounce it Dee-tull. This agrees with the story related above by Mrs. Chuck Deitle.

Vivian Timblin<sup>180</sup> remembers a tradition of a disagreement over the spelling of the name, but doesn’t remember any details. She remembers hearing Herman Deitle and Jake Paul* sitting in the kitchen and discussing how the name should be spelled. Jake Paul had a sawmill across the road from Herman Deitle’s driveway. (She remembered going back many years later and seeing that the remains of the sawmill were still there.) She said there was quite a discussion over the spelling. She lived there at Herman’s as a child, and visited in the summers and heard this conversation personally. She elaborated and said that in the discussion, Herman said that his father Nicholas spelled the last name Deiddle (which is supported by records), but Herman thought that was too long<sup>180</sup>. She said somebody came up with the spelling Dietle and Herman spelled his name that way for awhile<sup>180</sup>. This is supported by surviving records. For example, in the 1920 census results from Greenville Twp.<sup>4</sup>, Herman’s last name is spelled “Dietle”, and in the 1910 census results, his father Nicholas’s last name is also spelled “Dietle”<sup>51</sup>.

Vivian’s story is supported by a telephone conversation that our father Roy Dietle had with James’ Deitle’s son Roy Deitle. In that conversation Roy Deitle related a tradition of an argument that led to the Deitle spelling.

In a 1947 letter of genealogical inquiry, Mrs. Margaret (Deitle) Beutel referenced her Grandfather as Nicholas Deiddle, and stated “Who revised the name here is unknown to me.....our name was spelled either way, Dietle or Deitle<sup>189</sup>. By comparing these oral traditions handed down in the several branches we probably understand the name change better than Margaret, but the actual details of the early evolution of the spelling remain lost to time, just as they were in 1947.

Etymology

The ancient history of the name has been very difficult to pursue because of the barriers of language, distance and time. There are three books we have encountered which are written specifically on the topic of the origin and history of German surnames. Unfortunately, all three are written in German, and to make matters worse, they are very cryptic, heavily abbreviated and difficult to comprehend, even for those who understand written German. We have, with the translation help of others, attempted to develop an understanding of what these German family name books say about our surname, and our understanding is presented below. Please recognize that there is no proof that the etymological information in any of the 3 books applies specifically to our family bloodline, for there very well may have been a number of independent families with similar names but no direct blood relationship.

The Familiennamenbuch<sup>443</sup> (Family Name Book) groups the names Diet(e)l, Tietel, and Tittel together under the same surname entry. Douglas M. Addison interprets this as meaning that they are alternate forms of the same name<sup>446</sup>. The initial part of the Familiennamenbuch entry for Diet(e)l, Tietel, and Tittel reports on information provided in three other sources, as follows:

- (1) The Familiennamenbuch first states that according to the Hans Bahlow Deutsches Namenlexicon "1361 Dityl = Diterich luerlin"<sup>443</sup>. More on this below.
- (2) The Familiennamenbuch next states that according to E. Schwarz in Sudetendeutsche Familiennamen aus vorhussitischer Zeit, 1957 (Southern German family names prior to the Hussiten), the name "Ditel" was known in 1384. Ingrid Bender of Houston, TX reports that her German encyclopedia indicates that the Hussiten were followers of Johann Hus, members of an anti-feudal movement of Tchecks<sup>445</sup>. She notes that there were fierce battles in the Hussiten wars of 1419-1436, causing much destruction, and that the Hussiten moved through Austria, Selesia, and Sachsen<sup>445</sup>.
- (3) The Familiennamenbuch also states that according to V. Hellfritsch in Vogtländische Personennamen (First Names in the Vogtland), an examination of materials in the area of the towns of Plauen and Oelnitz (Berlin: German Slavic Research of Origins of Names and Settlement History, 1963), the name was seen as Dittl in 1460. From the Familiennamenbuch entry, it is unclear to me if this is a 1460 reference to a first name or last name.

According to Douglas M. Addison, the Familiennamenbuch indicates that the surnames Diet(e)l, Tietel, and Tittel are shortened forms of the first name Diederich or similar old German names which begin with the old high German word "thiot/diot" which means people or folk<sup>446</sup>. The "thiot/diot" beginning is coupled with "helm" to produce the complete name Diet(e)l/Tietel/Tittel<sup>446</sup>. The literal translation for "Helm" is helmet<sup>446,445,448</sup>, but it implies strength<sup>446</sup>, as in force<sup>448</sup>, might<sup>448</sup>, strength<sup>446</sup> and power<sup>446,448</sup>, or ruling<sup>446</sup>, administrate<sup>448</sup>, and reigning<sup>446</sup>. To sum this all up in my own words, in my opinion it seems that Familiennamenbuch may be saying that our surname may mean something approximately like "People Power" or "People Leader". The Familiennamenbuch also briefly notes that in middle high German, the word "tütel" is a diminutive of teat or nipple, and "tüteln" means to flatter<sup>445</sup>.

Ingrid Bender also notes that the modern day German word "titel" has the same meaning as the English word "title"<sup>445</sup>. My German-English dictionary uses "titel" in the sense of form of address, such the title one should use when addressing a Bishop<sup>450</sup>.

The Hans Bahlow Deutsches Namenlexicon<sup>444</sup> groups the names Dietel, Dietlein*, Dietle, and Dietl together under the same surname entry. The complete entry reads "Ditel, Dietlein, Dietl (obd) = Dietrich, auch Diethelm u.ä. Dityl=Diterich luerlin 1361 Brsl. Patronym: Dietler (vgl. Seidel: Seidler)." It is difficult to extract much information from the cryptic text "Dityl = Diterich luerlin 1361 Brsl", but it seems to at least indicate that as early as the year 1361 a name similar to ours existed in the form "Dityl", and had some relationship or equivalency to the name Diterich. According to the Bahlow abbreviation key, "Brsl" is an abbreviation for Breslau. According to Ingrid Bender, Diterich is an old German spelling of a male first name, but she didn't know what "luerlin" meant<sup>445</sup>. Robert E. Ward of Fairview, OH, who has access to Bahlow, states "luerlin is the surname. Diterich is the first name. A Ditrich Luerlin was living in 1361. Today all surnames are capitalized. Back then, in medieval German, they were not." The Bahlow abbreviation key does not state what = means, however it may mean the same thing established for = in the 1857 book named Etymologisches Wörterbuch der Deutschen Familiennamen<sup>447</sup> i.e. "gleich", which according to Ref. 450 means harmony, accord, equal to, or to match. Bahlow also indicates that Dietler is a patronymic** just as Seidler is a patronymic of Seidle. According to the Bahlow<sup>444</sup> abbreviation key, “(obd)” stands for “oberdeutsch”, which means “Upper, or Mountain German”<sup>453</sup>. According to Robert Ward, u.ä. means “among others” and “vgl.” means “compare”.

Bahlow<sup>444</sup> also has a separate surname entry for Dietle(in) which reads “Dietle(in) s. Dietel! – Dietleip (obd., Steiermark), Held er Dietrich-Sage, s. ndd. Detlef!” Ingrid Bender indicates that the “in” portion of “Dietle(in)” refers to feminine<sup>445</sup>. I can’t make much out of this entry. The Bahlow abbreviation key indicates that “ndd” means “niederdeutsch”, and “s.” stands for “siehe” which means sight, vision, see. “Niederdeutsch” means “low German”, which is a term for a German dialect spoken only above the so-called Benrath line<sup>453</sup>.

Etymologisches Wörterbuch der Deutschen Familiennamen<sup>447</sup> has two entries, one for Dietel, and one for Dietle(in). The entry for Dietel reads in its entirety “Ditel < VN Diet(rich). 1523 Seb. Dietell, Pleban zu Lorch: WV. (NF.) XI, 264.” According to the abbreviation key in Etymologisches<sup>447</sup>, “<” means from or out of and “VN” stands for “Vorname” which means first name<sup>451</sup>. I believe that “Ditel < VN Diet(rich)” clearly means “The family name Dietel originates from the first name Dietrich.” The remaining part of the entry “1523 Seb. Dietell, Pleban zu Lorch: WV. (NF.) XI, 264.” is less clear. Franz X. Fackler<sup>451</sup> of Muenchen, Germany and I are of the opinion that “Seb.” stands for the first name of Sebastian. It is clear that other surname entries in this book use an abbreviated first name, so Seb. is pretty sure to be an abbreviation for a first name. “Seb” is unlikely to be an abbreviation for a German word, because there are no German words beginning with “Seb” in my 280,000 entry German dictionary<sup>450</sup>. I don’t know for sure what “Pleban zu Lorch” means, but it sounds like it may possibly be some kind of position title. Zu means “to” and “Lorch” is a town name, and “Pleban” may refer to common man, as similar words do in Latin, German and English. There are two towns named Lorch on my Freytag & Berndt map of Germany, one which is west of Stuttgart near Schwäbisch Gmund, and the other which is east of Frankfurt near a river. “WV. (NF.) XI, 264.” is a reference to a regional history quarterly, Württembergische Vierteljahrsshefte für Landesgeschichte that was printed in 1892. Robert Ward believes the phrase “Pleban zu Lorch” means “a person from Lorch”<sup>449</sup>. Ernst Hoffman of St. Augustin, Germany says “I have seen the term Pleban used to denote that priest in a chapter who was tasked to deal with the lays being subject to that monastery”<sup>452</sup>.

The Etymologisches Wörterbuch der Deutschen Familiennamen<sup>447</sup> entry for Dietle(in) reads “Ditel(in), Koseform < Kurzform Diete, s.d. 1425 Joh. Hagnau gen. Dietlein zu Markdorf: REC. III Nr. 9104, u.a.” The entry “Ditel(in), Koseform < Kurzform Diete” indicates that Dietle(in) is a short form or endearment for Diete, or possibly vice versa—it’s not completely clear to me. Koseform means an “affectionate or familiar form of a proper name” and it has a feminine connotation<sup>450</sup>. Kurz means shortened and form is the same in English and German<sup>450</sup>. According to Ingrid Bender’s interpretation<sup>445</sup>, “1425 Joh. Hagnau gen. Dietlein zu Markdorf: REC.” references Johann Hagnau, reigning bishop of Constantiensium in 1425, who was known as Dietlein at a town named Markdorf. According to the abbreviation key in Etymologisches<sup>447</sup>, “REC” stands for “Regesta episcoporum Constantiensium”, which Ingrid interprets to mean reigning bishop of Constantiensium, which was an empire. “u. a. means “and others” (et. al.)<sup>451</sup> or “among others”. According to Franz X. Fackler, “s.d.” means “look there”<sup>451</sup>. The Etymologisches<sup>447</sup> abbreviation key indicates that “s.d.” means “Siehe diesen Artikel”. My dictionary<sup>450</sup> indicates that “siehe” means sight, vision, so “Siehe diesen Artikel” must mean something like “see this article, entry or item”. Franz X. Fackler thinks that “gen” stands for “genannt” which means “also called”<sup>451</sup>. The abbreviation “gen” could also be short for “genitive”, meaning showing possession, source, or origin.

German Place Names

** A patronymic is a surname developed from an ancestor's name by adding an affix which indicates descent, such as Davidson or MacAndrew.

Daryl Dietle reports that when he was in Germany in 1968, he was in a town named Dietl<sup>177</sup>; however we don't know if this town has any actual link to our family. There are also several other towns which incorporate Dietl in their names, such as Dietlas in Bad Salzungen County, Thüringen, Dietldorf which is part of Burglengenfeld in Schwandorf County, Bayern, and Dietlingen, which is part of Keltern in Enzkreis (Pforzheim) County, Baden-Württemberg<sup>439</sup>. The "dorf" suffix in Dietldorf means "village"<sup>440</sup>. The "ig" portion of the "igen" suffix in Dietlingen translates roughly as the English "y"; for example durst, durstig in German is thirsty, thirsty in english<sup>441</sup>. The "en" portion of the "igen" suffix in Dietlingen is a gender based German word ending<sup>441</sup>.

Wappen

The German term for "coat of arms" is "Wappen", a low German word meaning "Weapon"<sup>453</sup>. In the German book titled Die Wappen bürgerlicher Geschlechter Deutschlands und Schweiz<sup>454</sup> are found four different Wappen for families with surnames similar to ours. These Wappen are shown below, along with the text (or a translation thereof) provided with them. The term "bürgerliche Wappen" relates to civil coats of arms, as compared to "adlige Wappen" which is in reference to nobility coats of arms, and "bäuerliche Wappen", which relates to the peasant use of coats of arms<sup>453</sup>. Please bear in mind that there is no proof that any of the Wappen shown hereafter actually apply to our family bloodline.

Ernst Hoffman's<sup>452</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Dittel, Valentin, Pub-owner (or more likely house-owner < you need to check the local usage) came, as a craftsman, into the new council in 1548". Ingrid Bender's<sup>456</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Diettel, Valentin, Inn keeper at Augsburg changes from a group of skilled manual workers to the new council in 1548". Joachim Schubert's<sup>460</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Dittel, Valentin, innkeeper in Augsburg, joined the council as representative of the artisans."

Ernst Hoffman's<sup>452</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Diettel, Valentin from the livery-company of Salt-producers of the council at the city of Augsburg 1548". Ingrid Bender's<sup>456</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Diettel, Valentin, of the guild of salt refiners from the council of Augsburg 1548." Joachim Schubert's<sup>460</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Diettel, Valentin, member of the guild of salt merchants (4) of the Augsburg town council, 1548." Regarding the translation of the word "Salzfertiger", Joachim<sup>460</sup> says "My guess for Salzfertiger. 'Salz' is salt, while 'fertiger' implies somebody who produces (or finishes) something. He must therefore have either produced or traded in salt, the second being more likely."

Ernst Hoffman's<sup>452</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Ditel: protestant-Lutheran Family from the Vogtland (the south-western typ of Saxon), which first appears with Lorenz Dietl from Kloschwitz near Plauen in 1491. Since the Beginning of the 18.th century it belonged to the textile-industry of Greiz. It also has extended ("verzweigt" sic!) into academic professions. The princely Reus older line (=ae.L.) Real Secret Adviser and President of the government (a local subdivision of the complete government) Theodor Dietl (born 1830 died 1900) became a hereditary nobleman in 1892. He was a cousin of the founder of Herman Dietel Inc at Graz. The "burgerliche" (=non noble) Coat of arms, which was adopted in 1941, was leaned on his (Theodor Dietl's) coat of arm by taking (Übernahme sic!) the star over. Send in by Dr Alfred Lindner from Crimmitschau/Saxonia , Carolaplatz 4 < That adress is non existing today Carola of Wasa was a Queen of Saxonia)".

Ingrid Bender's<sup>456</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Evangelical Lutheran generation from the Vogtland (located in Sachsen) which first began in 1491 with Lorenz Ditell in Kloschwitz near Plauen. They belonged to the textile industry in Greiz since the beginning of the 18th century and later branched out into academic occupations. The dukely Russian (?), actual privy councilor and chief administrator Theodor Dietel (1830-1900), a cousin of the founder of the firm Hermann Dietel in Greiz, received hereditary nobility in 1892. Closely related to his (Herman Dietel's) coat of arms, is the middle class coat of arms of 1941, as described below, to which a star has been added."

Joachim Schubert's<sup>460</sup> translation of Ref. 454 for the above Wappen: "Ditel: ev. luth. family from the Vogtland; first appeared with Lorenz Ditell in Kloschwitz bei Plauen; involved in the textile industry of Greiz; branched out into numerous academic professions. Theodor Dietel (1830-1900), who was a cousin of the founder of the company Herman Dietel in Greiz, was an advisor (1) and president of the government for the House of the Princes of Reuss in the older line, and was raised to hereditary nobility in 1892. The common (2) coat of arms which was accepted in 1941 and which is described hereafter, was based on Theodor Dietels coat of arms by including the star. Submitted by Dr Alfred Linder, Carolaplatz 4, Crimmitschau, Saxony. Notes: (1) The actual title given here is difficult to translate. It is Wirklicher Geheimrat. A Geheimrat is a title for a bureaucrat or civil servant, while the Wirklicher implies that he actually was a civil servant, ie it was not an honorary title. He was therefore a true civil servant, but as he became government president, he must have been relatively senior. (2) common as opposed to noble. This refers to the coat of arms borne by the non-noble branch of the family."

Chapter 11

Roy Dietle's Memories of Growing Up in Somerset County

Written by Dana from conversations with Dad<sup>24,135</sup>

As a little boy, Dad (Roy E. Dietle) would help the family make hay, hoping all the while that it would rain. Grandpa, June, and Bud would fork the hay onto the wagon while dad stomped it down. Once the wagon was full they took it to the barn to unload it. In the barn there was a hay fork on a track which would pick up the hay and carry it to the back of the barn, where the boys scattered it about. After Ralph was old enough to stomp hay on the wagon, Dad graduated to forking hay onto the wagon. Dad recalls that when they were in the field working, Grandpa could tell when it was noon, and time to go back to the house for lunch, by when he could place his foot on the head of his shadow.

This is my favorite picture of Grandpa Irvin Dietle. He is posing with his sons in front of his Larimer Twp. farm house, which was once owned by Ephriam Geiger. Note the full length porch on the front of the house, and the steep hill which comes right up to the back of the house. This house once belonged to Ephriam Geiger. L to R: Irvin, Jr., Luther, Irvin, Sr., Roy.

Back then Grandpa (Irving H. Dietle) grew 2-3 acres of potatoes and 5-6 acres of sweet corn for resale. The corn was planted with a planter, then picked by hand and sold to a cannery in Somerset. The potatoes were planted and picked by hand, then huckstered (peddled) in Mt. Savage, Wellersburg, and Barrelville. Dad remembers going door to door when he was little and asking families if they wanted to buy potatoes. Grandpa also raised wheat, oats, rye and field corn. (During WW-II Grandma used rye to make ersatz coffee by browning it in the oven before boiling.) The grain was harvested by shocking it by hand, then taking it to the barn to wait until the threshing machine could come by the farm. (I can remember helping shock grain at Grandpa's circa 1965. L.D.) The corn was cut, shocked and husked by hand, then taken to Sam Baer's feed mill to be ground into cattle feed, cob and all. Dad remembers riding a horse to cultivate the corn field. He had one cousin who always liked to ride the horses at the fair. Dad wouldn't go with him because dad had more than his fill of riding horses on the farm. Grandpa also raised chickens, hogs, beef cattle and Brown Swiss dairy cows. The beef were raised for sale. Sometimes Grandpa took the Brown Swiss to the fair to show them, and did pretty well. The hogs were customarily butchered on Thanksgiving or the last Saturday in November. Dad's Uncle John and Uncle Simon came with their families to help with the butchering, then Grandpa and Grandma would reciprocate by taking their family to help John and Simon butcher.

In 1930 Grandpa and Grandma had a hand pump installed in the kitchen. This meant no more hauling water from the spring for cooking, cleaning, drinking, and washing clothes. They had a coal heating stove in the living room and a cooking stove in the kitchen. Grandma was a very good cook, and for many years cooked on a wood and coal burning stove. In 1940 they had electric connected to the house. In 1941 they had a coal steam boiler added for heating, and before long they had also a gas stove. They got their first refrigerator circa 1948/49. The new refrigerator meant that they no longer had to hand carry food and milk to and from the spring house for preservation.

Grandpa's family were devoted members of the White Oak Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church. In the wintertime, if the snow was too deep to drive the mile and a half to church, the family walked. One time their 1932 Chevy went down over a hill and turned over, and they had to get the team of horses to pull it out. Before the 1932 Chevy, Grandpa had a 1928 Chevy, and before that a Model T Ford. After the 32 Chevy, Grandpa had a 1936 Chevy, which he traded in on a 2 door 1940 Chevy which had a sticker price of $611.00. The three oldest boys learned to drive in this car, which Grandpa had to keep for a long time due to WW-II and the post-war demand for cars. His next car was a 1949 Dodge, and all of his remaining cars were also Dodges; a maroon 53, a pink & black 56, a 58, a maroon 65, and a green 73.

When dad was growing up, one thing the family liked to do together was drive to the fire tower that was about halfway to Berlin, and see if they could pick out the farm. They also liked to go to parades in Meyersdale. Sometimes the whole family would go to Grandma and Grandpa Miller's home in Greenville Township for Sunday dinner, where there were lots of other kids to play with. Dad and Grandpa often would go for walks together in the woods on Sunday afternoon.

Usually once a year, after the sweet corn was ready, they held a corn and weiner roast near the stump fence on Grandpa Dietle's farm. The stump fence was located in the meadow about 100 yards behind the garden in the direction of the White Oak Church. The fence was made up of stumps which had been pulled for clearing, and the stumps were used in the evening fire. Dad's Uncle John and Uncle Simon and their families came, and possibly others. It was at this event that dad recalls eating as many hot-dogs as he was old. The fire was started in the late afternoon, and then the families spent the whole evening together sitting around the fire and talking, with the fire as a focal point in the darkness. Dad recalls these campfires with great fondness, and he likes to renew the evening campfire tradition whenever his friends and family come to visit his home.

Another social event which the family attended was the White Oak Picnic, which was an affair held jointly by the White Oak Reformed and Lutheran Churches. The two churches split the profits. The picnic was held on the third or fourth Saturday in July. They started setting up around 10:00 AM, and by 11:00 AM many people from miles around were there. The folks would bring a picnic lunch and eat together. After lunch there were games for all ages. In some games, you divided up by age, and the winner would win a prize, such as a box of Cracker Jacks. There were also games where one paid to play, such as one where a watermelon was placed on the ground, and if you could hit it blindfolded with a wheel-barrow you won it. Also, you could pay to join the cake walk, where everyone walks in a circle past a cake while music played. When the music stopped, the person closest to the cake won it, but everyone got to enjoy a piece of the cake. Sam Baer brought a big sliding board for the kids each year. The picnic had a bandstand with music and singing. There was also a "shop" (as Dad called it) where ice-cream cones, hot dogs, hamburgers, candy bars, Cracker Jacks, balloons, paddle-balls, and so forth were sold. (When I was growing up, this was popular with the kids. The first paddle ball I ever saw was from the White Oak picnic. I can remember being very envious of the cousin who had it! LLD) When evening came, the men would go home to do their barn work, and then come back. In the evening, the teenagers would go into the church lot and play more games, such as Drop the Hanky, Fly Dutchman, etc. After a fun-filled day, everyone would head home. The next day after church and Sunday-School, the kids would go over to the “Shop” and look for lost coins in the wood chips around the shop.

Beginner's Luck; The Story of Roy Dietle's First Deer

By Roy Dietle with Lannie Dietle

I was born in 1932, and was raised on the mountainous Somerset County, Pennsylvania farm that was my birthplace. Deer weren't too plentiful, so I grew up hunting small game. Well.....sort of hunting small game. Daddy had strict ideas about the proper age for a boy to start toting a shotgun, so for the first 15 years I just tagged along with him. After age 15, however, I accounted for many rabbits, squirrels, and groundhogs on my own, and bagged my first turkey when I was 16.

I didn't get around to deer hunting until the fall of 1949, shortly after graduating from high school. Although money was scarce, I managed to buy a Wards bolt action 20 gauge, complete with a box and a half of shells, from my cousin Karl Dietle for nine dollars*. The shells came in handy that fall, because without school I had plenty of time to roam the home place in search of small game. When buck season rolled around, I decided to try my luck with the new gun, so I bought a box of five punkin balls from the Meyersdale hardware store. If you've ever tried punkin balls, you know that they're not too hot in the accuracy department. As opening day drew nearer, I consumed one shell in target practice, and managed a complete miss on a 2 ft x 4 ft target about 50 yards away. I didn't take a second practice shot, because there weren't many shells to spare, and I couldn't afford to waste any.

By the day before the season opening I was really raring to go, and didn't get much sleep that night. The reality of buck hunting wasn't quite what I had imagined, however. After 4 days I was getting a little bit discouraged, as I had seen only 5 deer, and three of them were about a mile away on another mountain. Daddy, rabbit hunter that he was, wasn't too sure about this deer hunting stuff, and constantly reminded me to be absolutely certain that a deer had legal sized horns before shooting. (A legal buck had to have at least 2 points on 1 antler.)

I couldn't start hunting right away the fifth morning because I had to help a neighbor butcher a large hog. We finished about 9:30, so I grabbed my trusty 20 gauge and headed out in the blowing snow to check my trap line. I didn't catch anything, but on the way home I spotted some enormous deer tracks. I knew they had to be really fresh, because tracks don't last long in such weather. I thought I might as well follow them, because I had nothing better to do. Sometimes the tracks were nearly blown shut and hard to pick out, but I traced them up over a steep hill, across a field, then along a rail fence and into some Hemlock woods. There beneath a Hemlock stood the biggest buck I'd ever seen, and only 50 feet away. Up came the shotgun with a bang, and the deer ran off seemingly untouched. Given my lackluster performance at target practice, I figured I must have missed him for sure, but I vowed to myself that I'd follow that buck to the far end of the state if I had to. I was wrong about missing, however, because when I got to the Hemlock there was a good blood trail, and I found the deer piled up after about 100 yards. I drug it downhill for about 400 yards, but after that it was just too heavy for one person to drag, even over snow, so I hid it and went over to Jerry Saylor's farm for help.

We took it home and hung it out in the barn. I could hardly wait for Daddy to come home that night so I could show off, and I took enormous pleasure in asking him to come out to the barn to see if he thought the horns were legal. The deer had a beautiful 11 point rack measuring 22 inches inside, so Daddy allowed that it should be legal! Unfortunately we didn't weigh it in a field dressed condition, but completely dressed, without hide, legs, head, and internal organs, the carcass still weighed 125 pounds. It was definitely a b-b-i-i-g deer. By way of comparison, the average field dressed Pennsylvania deer goes about 90-100 pounds with the head, hide and legs still intact. Shortly after bagging it a city fellow from Pittsburgh offered me $25.00 for the rack, which was a lot of money back in 1949. I told him he wouldn't sell it, even for a hundred dollars, and he gave up and went away. Many years later, I had the rack measured by the Game Commission and it made the Pennsylvania record book with a Boone & Crocket measurement of 140.9. Not bad for a farm kid with punkin balls!

Miscellaneous Individuals and Families

During the course of researching this book, we have found information regarding a number of miscellaneous individuals and families with names similar or identical to ours. One Dietel family is obviously unrelated, and is included here to document this fact. The other families and individuals share variations of the family name, but we have not been able to determine whether or not they are related to our Somerset County, PA clan. We include them here as a subject for further research, and because we believe the descendants of the Somerset Co. Dietle/Deitle family will be delighted to know that there are many others in the world who use variations of our surname.

Daniel Schumacher's Baptismal Register<sup>442</sup>

The baptismal register of Daniel Schumacher, an early Lutheran minister in Pennsylvania, shows several families living in Pennsylvania long before ours arrived. On Dec. 4, 1763 Johannes Dittel, father, and Anna Catharina, mother, had their daughter Anna Catharina baptized. Anna Catharina was born the morning of Nov. 13 in Linn Twp. On June 16, 1764, Johannes Dittell, father, and Anna Catharina, mother, had their daughter Anna Christina baptized at Allemandel church (Friedens congregation) at Stony Run Or Wesnersville, Albany Township, Berks County. Anna Christina was born the evening of June 9th, and her baptismal sponsors were Friderich Dittell and Christina Fenstermachern. On Oct. 9th, 1773, Friederich Dittell, father, and Christina, mother, had their daughter Catharina Margaretha baptized. Catharina Margaretha was born on Sept. 26th.

John Diddle, Revolutionary War Soldier<sup>221</sup>

On Dana's first fact finding trip to Somerset she searched in a Revolutionary War Pension book quite by accident and found a Revolutionary War Veteran named John Diddle listed who received a pension in 1833. He was in the Virginia Continen'tl, and held the rank of private and Sergeant.

An Unrelated Dietel Family From Texas

The history of a Dietel family from Texas which is unrelated to ours is documented in a pamphlet entitled "German Families in Texas"<sup>18</sup>. The progenitor of that family was Johann Christian Tietel. He was born in Rodemisch, Germany in 1742, and moved to Hirschfeld, Saxony in 1770, where he died in 1840. His first wife was Johanna Magdalena Schöniger, who died in 1782. His second wife was Johanna Seyfert, who died in 1840. His only son, who was also named Johann Christian Tietel, was born in 1792 at Hirschfeld, and married Christine Caroline Fretag. The third son of Johann and Christine Tietel, who was named Johann Traugott Tietel, was born in Hirschfeld in 1818 and died in 1882 in Cleveland, Ohio. Long before coming to the United States, Johann Traugott Tietel changed the spelling of his last name to "Dietel" to facilitate pronunciation in German. Johann Traugott Dietel and his wife Christiane Ernestine Schurer had 11 children, all born in Hirschfeld, as follows<sup>18</sup>:

Christiane Antonie Dietel, born Sept. 1842, married Christian Dörfel
Ernst Anton Dietel, born July 1844, married Thekla Bäumgartel, Ernestine Pauline Dietel, born June 1846, married Hermann Helbig.
Christine Wilhelmine Dietel, born November 1848, married Rudolph Martin, Maria Bertha Dietel, born May 1850, married Anton Dörfel, Minna Hulda Dietel, born Sept. 1852, married Ernst Bretschneider, Ernst Albin Dietel, born July 1855, married Anna Krauss, Ernst Hermann Dietel, born Nov. 1857, married Katherine Mina Pape, Lina Bertha Dietel, born October 1860, married Franz Hergett,

Descendants of Johann Adam Dietel of 19th Century Somerset County, Pennsylvania

Ernst Bernhard Dietel, born May 1863, married Eleanor _____, and Anna Hulda Dietel, born Dec. 1865, married Fritz Beutel.

Ernest Hermann Dietel, son of Johann Traugott Dietel, also emigrated to Texas, and his descendants now live in the United States. We do not know if any of the other children of Johann Traugott Dietel also came to the United States. The obvious conclusion from the birth date of Johann Traugott Dietel and the date given for his name change from Tietel to Dietel is that none of the descendants of Johann Christian Tietel could possibly be ancestors of the Dietle/Deitle family of Somerset county. The Dietel descendants* of Ernest Hermann Dietel are as follows, using the numbering scheme found in "German Families From Texas"<sup>18</sup>:

A Dietle Family From Wurtemburg

(The material on this family is from Ref. 170 unless otherwise noted)

George Simon Dietle, who was born August 4, 1821 in Wurtemburg, Oberstat Nogalt (Nagold) Germany, is the first known progenitor of a Dietle family having its American roots in Michigan. It is not known when he came to America, but he was married to Elizabeth Catherine Grossman in Chelsea, Michigan on Dec. 27, 1856. Elizabeth was born on April 23, 1853 in Rohrdorf ober on Nagold, Wurtemburg, Germany and died Jan. 6, 1917. After residing in Chelsea for 13 years, they relocated to Bridgewater, Michigan. George died in Bridgewater on Sept. 28, 1897. Elizabeth was living with her daughter Lena in Manchester at the time of her death, January 6, 1917. Both George and Elizabeth are buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Manchester. George and Elizabeth are believed to have had 8 children, but only the following are known by name:

George Simon Dietle, Jr., b. 1860, d. 1919.
Eva Maria, b. Oct. 20/22, 1862, d. April 13, 1896
Frederick Dietle, b. 1865, d. 1915.
Katherine or Kathryn, b. 1868, d. 1925,
Lena,
Johann Adam "Eddie" or "Edward" Dietle, b. March 21, 1870, d. Oct. 10, 1948
Henry, b. 1890, d. 1909

George Simon Dietle, Jr., son of George S. Dietle and Elizabeth (Grossman) Dietle, married Amelia Brown and had the following children:

Edma Dietle,
Edith,
Edwin, b. 1897,
Helen, b. 1903,
Margaret, b. 1904,
Harold.

Eva Maria, daughter of George S. Dietle and Elizabeth (Grossman) Dietle, had no children.

Frederick Dietle, son of George S. Dietle and Elizabeth (Grossman) Dietle, married _____ Pfeifle, but had no children.

Katherine or Kathryn, daughter of George S. Dietle and Elizabeth (Grossman) Dietle, married John Landwehr and had the following children:

Clara, b. 1876 (sic)*,

Johann Adam and Eva's daughter Viola married H. Glenn Shutes and Wilbur Harrison, and had a son named Robert who was born on Jan. 18, 1927, and had what are apparently two grandchildren; Chris, b. Jan. 14, 1952, and Majorie, b. Aug. 14, 1953.

Johann Adam and Eva's daughter Alma married Raymond Mayer and had no children.

Johann Adam and Eva's daughter Ruth married Marion R. Sanford and had no children.

Carroll E. Dietle, son of Johann Adam "Eddie" Dietle and Eva (Gappa) Dietle, married Martha M. Haley, who died April 29, 1974. Carroll is the source of information regarding this Michigan Dietle family. He has told us that they pronounce the Dietle name as "Deet-Lee". Carroll was living in Chicago, IL in 1946, and was listed in the Roster of Professional Engineers, 6th Ed. 1946<sup>189</sup>. He was living in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1994, and has an interest in the genealogy of his family. Carroll and Martha have a son Carroll Eugene Dietle II who was born Jan. 4, 1940.

Carroll Eugene Dietle II, son of Carroll E. Dietle was a lawyer in the insurance business in Phoenix, AZ<sup>170</sup>. and was included in the 1975-1980 editions of the book Who's Who in

John Dietle, Michigan<sup>433</sup>

Social Security records show that a John Dietle was living in Detroit, Michigan 48219 at the time of his death in Jan. 1976. He was born on Sept. 17, 1909.

Ralf Dietl, Wachtberg, Germany<sup>469</sup>

Ralf Dietl is (1996) living in Wachtberg-Niederbachem, which is near Bonn, Germany<sup>483</sup>. He lives with Monika Clever<sup>483</sup>. One of their hobbies is riding motorcycle, and they have taken trips in the US and Germany<sup>483</sup>. Ralf's motorcycle is (1996) a Honda Gold Wing<sup>483</sup>. He has been teaching in a comprehensive school in Bonn since 1995<sup>483</sup>. He has dark hair and a full beard<sup>483</sup>.

When I wrote in early 1996 to Ralf Dietl of Wachtberg, Germany requesting information for this Appendix, he kindly replied with the following E-mail note: good to konw someone's caring for our names. There's not very much of information I'm able to add: all I know is the information my father gave me. His father was from Bavaria and and had the name "Kaufmann" (dealer). When he opened a shop of his own, he didn't want to keep his name, because the bavarians usually mention the profession with the name, what would have been "Kaufmann Kaufmann" (dealer dealer). So he got his name changed to the popular name (in bavaria) Dietl (root: Dieterle = little Dieter) and he was called "Kaufmann Dietl" (dealer Dietl). I don't know, if the story is true. Anyway, it wasn't unusual to change his name, so maybe that's about it.

"Hi,
Many greeting from Germany
Ralf."

A Dietle Family From Austria<sup>191</sup>

In April, 1994 I obtained records of the names and addresses of all U.S. telephone listings under the name "Deitle". This list contained 20 different names, 19 of which appeared to be recognized members of our Somerset County Deitle/Dietle family. The 20th name was that of Frank Deitle of Mishawaka, IN. I called and talked to his widow Mary, and was able to ascertain that their Deitle family is not connected to ours by any relationship occurring on this side of the Atlantic ocean.

This family pronounces their name Die-tull with the ei in the first syllable pronounced "eye". Mary said that in German, the "ei" and "ie" sounds are backwards, meaning "ei" is pronounced "eye" and "ie" is pronounced the same as the "e" in he.

The original immigrant ancestor of this family was Frank's grandfather, who came from Christiandom, Austria. Family tradition has it that his wife was disowned by her family for marrying him, which helped them decide to come to America. He first went to Napierville, __, but ended up in Benton Harbor, Michigan. In or near Benton Harbor he cleared the land for his farm. One of the trees felled during the clearing of the land was used to make a walnut table or tables that are in the possession of Frank's widow Mary Deitle with whom I spoke.

Frank, his father, and his Grandfather the original immigrant all had the same first name. All three of these Frank Deitle's are buried in a Catholic Cemetery in Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Frank's widow Mary says that they have been to Germany, and (with the help of someone who spoke German) tried to call a Deitle that they found a telephone listing for. The Deitle they called was on the other side of the Iron Curtain, and was unwilling to talk to them—perhaps out of fear of the government there. Mary reports that her daughter now has an interest in genealogy, and that they have some of the papers of the original immigrant.

The Social Security records show that Frank Deitle was born on Nov. 1, 1903 and died in January, 1978, and that his last place of residence was Mishawaka, Indiana 46544<sup>433</sup>. His Social Security card was issued in Michigan<sup>433</sup>.

A Dietle Family from California<sup>223</sup>

Contact has been made with a Dietle family from California. What we know of this family has been gained from a questionnaire which was returned by James Dietle of Paradise, California in 1994. It is not clear on the questionnaire if some of the women's names are maiden names, middle names, or married names.

James believes, but isn't sure, that his father's father was named Charles. His father's mother was named Bessie. James' father was Arthur Thomas (presumably Dietle), an Optometrist, who was born on April 11, 1903, and his mother was Mary Rita, daughter of Angelena Paventi. Mary Rita was born Feb. 2, 1905. James Dietle was born Aug. 19, 1928 in Oroville, California, and he has a sister Sarah Ann who was born April 16, 1923. James is married to Alma Dean, who was born March 30, 1931. James has two children, as follows:

Keith Eugene, born Aug. 31, 1951 in Oroville, California, and Thomas Edward, born Jan. 3, 1954 in Paradise, California.

A Dietle Family from Connecticut<sup>182</sup>

Contact has been made with a Dietle family from Connecticut. What we know of this family has been gained from a questionnaire which was sent to Donald Dietle of Wallingford, Connecticut.

The oldest members of this family which we know of are Goethrth and Regina Dietle, who had the following children:

Joseph Francis Dietle Sr., b. April 8, 1900

Carl Dietle

Helen

Joseph Francis Dietle Sr.* , son of Goethrth and Regina Dietle, married Arlene Paecht. Arline, the daughter of Otto F. and Ottlie Paecht, was born on Dec. 6, 1909. They had the following children:

Joseph Francis Dietle, Jr., b. May 27, 1927

Donald Dietle, Sr., b. Oct. 4, 1930 in New Haven, CT

Joseph Francis Dietle, Jr., son of Joseph Francis Dietle and Arlene (Paecht) Dietle, married Joan McNally. He lived for a time in California. He now lives in Peach Tree City, Georgia. Joseph has the following children:

James Joseph Dietle who is recently married in California (reported in 1994), Janace Ann, who is (1994) married and living in California, and a daughter in Georgia who is married.

* Joseph Francis Dietle, Sr. had a cousin Arthur Dietle who lived in New Haven, and had a son Art, Jr. who married and lived in Durham, Ct.

Donald Dietle, Sr., son of Joseph Francis Dietle and Arlene (Paecht) Dietle, married Jerrine Hall, who was born Oct. 7, 1931. Donald has the following children:

John Joseph Dietle, b. August 30, 1959,
Donald "Don" James Dietle, Jr., and
Dona Jerrine Dietle, b. Feb. 24, 1973

John Joseph Dietle, son of Donald Dietle, Sr., lives in Middletown, Ct. He married Elizabeth Scala and had the following two children:

Matthew John
Aimee

Donald "Don" James Dietle, Jr., son of Donald Dietle, Sr., married Susan Cricco and lives in Wallingford, CT.

Dona Jerrine Dietle is not yet married in 1994. She lives in Wallingford, CT.

Carl Dietle, son of Goethrth and Regina Dietle, married Mae Lynch. He lived in New Haven, CT, but is now (1994) deceased. Carl had the following children:

Margaret, and Regina

Regina Cravin is (1994) living in RI. We speculate that Cravin is her married name.

Helen McLaughlan, daughter of Goethrth and Regina Dietle, is (1994) no longer living. She had 2 children. We speculate that McLaughlan was her married name.

A Dietel/Dietle Family from Illinois

Contact has been made with a Dietle family that has been traced to Illinois. What we know of this family has been gained from material graciously supplied by Donald Dietle of Jefferson City, Missouri.

The German military records of the original immigrant ancestor of this family alternately gives his name as Johann Leonhardt Dietl and Leonhard Johann Dietel, and states that he was 5'8" tall<sup>183</sup>. In the United States he called himself John L. Dietle<sup>184</sup>. He was born on May 25, 1820<sup>183,184</sup> at Ohrenbach, kglen Landgerichts Rothenburg*<sup>183</sup> in Mittelfranken, Bavaria<sup>183,184</sup> and died on May 29, 1897<sup>185</sup>. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and is buried in the Fletcher Cemetery<sup>185</sup>. He landed in Baltimore, MD on August 28, 1846<sup>184</sup> and went to Hancock Co. in 1856<sup>185</sup>. He was married to Wilhelmine<sup>185</sup> or Wilhelmina<sup>186</sup> (Oehlert<sup>185</sup>) Roth<sup>185</sup> on July 15, 1859<sup>185</sup>. She was the former wife of Conrad Roth, and with Conrad had 3 children<sup>185</sup>. She was also known as Minnie or Winnie<sup>185</sup>. Wilhelmine was born in Neystad a d Orl, Saxony on September 26, 1834<sup>184</sup> and died April 14, 1907<sup>186</sup>. She was the daughter of Georg and Hannah Ochlert, and came with them to the United States in 1847<sup>184</sup>. John and Wilhelmine's children (not including the Roth children) were 3 girls and 3 boys, all born in Illinois, as follows:

John L. Dietle, Jr., b. May 23, 1860 (sic) in Lima Twp., Adams Co.<sup>184</sup>,
Hanna Teresia Dietle, b. Feb. 20, 1870 at Rocky Run<sup>184</sup>,

* We believe that the Ohrenbach mentioned may be the village so-named which is located 10-15 km (6-9 miles) north of Rothenburg ob der Tauber<sup>188</sup>. Rothenburg is located along Autobahn A7 about 50 km (31 miles) south of Wurzburg. This is about 130 km (81 miles) in a direct line from Bad Bernech, which we believe to be the home of our immigrant ancestor Johann Adam Dietel.

T(F?)iene Dietle, b. Nov. 14, 1872 at Rocky Run<sup>184</sup>.

In Wilhelmina's obituary, her daughters with John Dietle were listed as Mrs. Minnie Herzog and Mrs. William Baker of Tioga and Mrs. Louis Hohalter of Mallard<sup>186</sup>. In the same obituary, their sons John and Frank Dietle were listed as living in Palmyra, Missouri, and their son William was listed as living in La Grange, Missouri<sup>186</sup>. The obituary said she had 9 children, 25 grandchildren, and 2 gg-grandchildren.

James Samuelson Dietle, b. Sept. 30, 1983, and Drew Thomas Dietle, b. Dec. 2, 1986.

Jana Beth, b. Nov. 15, 1958, who married John Ronald Revell, and Eden Gay Dietle, b. Aug. 17, 1965.

Julie Anne Dietle, b. Sept. 30, 1957, who married Roger Dale Colbert on Aug. 7, 1976,
Robert Lee Dietle, b. March 29, 1959, who married Sorrel Rose on March 14, 1991,
Carla Rae Dietle, born May 15, 1964, who married Timothy Frederick Bourne on July 23, 1983, and
Everett Austin Dietle, b. April 13, 1970.

The Family of Heinz Dietel<sup>172</sup>

Robert Ray Dietel, who was living in Lakewood, Ohio in 1993, wrote to us that his father was Heinz, b. August 23, 1926, and his mother was Gertrud _____, born Nov. 4, 1938. Heinz is or was a tool and die maker. Robert also reports that Anna _____ was the mother of Heinz, and Edgar _____ and Frieda _____ were the parents of Gertrud. Robert Ray Dietel was born on July 13, 1965 at Fairview Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. He is (1993) married to Jo Ellen "Gance" (_____) Dietel; they have (in 1993) no children. Robert has two siblings; a sister Linda, born July 21, 1963, who married Richard Pavlek, and a brother Alfred, born April 29, 1968.

The Family of John Edward Dietel<sup>173</sup>

Bob Dietel, who was living in East Berlin, PA in 1993, wrote to us that his father was Martin J. Dietel, with a possible birth date of March 30, 1927, and his mother was Virginia (Rein) Dietel, with a possible birth date of August 7, 1923. The parents of Martin J. Dietel were John Edward and Dorothy F. Dietel, and the parents of Virginia (Rein) Dietel were George and Florence V. Rein. Bob Dietel has two brothers, James Martin Dietel, born August 15, 1947, and John Rodger Dietel, born May 8, 1952. James Dietel married Paulette Rehkugler, but has since divorced. Bob tells us that his father Martin was an employee of Amp, Inc.. Bob was born in Malden, Mass. on March 6, 1950, and is (1993) married to Jayne Prosser Way, who was born on July 24, 1949. Bob and Jayne have no children.

Cathern Dietel<sup>377</sup>

In 1993 I did a computer search of PA telephone listings using various potential spellings of the surname, and found a Cathern Deitel in Harrisburg. I sent her a letter of inquiry and she replied as follows:

"Dear Lannie-

The correct spelling of the name I 'had' was Dietel. That is the name of my ex-husband. I don't have his current address, but, his name is Robert Dietel. I think he may still be in the Harrisburg area. Good Luck!

Cathern Onufrak"

John Dietle, Civil War Casualty

A Civil War Soldier named John Dietle appears on the Muster Roll of Company E., 105th Regiment of Pennsylvania Infantry as a Private<sup>138,139,142</sup>. He enlisted for 3 years of service on Sept. 1, 1861<sup>138</sup>. He was originally mustered into Captain Dick's Co. on Sept. 4, 1861 at Pittsburg (sic)<sup>138</sup>. This organization subsequently became Company E, 105th Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers<sup>138</sup>. John Dietle was 18 years of age at the time of his enlistment, and was 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches tall with brown eyes and a dark complexion<sup>138</sup>.

Our main source of information regarding John Dietle is his Civil War military records, which are available at the National Archives<sup>138</sup>. In these papers his surname is alternately spelled Dietle and Deitle<sup>138</sup>. These papers indicate that he was killed in action at the battle of Fair Oaks on May 31, 1862, and make no mention of his next of kin, or where he was from<sup>138</sup>.

According to a list included in the book History of Bedford and Somerset Counties Pennsylvania, John Dietle is not included among the Somerset County Civil War casualties which are listed on the Somerset County Soldier's Monument. In the 1850 census of Somerset Co. the only Dietle family we have found has been that of our "first" Adam, in which only two sons are enumerated, John Adam and Nicholas<sup>94</sup>. In the 1860 census of Somerset Co. the only Dietle families that we have found are one of the "first" Adam<sup>104</sup>, and one of his son John Adam<sup>105</sup>. It therefore appears that John Dietle, the Civil War soldier, was not a third son of the "first" Adam, and was not staying with the "first" Adam or his son John Adam in 1860. If he was staying as a boarder with another family, he would be very difficult to find in the census records, which are indexed by heads of the households. It also does not appear that John Dietle, the Civil War soldier, is our ancestor John Adam, given the discrepancy in age, and the fact that John Adam did not die in the Civil War.

Dana has unsuccessfully searched the 1860 census of Westmoreland Co., and various books on Westmoreland Co. (including a cemetery index) for individuals having a name similar to Dietle<sup>143</sup>. Six Tittle families were found in the 1860 census; one with a family member aged 34, who is far too old to be the John Dietle of Co. E. We have found no evidence that John Dietle of Co. E was living in Westmoreland Co. prior to his enlistment.

A muster-roll and brief history of Company E of the 105th Regiment is given in the book History of the One Hundred and Fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers<sup>142</sup>. This book also indicates that John Deitle enlisted on Sept. 4, 1861, and was killed at Fair Oaks, Va. May 31, 1862<sup>142</sup>. This book gives an account of the origins of Company E as follows<sup>142</sup>:

"Company E was enlisted at Camp Markle, which was situated on the farm of General Markle, about three miles from West Newton, Westmoreland county, Pa. Some tents had been procured by Captain M.M. Dick, and the company remained there until their ranks were full, their enlistment dating from August 25, 1861. They were partially uniformed while at Camp Markle. On the 3d day of September they marched to West Newton, where a large crowd had assembled to witness their departure, and, before leaving, the company was presented with a beautiful flag, and each member with a beautiful needle-case and handsomely bound Bible by the ladies of West Newton. They left West Newton that evening, and arrived in Pittsburgh, where they went into Camp Wilkins, and were mustered into the United States service, September 4th, by Captain H. B. hays, Sixth United States Cavalry. The company numbering one hundred and six men, five had to be sent home, as the complement for a company was one hundred and one. This caused some dissatisfaction, as all were anxious to go. The company left Camp Wilkins September 9th, and arrived in Washington on the 11th, where they joined Colonel Leasures "Roundhead" Regiment, which then lay at Kalorama Heights. Here they drew Harper's Ferry muskets and clothing.

Some difficulty arising between Colonel Leasure and Captain Dick, the latter withdrew his company from Colonel Leasure's regiment, September 20, 1862 (sic-evidently a typographical error and supposed to be 1861), and joined Colonel McKnight's, which was also encamped at Kalorama.....

During the entire term of service there were on the rolls of the company one hundred and ninety-three men; of these forty nine were drafted men and substitutes. They lost twenty-six men killed and died.

This company not being originally raised for the One Hundred and Fifth Regiment, and coming from a locality remote from the other companies, all of which were originally intended for this regiment, it necessarily has a history of its own before it entered the One Hundred and Fifth."

A roster and brief history of the 105th Regiment is given in the book History of Pennsylvania Volunteers, 1861-5<sup>139</sup>. This book indicates that Company E was recruited in Westmorland County (which is adjacent to Somerset County) and lists among it's members John Deitle, killed at Fair Oaks, Va. May 31, 1862<sup>139</sup>. This book gives an account of the Battle of Fair Oaks as follows<sup>139</sup>:

"Having moved up and crossed the Chickahominy, it was posted with the corps of Heintzelman and Casey covering the roads leading toward Richmond and the White Oak Swamp, where, on the 31st of May, the enemy attacked. Kearney's Division being on the extreme left, was not ordered into action until the battle had been raging for some time on the right, in front of Fair Oaks, where Couch and Casey stood. "I had disposed of all of my command," says General Jameson, "at different points, with the exception of three hundred and forty eight men of the One Hundred and Fifth Pennsylvania, under Colonel McKnight. All our men had fled from the abattis in the vicinity of the Richmond Road. Our only alternative was to make the best stand possible with the handful of men under Colonel M'Knight. We led them across the open field and up the Richmond Road into the abattis, at a double quick, and under a most terrible fire, deploying one-half on either side of the road. For more than an hour and a half this small force held every inch of ground. At last the enemy broke and ran, and M'Knight pursued them through Casey's old camp. During the time that M'Knight was engaged on the Richmond Road, our line had been gradually giving way about a quarter of a mile to his right. Just as M'Knight succeeded in routing the force in his front, our line gave way entirely at the point above indicated, and the rebel force came pouring into the Richmond Road directly in his rear, and while the gallant M'Knight was pursuing the South Carolina chivalry towards Richmond, the rebel forces directly in his rear were pursuing a portion of our forces towards the Chickahominy. I then received orders to withdraw my men if possible. With great difficulty they succeeded in filing off to the left in the woods towards White Oak Swamp, retreating along the edge of the swamp back to our second line of defenses." When the regiment went into action company G was on guard at the bridge in the rear, and companies C and I were away on fatigue duty. On being relieved these companies hastened forward, but unable to join the rest of the command were ordered by General Heintzelman to form on the right of the Fifty-seventh Pennsylvania, and with that regiment did excellent service. The regiment lost forty-one killed, one hundred and fifty wounded, and seventeen missing..... Headley, in mentioning this regiment in the battle, says, "Napoleon's veterans never stood firmer under a devastating fire."'"

Another Dietle Civil War Soldier ?

Richard Deitle, son of Walter and Thelma Irene (Cox) Deitle, wrote the following to us in 1993 regarding a family Civil War tradition "This info goes back to the Civil War. I am not sure, but I think, this person was my great-great-great grandfather. He was killed at Gettysburg & the name appears on the memorial. We found it perhaps 25 years ago. The spelling at that time was Dieddle, I think." In a telephone interview, Richard said it might have been spelled Diettle, and he thought it was on the main monument of the tour which had an eternal flame. Julia Prokop has also seen the name on a Gettysburg Monument. We have conclusive evidence to show that Richard's Great-Grandfather Nicholas Dieddle served in the Civil War and lived until 1918, but we don't have any evidence that Nicholas Dieddle, or any other Dietle family member, fought at Gettysburg. Still, it is an interesting possibility that some other Dieddle did serve in the Civil War and fight at Gettysburg. I called the Gettysburg park service in Nov. 1993, and they searched the park records and said that the name "Dieddle" was not included on any monument in the Gettysburg park. It seems logical that the individual who is or was listed on the Gettysburg Memorial is not John Dietle, as he was killed at the Battle of Fair Oaks, long before the battle of Gettysburg. Still, it is known that the names included on Gettysburg memorials were sometimes made from obsolete rosters which contained the names of soldiers which could not possibly have participated in the battle. The 105 Regiment, Penna Infantry to which John Dietle belonged did participate in the battle of Gettysburg, so perhaps the name of John Dietle is or was included on a monument there by mistake. Our parents visited the Pennsylvania Monument at Gettysburg in April 1994 and looked on the monument and on the alphabetical list of the Park Service and could not find any Dietle or similar name. They did, however, see where some names had been removed from the monument. Perhaps the Dietle name was included 25 years ago by mistake, but was removed. I have heard that some correction of the names on the monuments has taken place over the years.

Francis Ray “J.R.” Dietl<sup>406</sup>

Francis Ray “J. R.” Dietl of Tulsa, Oklahoma is the son of Francis Adolph Dietl and Dorothy Rae Frosch. His father, a Pharmacist, was born in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, and his mother was born in Grimms, Wisconsin. He was born on January 26, 1995 in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, and grew up there as well. He generally goes by “J.R.” instead of his given name Francis which he shares with his father. Both he and his parents did not like him being called Junior, so he took the initials “J.R.” and they have stuck ever since, starting way before the character “J.R. Ewing” of the “Dallas” television show made the initials famous.

When J.R. was only 14 his father died at age 61. His father had suffered massive bleeding from a ulcer lodged in his upper airway shortly before death. He survived surgery to remove the ulcer, and the bleeding stopped. After a week of recovery, however, he suffered a cardiac arrest. The nursing staff did not know CPR, and so he died before the physician arrived. Shortly after that, J.R.’s mother had a double stroke and also died. After becoming orphaned, he lived at his best friend’s house with his parents for one year, and then was allowed to live at home by himself with a conservatorship for bookkeeping.

J.R. has no known living relatives, and originally contacted me via E-mail to inquire about the Dietl family name. He had not heard of any other Dietl’s except an individual named Bo Dietl whom he saw on television (CNN) relative to the O. J. Simpson murder trial, and he desires additional information on his particular family’s history. If anyone has information on his parents’ families, please let me know and I will pass it on to him.

J.R. attended Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa and majored in Physical Education with a minor in Biology. He also completed courses at the University of Iowa in Paramedicine, and received a certificate as an Advanced EMT (Paramedic level); the first in the state. He is now (1995) a paramedic in Oklahoma, and works for Alliance Medical out of Russellville, Missouri. He sells and provides training on EMT/Paramedic equipment in Oklahoma and Texas. He teaches Basic Level Ambulance Care (EMT and Advanced level (Paramedic) in both Oklahoma and Texas, and also does guest lectures in both states. He has also designed several new products which are presently being marketed.

J.R.’s hobbies are tennis, fishing, and model airplanes. His father’s hobbies were fishing and carpentry, and his mother’s hobbies were Church social events and fund raising. J.R. was associated with the Lutheran church before marriage, and has been associated with the Methodist denomination afterwards. He is married to Julie Ann (Gram) Dietl, and has an adopted son named Matthew Robert Dietl, who was born February 16, 1991 and adopted February 26, 1991.

Beau Dietl & Assoc.

Beau Dietl and Associates Security and Investigations, Inc. is a security firm based in Maspeth, N.Y. in 1993<sup>424</sup>. In 1993, the Executive Director of the company was Christopher Rush<sup>424</sup>. The firm was referenced in 1993 & 1994 in articles dealing with corporate security<sup>424,425</sup>. A Park Ave., N.Y. address was given in the 1994 article<sup>425</sup>.

Bo Dietl

Bo Dietl is or was a New York Homicide policeman in 1990<sup>488</sup>. In a 1990 article, it was said that he was the subject of a forthcoming movie named “One Tough Cop”<sup>488</sup>. In the 1990 “Tinseltown Showdown Celebrity Boxing Show” (a fundraiser for CORE) at the Taj Mahal Casino in Atlantic City, Bo Dietl fought actor Burt Young<sup>488</sup>, who in the Rocky V film<sup>489</sup> starred as “Paulie”, the brother-in-law<sup>488</sup>. Tickets were $50.00 to $250.00<sup>488</sup>. Bo Dietl lost to Young<sup>489</sup>. The same Bo Dietl also reportedly played a policeman in “Goodfellas”<sup>489</sup>. In 1986 a man named Bo Dietl, said to be a “private investigator and former police officer” was running as a Republican for a Rep. seat in the borough of Queens, New York<sup>491</sup>. We don’t know if Bo Dietl is in any way related to the Beau Dietl and Associates firm which is mentioned above.

Peter Dietl<sup>426</sup>

In 1992 Peter Dietl was reported to be General Manager of the Krueger Co., a recycling processor located in Tempe, Arizona. He was quoted extensively in American Metal Market in 1992 on the subject of electronic component recycling from comments he made at a “Precious Metals Roundtable” which was sponsored by the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries Inc..

Jerzy Dietl

According to two articles in Management Review in 1990, Jerzy Dietle was then a member of Poland’s Parlement<sup>422,423</sup>. He was part of a delegation which visited New York<sup>423</sup>, and he visited Eastern Washington University, apparently to attend a two week seminar on western business management practices<sup>422</sup>. He also attended the 1991 “Transition to a Market Economy—Institutional Aspects” conference in the U.S., and was mentioned in an article as Vice Chairman of Poland’s Commission of National Economy, as well as a member of Poland’s Senate<sup>490</sup>. In a 1996 internet WWW page relating to the 1993 Alliance of Universities for Democracy (AUDEM) Fourth Annual Conference, it was noted that Jerzy Dietl presented a paper entitled Economic Expansion and Educational Reform: Closing the Gap. He was listed as being a Professor at the University of Lodz, Poland, and President of the Educational Enterprise Foundation.

Gulshan Dietl

According to Akbar Mahdi’s internet WWW page publicizing the 1995 Program of the The Thirteenth Annual Conference of the Center for Iranian Research and Analysis (CIRA) at Ohio State University, Gulshan Dietl (Jawaharlal Nehru University, India), was to present a paper or talk titled “Iran: Options and Opportunities in the Gulf”.

Rolland Dietel<sup>419</sup>

According to an article in the Portland Business Journal in June, 1991, Rolland Dietel, a Systems Consultant, retired from heavy truck manufacturer Freightliner Corp. after 34 years of service. One of his contributions there was developing the firm's materials planning systems.

Mark Dietel

According to an articles in the Progressive Grocer in 1994, Mark Dietel is President of Mr. D's Food Market<sup>418,419</sup>, which has seven stores, five of which are in Indianapolis, Indiana<sup>418</sup>. In one of the articles relating to his competition, he said that some of the things his business does well are "good meat, a service image, and friendly people"<sup>419</sup>.

Colonel General Eduard Dietl

Eduard Dietl, a Bavarian, was born on July 21, 1890 in Aibling. On Oct. 1, 1909<sup>407</sup>. He joined the Imperial German Army as an Ensign, and in 1911 he became part of the 5th Bavarian Infantry III<sup>407</sup>. He remained on in the Reichsheer after WW-I, and was eventually promoted to Major General<sup>407</sup>. He received command of 3rd Gebirgs xx (which was made up of Austrian units) on May 1, 1938, and led it during the German invasion of Poland as part of the 17th Armee Korps<sup>407</sup>. He later captured the port of Narvik in northern Norway, but was forced to yield it to superior Allied forces after loosing his Naval re-supply line<sup>407</sup>. He had 2,600 Sailors (from destroyers which had been sunk) and 2,000 mountain troops, and was driven out after a siege lasting seven weeks<sup>479</sup>. Support from Germany was difficult, because the only land route to Narvik was through Sweden, and Narvik was beyond easy range of German air power<sup>479</sup>. Despite their isolation, his 3rd Gebirgs xx kept on fighting and eventually retook Narvik<sup>407</sup>. As I understand it, Dietl faced 24,500 Allied troops at about this time, but Allied forces were crumbling in France, and so they decided to withdraw from Norway<sup>479</sup>.

On June 14, 1940 Dietl was given command of Gebirgs Korps Norway, which he led into Finland in 1941 as part of the invasion of Russia, and subsequently took part in fighting near Murmansk<sup>407</sup>. On June 1, 1942 he was promoted to Colonel General<sup>407</sup>. During 1942-1944 he was well known in the German press as Commander of the 20th Gebirgs Armee in Finland and Norway<sup>407</sup>. He died in 1944 when his airplane crashed during a trip to Austria<sup>407</sup>. One of his military decorations was the seldom awarded Knight's Cross to the Iron Cross with Oak Leaves and Swords<sup>407</sup>. He was known as Hitler's "Soldier in the Snow"<sup>480</sup>.

Helmut Dietl

Helmut Dietl is a prominent director of German-speaking films<sup>416</sup>. He recently made the movie "Schtonk!"<sup>410,411</sup> that was a big success in Germany. This controversial<sup>411</sup> political comedy was about the Hitler Diaries hoax, and was a big success in Germany<sup>410</sup>. "Schtonk!" is one of a very few German films dealing with World War II Nazis, as it has been difficult for Germans to come to terms with this evil part of their past<sup>411</sup>. The film was eventually released in English<sup>411</sup>, and was nominated for an Oscar for best foreign film in 1993<sup>411</sup>. The title "Schtonk!" is Yiddish for "A Terrible Mess"<sup>411</sup>, and the term was used as an expletive by Charlie Chaplin in "The Great Dictator"<sup>410</sup>.

Josef Dietl<sup>421</sup>

According to an article in Intelligent Highway, Josef Dietl left his job as Vice President for Marketing and Sales of European Geographic Technologies (EGT), on Oct. 17, 1994. EGT is a Best, Netherlands, based digital mapping company.

Enrique Dietl<sup>412</sup>

According to an article in Forbes magazine in 1991, Enrique Dietl was the Finance Chief of a company named La Celulosa, Argentina's biggest producer of pulp and paper. Citicorp Capital Investors teamed with local investors to purchase La Celuosa from an Argentina state-owned bank circa 1990/91, and La Celuosa stock became a hot item in 1991 when the value of shares rose from $1.80 to $5.00 in less than a year. Company revenues were $120 million in 1990 and $150 million in 1991.

Warren & Christine B. Dietel

In a 1991 article Warren Dietel was reported as a Principal in<sup>413</sup>, and the Accounts Manager<sup>414</sup> of Puff'n Stuff Catering, a family owned and operated<sup>413</sup> catering firm which had a revenue of 1.2 million dollars in 1990<sup>414</sup>, and which was reported to be a 25 year old business in 1991<sup>413</sup>. Christine B. Dietel was reported to be a Co-Owner in a 1992 article<sup>415</sup>. Puff'n Stuff Catering is (1991) located at 3535 Forsyth Road, Winter Park, Florida<sup>413</sup>, and in early 1991 the firm had a part time staff of about 150<sup>414</sup>. Warren is the son of Christine Dietel, the daughter of Barbara O'Brian, and Glenn Dietel<sup>484</sup>.

Families found in the LDS IGI<sup>428</sup>

The LDS International Genealogical Index™ contains a computer listing of approximately 500 European Dietle family members, evidently taken from church records, which date from the 1600's. Since no positive match could be made for the family of our original immigrant ancestor Johann Adam Dietel, the LDS IGI family group information was not pursued further by us. Those interested are encouraged to review the LDS records themselves.

Passenger & Emigration Lists

Many Germans bearing surnames similar to ours have traveled to America. The names of a few shown below have been identified from indexes to surviving German Emigration lists, and from indexes to ship passenger lists. Many individuals who appeared on such passenger lists were probably immigrants. The names of these individuals are included below as a subject for future research, although their relationship to our Somerset Co. Dietle family, if any, has not been established. For those who are interested, many additional Dietle immigrants are listed in the book Germans to America, which is available at Clayton Library, Houston, TX. German emigrants used two primary points of departure from Germany; Bremen and Hamburg. The Wanderbuch of Johann Adam Dietel indicates that he emigrated from Bremen. Most of the Bremen emigration lists were destroyed in World War II. The Hamburg lists are intact, but didn't start until 1850. We have not found definitive passenger or emigration records for our immigrant ancestor or for his family members.

Mineral Rights Lease<sup>168</sup>

This copy of a mineral right lease was handed down to a descendant of Nicholas Deitle. In those days it would have probably been the practice to have two copies of such an agreement that were signed by both parties, so that each party would have a signed copy. Certain parts of this copy of the lease are not filled in, such as the part that identifies the second party, yet Mary Deitle signed her mark to it, and the agreement it was witnessed. We do not know if any copy of this lease was ever signed by the second party. The missing items on Mary's copy may have merely been an oversight during transcription, or possibly not knowing how to read, she may not have realized that items were missing. It is of course also possible that the agreement was never finalized.

This Lease made this 14th day of August A.D. 1899 by and between Mary Deetle of the County of Somerset and State of Pennsylvania of the first part and _____ (name not filled in) of the second part, Witnesseth, That the said party of the first part, in consideration of the stipulations, rents and covenants hereinafter contained, on the part of the said parties of the second part, their executors, administrators and assigns to be paid, debt and performed has granted, demised, and let unto the said parties of the second part their executors, administrators and assigns, for the sole and only purpose of mining and excavating for Petroleum, Oil or Gas, all of that certain tract of land situated in Greenville township, Somerset County, and the State of Pennsylvania bounded, and described as follows, to wit: on the south by lands of Simon Glotfelty on the West by lands of Adam Deitle by lands of Jacob P. Miller deceased and on the East by lands of George Werner Containing one hundred acres more or less.

To Have and to Hold the said premises for the said purposes only, unto the parties of the second part, their executors, administrators or assigns for, during until the full term of one year next ensuing the day and year above written, or while oil or gas is found in paying quantities.

The said parties of the second part hereby covenants in consideration of the said grant and demise, to deliver unto the said party of the first part her heirs and assigns, the full equal one Eighth part of the Petroleum Oil discovered, excavated, pumped and raised on the premises herein leased, as produced, excavated, or pumped in the crude state and the said parties to deliver the same in pipe lines.

The said party of the first part to fully use and enjoy the said premises for the purposes of tillage, except such as shall be necessary for said mining purposes, and a right of way over and across the said premises The said party of the second part is further to have the privilege of using sufficient water from the premises herein leased to run the necessary engines. The said party of the first part covenant to grant the said parties of the second part the right to remove all machinery and fixtures placed on said premises by them, also the exclusive right to lay and operate pipe lines to convey oil or Gas. It is further agreed that if gas is only obtained in sufficient quantities, to utilize the consideration in full to the party of the first part shall be one Eighth for each and every well drilled on the premises herein described of twenty-five pound pressure and one dollar per pound for each additional pound pressure per annum, payable within sixty days after completion of such well, and thereafter yearly in advance at Salisbury. It is further agreed by the parties hereto that the capacity of all gas wells shall be determined by accurate pressure gauge on the pipe or casing at well with all apertures from the same closed for one minute in the presence of the party of the first part or her authorized representatives. It is further agreed that if a well should be obtained so large that its capacity can not be ascertained with the escapes closed it shall be taken with them open and _____ : _____ per pound thus registered shall be paid as yearly rental. Such gauges shall be taken in like manner at the end of each year after completion of each well..... computed on the above mentioned basis. Operations on the above mentioned premises shall be commenced within one year from the date hereof and be prosecuted with due diligence to completion and in case of a failure to commence operations at such time, the parties of the second part hereby agree to pay the party of the first part the sum of Fifty dollars for another year after the time commencing ..... above specified, payable at Salisbury, and the party of the first part hereby agrees to accept such sum as full consideration and payment for such yearly delay until operations are commenced, and a failure to make any such payments within such time and at such places as above Mentioned renders this lease null and void and to .....

It is understood by and between the parties to this agreement that all conditions between the parties hereto shall extend to their heirs, executors & assigns. In witness whereof, we, the said parties to the first and second part have hereunto Set our hand and seals the day and year above written.

References

Note: In early drafts of this book an appendix incorporated a number of extensive ahnentafels of the spouses of certain descendants. The ahnentafels were deleted from the final draft because we did not have the time or desire to perform the additional research required to validate their accuracy; it would easily have taken twice again as much effort as we have already spent. We kept the related references, however, to provide a head start for those who may wish to research the ancestry of spouses, and that is why there are such a great number of references listed below. Toward this objective, whenever an ahnentafel was deleted, the references were recited in a footnote to the relevant individual.
